Miss Sandra Guss Is Bride Of Joseph Martin Teeter

Central Point—Miss Sandra Bernadine Guss became the bride of Joseph Martin Teeter in a ceremony held June 30 at First Presbyterian church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Guss, 845 Manzanita avenue, Central Point. Mr. Teeter is a son of Mrs. Francis O'Connor, 950 Park street, and the late Floyd Teeter.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 200 relatives and friends. Miss Sheila Schuerman, Medford, was soloist for the eight o'clock evening rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an imported white silk organza gown fashioned with Sabrina neckline accented with pearls and sequins. A large butterfly bow at the back of the waistline formed a bustle. The floor length skirt terminated in a chapel train. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon.

For something old the bride wore the wedding ring of her great grandmother, the late Mrs. Mabel Armstrong, Hepler, Kan. She also carried a new penny.

Miss Linda Christian, Salem, was maid of honor and other attendants were Miss Carol von der Hellen, Miss Barbara Walters, and Mrs. Riley Winchell, Medford. They wore blue and green silk floral print frocks with blue rhinestone tiaras. Miss Christian's flowers were blue carnations and the other attendants carried white carnation nosegay bouquets.

Candlelighters were Miss Carma Guss and Miss Tryna Christian. Their frocks were styled as the other attendants and their hats were of white net. They had white carnation wristlets.

Allan Kimney, Gold Hill, served as best man. Seating the guests were Michael Teeter, Medford, brother of the bridegroom, Bruce Burnett, Gold Hill, and George Gilman, Medford.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Girls Community club Mrs. Guss wore a blue silk organza frock with blue accessories. Mrs. O'Connor chose a blue silk shirtwaist dress with white accessories. Their corsages were pink roses.

At the reception Miss Carol Setty cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Kay Askwith presided at the punch bowl. Miss Vernola Hutchinson was in charge of the guest book and was at the gift table.

The couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a pastel green linen suit with white accessories. They are making their home at 307 North Ivy street, Medford, until September when they will move to Corvallis where Mr. Teeter will enroll as a junior at Oregon State college in the field of business chemistry.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and is a secretary at KBES-TV. Mr. Teeter is a graduate of Medford schools and during the summer is with Elk Lumber company.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Watkins, Hepler, Kan., grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. William Pilkington, Corvallis, and Mrs. J. B. Christian, Salem.

The evening prior to the wedding, June 29, a picnic was held in Hawthorne park for out of town guests and members of the bridal party following the rehearsal. Approximately 32 persons attended.

Hahnners Back From Alaska

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hahner have returned from a trip to Alaska. They motored to Vancouver, B.C., where they embarked on the Canadian National steamship, SS Prince George, making stops at Prince Rupert, Ketchikan and Juneau, where they toured the Mendenhall glacier.

While in port at Skagway the couple made a side trip to Carcross, Yukon territory, via the White pass and the Yukon trail, which follows the old "Trail of '98" through spectacular scenery.

On the return trip the ship visited Wrangell, Douglas Channel, Gardner Canal and Ocean Falls. After leaving the ship in Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Hahner ferried to Victoria, where they visited the Butchart Gardens, and continued to Port Angeles. They traveled by car along the Washington coast to Montecano, where they visited relatives, and ferried from Megler, Wash., to Astoria, taking the coast highway south.
