

Trinity Episcopal Scene Of Fisch-Nelson Service

Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland, was the scene of the wedding July 8 of Miss Peggy Elaine Fisch to William Edward Nelson. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fisch, 614 South Holly street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Nelson, 775 Walker avenue, Ashland.

The Rev. John Power, vicar of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Prospect, officiated. White gladioli and Ester Reed daisies provided a setting for the double-ring ceremony. Only members of the family attended.

Miss Edna Daugherty, organist, played traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of white Chantilly lace and a veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Mrs. John Axtell, Medford, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a Nile green afternoon dress and a white carnation corsage.

Edward Gibson, Ashland, was best man. Scott W. Peterson, Ashland, and Duane L. Nelson, Ashland, the bridegroom's brother, served as ushers.

A reception followed at the home of the bride, 614 South Holly street. Serving cake and punch were Mrs. W. E. Caille, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Bertha Nelson, Eugene; and Mrs. J. H. Grieve, Prospect, the bride's aunt. Miss Catherine Axtell, the bride's niece, was at the guest book.

The newlyweds traveled to the coast for their honeymoon and are at home at 530 South Grape street. For traveling the bride wore a black sheath dress with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and the bridegroom was graduated from Ashland High school. Both are students at Southern Oregon college. The bridegroom is employed by Holiday House, Inc.

Mrs. E. W. Nelson, Ashland, was hostess for a luncheon for the wedding party following the rehearsal. Mrs. Glenn Nelson, Ashland, and Mrs. Ronald Axtell, Trail, were hostesses at a bridal shower for the bride at the Nelson home July 7.

Wedding Held July 5 In Gold Hill

Gold Hill-Gold Hill Community Methodist church was the setting Tuesday, July 5, when Miss Sharon Gayle Hastetter, Santa Maria, Calif., became the bride of William Jemison Scott, former Gold Hill man who was on leave from his duties on the USS Shields with the U. S. Navy. The Rev. O. L. Kendal, pastor of the church, officiated at the four o'clock afternoon ceremony attended by 22 relatives and close friends of the couple.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlon Hastetter, Santa Maria, Calif. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Davis, Gold Hill.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon lace over white taffeta, designed with three quarter sleeves, slight scoop neckline and waltz length skirt. Her fingertip length veil was of white nylon lace and she carried a white prayer book that belonged to the bridegroom's brother, Master Larry Davis. She wore a pink and white carnation corsage and a small gold cross necklace, a gift from her mother.

Mrs. Richard A. Walker, Santa Cruz, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore an afternoon frock of red polished summer cotton. It was designed with three quarter length sleeves and waltz length skirt. Her accessories were white and her corsage was pink carnations.

Grove-Clark Rites In First Baptist Church

James Netzel, Gold Hill, former school friend of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Iva Lentz, Gold Hill, attended by 26 relatives and friends. Mrs. Richard A. Walker cut the tiered wedding cake, which was made by Mrs. Keith Krieger, cousin of the bridegroom's mother from Palo Alto, Calif. Mrs. Helen Shoemaker and Mrs. D. L. Davis assisted Mrs. Walker.

Later a wedding supper was held at Mary's Casa in Medford, attended by the bridal party.

For the occasion the bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece ensemble of floral printed polished cotton. The bridegroom's grandmother selected a dress of turquoise nylon.

The newlyweds left Thursday, July 7, for Santa Maria, Calif., for a short visit with her parents. She will reside there temporarily and the bridegroom will return to his ship at San Diego, Calif.

The bride attended schools in Santa Maria. Mr. Scott is a former student at Crater High school, Central Point.

Miss Beverly Ann Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, 605 Berrydale avenue became the bride of Russell Lee Grove, in a ceremony held July 2 at First Baptist church. The Rev. Ervin Butler, Omaha, Neb., uncle of the bride officiated at the double ring rites.

Mr. Grove is a son of Mrs. C. W. Edmonds, 3434 North Pacific highway, and Glenn Grove, Yakima, Wash.

Pink and white gladioli, pink roses, white lilies and white hydrangeas decorated the church for the eight o'clock evening rites attended by 250 relatives and friends.

Miss Julia Gandt was soloist and Miss Diane Franklin played the organ wedding music.

The bride wore a ballerina length Chantilly lace and tulle frock over taffeta. The full skirt was accented with insets of nylon and applique lace and the fitted bodice had three-quarter length sleeves and Sabrina neckline. Her silk illusion veil was held by a lace and seed pearl crown and she carried a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom, with a white orchid and stephanotis. Mr. Clark gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Nancy Clark was honor attendant for her sister and Miss Ann Baker was bridesmaid. They wore pink sheath dresses of Italian velvet with matching silk organza overskirts. Their matching velvet headdresses were accented with seed pearls, and they carried pink rosebuds and white carnations. Little Cynthia Siemsen, Los Angeles, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Robert Jacobson, Klamath Falls, served as best man. Groomsman was David Neet. Seating the guests were Larry Nolte and Ray Bitterling, Eagle Point. Steven Casler, Jacksonville, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Clark wore a pale blue lace sheath dress with matching jacket. Her accessories were blue. Mrs. Grove chose a beige brocade sheath dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were white gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Leonard Luce, Everett, Wash., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Kevin Crawford, Everett, cousin of the bride, cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Miss Helen Goff and Miss Connie Morris presided at the punch bowls and Miss Marva Sult was in charge of the guest book. Miss Peggy Gilbert and Miss Joyce Roelfs were at the gift table.

The couple traveled to Coos Bay on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a beige suit with beige and white accessories. They are making their home at 307 North Ivy street.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and was employed by Rush Electric company. Mr. Grove is a graduate of Crater High school and is employed by Cascade Lumber company.
