Special Jubilee Events Set for Scout Observance

Special jubilee events to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America are now being planned by local Scout officials. Individual Cub Scout packs are planning to celebrate the event with games and ceremonies in various backyards and parks July 23. A jubilee camporee is planned that same week end at Camp McLaughlin, Lake of the Woods. The camporee, which is open to all Boy Scouts, will be "the biggest outdoor event ever held in the Crater Lake Council," Rene Bounds, chairman of the event said.

Events Noted
Events for the camporee include night orientation tests, conservation county fair, Boy Scout demonstration areas, patrol skill contests, troop exhibits, patrol challenge contest and the "50 Years of Scouting" campfire.

Still another jubilee celebration is the jubilee field day for explorers to be held July 24 at the Medford city park. Six special events will be available to Explorers, according to Andrew H. Schmidt, explorer cabinet advisor.

These events will include baseball, volley ball, horse-shoes, golf, tennis and a Driver-o-rama.

Also included are a chicken barbecue and swimming. Bill Dahlstrom, chairman of the field day committee said.

Jury Indicts Man On Murder Charge

Salem — (UPI) — James Byrd Borden, 35, was indicted Friday by the Marion county grand jury on a charge of first degree murder. Borden is a parolee from the Oregon State Mental hospital. The suspect admitted he strangled Wilma Maxine Spratt, 38, early last Saturday.

District Attorney Hattie Kremen said Borden would undergo a mental examination to determine if he is competent to stand trial.

PLANE VICTIM RETURNED

Manila — (UPI) — The body of Mrs. Clyde Kelly, Springfield, Ohio, who was the only person killed in Thursday's Northwest Orient Airlines plane ditching, was to be flown back to the United States Saturday. The other passengers, including Mrs. Kelly's husband Guy, 60, were saved by Philippine and U.S. Air Force rescue craft.

CHARGES U.S. PLANS ATTACK—Cuban Defense Minister Raul Castro, left, brother of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, talks with Czech Premier Vilam Siroky in Prague. Castro wound up his official visit to Communist Czechoslovakia with new charges the American "imperialists" plan to attack Cuba with the U.S. program of "economic strangulation" falls. Youngster Saves Uncle's Life

Oregon City — (UPI) — A 13-year-old Astoria youngster is credited with saving the life of his 19-year-old uncle when the elder boy fell into quick sand near the Clackamas river about 75 miles from here. J. R. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Smith, Astoria, used a fishing pole and tree limbs to pull Bill Graham from the sand. According to Graham's mother, the boys were on a fishing trip and while crossing the river, the older boy slipped from a log and started sinking in quick sand. Mrs. Graham said her son sank up to his armpits in the sand before he was pulled free by his nephew.

Full Retirement Not Needed for Benefits

An individual of retirement age need not be "completely retired" in order to receive some social security payments, according to Edward B. Jacobson, district manager of the Medford social security office.

A partially retired man or woman may be entitled to benefits for some months of the year.

In all cases, a retired person can receive a benefit check in every month provided his earnings do not exceed $1,200 for the year. If the beneficiary earn more than $1,200 but less than $2,080

Dr. Hollenbeck To Tour Europe

Ashland — Dr. Irene Hollenbeck, associate professor of science at Southern Oregon college, will leave Ashland this week for a tour of western Europe.

She is one of 30 persons working under the auspices of the National Science Teachers association to promote international cooperation in the field of science teaching.

The tour, which leaves New York July 17, will include stops in Scotland, England, Holland, West Germany, Switzerland, Austria, and France. In these places, the team will stop to study places of special and historical interest such as the Pasteur Institute and the Rhone glacier.

According to Dr. Hollenbeck, highlight of the trip will be visiting the Floriade, an international botanical exhibition in Amsterdam, which includes section on photosynthesis, plant physiology, and biochemistry.

Dr. Hollenbeck plans to take a week of independent touring upon the completion of the study tour Aug. 27.

Portland Council Asked for Funds

Portland — (UPI) — Two money measures requested by the department of public works will be considered next week by the Portland city council.

One of the measures would call for $700,000 a year for 10 years for five grade crossings at dangerous intersections and the other would allow appropriate $100,000 a year for five years for traffic signals.

ICC's Ruling on Lumber Restrained

Portland — (UPI) — A temporary restraining order was granted Friday by Federal Judge John F. Kilkenny to prevent the interstate commerce commission from implementing its June 6 ruling that would have halted delayed routings of lumber products to the east.

Kilkenny's action was on a suit filed by more than 100 plaintiffs who were seeking to have the ICC ruling set aside.

The ICC ruling was scheduled to go into effect July 21. Under the ICC's ruling the railroads would have been prevented from offering special, delayed routing service to lumber operators without an additional charge for the service.

Two Admit Guilt In Bank Robbery

Albany — (UPI) — Charles L. Lorraine, 37, and Leo Eldon Harris, 19, pleaded guilty in Linn county Circuit Court here Friday night to the $17,000 hold-up of the Halsey branch of the Bank of Lebanon Thursday.

Sentencing for the two Walla Walla, Wash., men was set off until Monday by Circuit Court Judge Virgil Olliver. Deputy District Attorney James Lewelling requested leniency for the two.

WHEAT FIELD BURNS

Pilot Rock — (UPI) — Approximately 100 acres of wheat and 150 acres of stubble burned Friday afternoon in a field between the Ed Hoest ranch here and Burch creek before being controlled.
