Job's Daughters Attend Grand Session in Salem

More than 200 southern Oregon members of the International Order of Job's Daughters attended the 36th annual grand session held in Salem this week end. Approximately 1,500 Job's Daughters and 300 adults attended.

New grand bethel honored queen is Miss Jean Isaacson, Gladstone. Grand bethel officers from southern Oregon bethels include Miss Mary O'Neill, Grants Pass, treasurer. Grand representatives selected from southern Oregon include Miss Vicki Ann Ingram, Bethel 14, Medford, New Mexico; Miss Lauri Buonocore, Bethel 55, Medford, Washington; Miss Janet Graham, Ashland, Ohio; Miss Susan Rae Eastin, Shady Cove, Arizona; Miss June Hopkins, Central Point, Wisconsin; and Miss Dianne Blue, Kerby, Montana.

Newly elected grand guardian is Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Portland; L. R. Manning, Medford, associate grand guardian; Mrs. W. K. Sult, Medford, vice grand guardian; Cecil Brown, Portland, vice associate grand guardian; Mrs. L. A. Maulding, Nyssa, grand guide; Mrs. Kenneth Gildner, Portland, grand marshal; William Harris, Portland, grand inner guard; Harry Smith, Oakland, grand outer guard; Mrs. J. W. McGill, Beaverton, grand secretary; and Mrs. Will Hargreave, Portland, grand treasurer.

Appointive Officers
Appointive grand officers from southern Oregon include Mrs. Harold Gordon, Medford, grand chaplain, and Mrs. Homer Snyder, Kerby, grand second messenger.

During the grand session 11 girls received scholarships. Miss Rachel Hamilton, Central Point, was among those receiving $250 scholarships.

Grand officers were installed Saturday evening with Bethels 14 and 55, Medford, giving the addendum for Mr. Manning.

The session opened Thursday with competitive choral singing, opening ceremonies with all honored queens, princesses, junior and senior past honored queens, grand bethel officers and representatives, and grand officers from throughout the state participating. Miss Sandra McCulloch, Coos Bay, state honored queen, presided.

Friday activities included a meeting of the grand bethel with Gov. Mark O. Hatfield welcoming the delegates, a tour of the state house, a picnic and swim party at Paradise Island park followed by a formal banquet that evening at the Marion hotel and installation of grand bethel officers and formal dance. Members of the De Molay were escorts.

Saturday's events included a daughter's breakfast and style show at Meier and Frank, bowling, and the annual competitive drills.

The session will end with worship services this morning at the Presbyterian church in Salem.

Shafer-Gibbens Wedding Held at First Christian

Miss Priscilla Marie Shafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Price Shafer, 412 Union street, became the bride of John Edwin Gibbens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Gibbens, 1990 Saginaw street, Salem, Saturday, July 2. Their wedding took place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in First Christian church with the Rev. Frederick Evans reading the double-ring service. He also served communion after the rites.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gown of white sand crepe, ballerina length, styled with a bouffant skirt. She wore a shoulder-length veil and carried a fan-shaped bouquet of tallismans roses and white shattered carnations.

Mrs. Stephen S. Parrish, Ashland, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a turquoise sheath dress with matching hat and carried a bouquet of blue delphiniums and white daisies.

H. Wayne Gibbens, brother of the bridegroom, Milwaukee, Ore., was best man and Mr. Parrish seated guests.

Coral gladioli and white Ester Reed daisies decorated the church. Mrs. Clifton Stout, Ingleswood, Calif., the bridegroom's sister, was organist.

The bride's parents were hosts for a dinner at their home following the wedding.

The bride, a graduate of Medford High school in 1959, is a student at the University of Oregon. The bridegroom, a graduate of South Salem High school in 1958, attended Willamette university and is now a student at the University of Oregon.

Visits Father

Applegate Valley - Miss Janice Poole, Crescent City, Calif., is a guest at the home of her father, Phil Poole of Upper Applegate. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Poole, Oceanside, Calif., also are guests at the Poole residents. The two men are brothers.

Carol West Is Bride Of James C. Collins Jr.

Of interest to Medford residents is the wedding of Miss Carol Dawn West, San Leandro, Calif., and James C. Collins Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Collins, 2224 East Main street, Medford. The rites were held June 25 in San Leandro at the All Saints Episcopal church with the Rev. John Praed, canon pastor of Grace Cathedral, San Francisco, officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ruby M. West, Montebello, Calif.

About 75 relatives and friends attended the two o'clock afternoon wedding. Music by Bach was played.

The bride wore a floor length gown fashioned with lace bodice and net skirt. The bodice was styled with scoop neckline and long sleeves. She carried an all-white bouquet. Her father escorted her to the altar.

Miss Althea Sayward, San Leandro, a former roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale green gown.

Kent Bonney, Daly City, Calif., served as best man for his brother-in-law and ushers were Richard Stuart, Diablo, Calif., a former Medford resident; Richard Lingelfelter, Alamo, Calif.; Thomas Lyson, Livermore, Calif.; Thomas Parks, San Leandro; and George Patraw, Livermore.

A reception for the newlyweds followed in the church reception hall. For the occasion the bride's mother wore a rose pink silk organza dress and a corsage of pink miniature yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of tan silk organza and a corsage of miniature yellow roses.

Relatives of the bridegroom who attended the wedding, in addition to those in the wedding party, included the Misses Margaret and Miriam Collins, aunts, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Collins, uncle and Mrs. Curtis Swavey, cousins, Aptos, Calif.

Also attending were the bride's brother, David West, Belmont, Calif., and other relatives.

The bride received her bachelor's degree from Whittier college and her master of education degree from Mills college. She is a teacher in the San Leandro Unified School district.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High school and California Institute of Technology. He is a mechanical engineer with Lawrence Radiation laboratory, San Leandro.

They traveled to Ensenada, Baja California, Mexico, on their honeymoon and are expected to visit with friends and relatives in the valley late in August.
