Talent Couple Make Home In Central Point After Rites

Talent—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wayne Welburn are making their home at 321 1/2 North Third street, Central Point, following their return from a wedding trip to Brookings.

The couple was married July 1 at the Advent Christian church, Medford. The bride is the former Judy June Helm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Helm, Route 1, Box 420, Talent. Mr. Welburn's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Welburn, Route 1, Box 144, Talent.

The Rev. Fred Sapp officiated at the eight o'clock evening ceremony attended by 90 relatives and friends. Delphiniums and roses decorated the church for the double ring wedding. Mrs. Enid Wolff, cousin of the bride, was soloist. Mrs. Gertrude Shide played the organ wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace frock in ballerina length and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds encircling a white orchid.

Miss Earlene Welburn, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride. She wore a pale blue dress and carried pink rosebuds. Little Cindy Taylor, Ashland, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Carl Wolff, Medford, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Cindy also wore a blue frock.

Rolland Welburn served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Allen Helm, brother of the bride, and Larry Poling, Medford, nephew of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church.

For traveling the bride wore a green two-piece dress with straw accessories.

The bride and bridegroom attended Talent schools. Mr. Welburn is employed by Elk Lumber company.

Sewing Session

Eleven members of the Colonel Sargent auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. James VanderSteen, 900 Mira Mar avenue, Monday, July 11, for an all day sewing session. The members took sack lunches. Mrs. VanderSteen and Mrs. Bertha Nelson served salad, hot rolls and coffee. Two afghans were made by the members for the Veterans domiciliary, White City.

Mrs. Bigalow Elected State Auxiliary Head

Mrs. Earl Bigalow, longtime member and officer of the Medford unit of the American Legion auxiliary, was recently installed as president of the auxiliary's department of Oregon. Installation ceremonies took place at the closing of the state convention in Seaside July 8.

The Medford woman became a member of the local auxiliary in 1949 and has held elective offices of secretary, treasurer, executive board member, vice-president and president. She also has served in all major chairmanships. Mrs. Bigalow was eligible for membership in the group through the World War II service of her husband.

In addition to becoming the first president of district 13, Mrs. Bigalow has served as department chairman of Americanism and education and scholarships. She was advanced this year from the office of department first vice-president.

Other new state officers are Mrs. Richard Gearhart, Portland, vice-president; Mrs. R. Grover Francis, Portland, secretary; Mrs. McKinley Kane, Dundee, treasurer; and Mrs. Jack George, Eugene, national committee woman. They head a membership of 12,000 women in Oregon.

Tuesday Picnic

Rogue Valley Navy Mothers club will hold their annual picnic Tuesday, July 19, at 12 noon in Lithia park, Ashland. Those planning to attend are to take potluck picnic items and table service.

Manthe-Betschart Rites Held in Catholic Church

Miss Elizabeth Marie Betschart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz J. Betschart, 4077 South Pacific highway, became the bride of Martin Gilbert Manthe, Bakersfield, Calif., in a nuptial mass July 2 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Leo V. Manthe, Portland.

The Very Rev. Carl Mai read the mass at 9:30 o'clock in the morning before approximately 50 guests. The bride's father escorted her to the altar.

She wore a gown of ivory pleated tulle. The skirt was styled with inverted v-panels trimmed with lace over net and taffeta. The bodice had a portrait neckline and short sleeves. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a sunburst bouquet of stock, carnations and an orchid.

The bridesmaid, Miss Edith Betschart, sister of the bride, wore a full-skirted organdy gown of Dutch blue. The sleeveless bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and she carried a colonial nosegay of shattered white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law, Jay C. Gianotti, Seattle, was best man. Jack Johnston, Bellevue, Wash., brother of the bridegroom, and Tom Frainey, Portland, were ushers.

James and Robert Betschart, brothers of the bride, served as acolytes at the double-ring ceremony. Baskets of white stock, blue majestic daisies and bouquets of matching colors provided a setting. Miss Toni Adams was at the organ.

The bride's parents were hosts for the reception which followed in the Rogue room of the Medford hotel. Cake was served by Mrs. J. C. Gianotti, Seattle, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Homer Haynes, Eagle Point. Mrs. Jack Johnston, Bellevue, Wash., poured punch and Mrs. Nellie Crause, Medford, poured coffee. Miss Alice Turner, Central Point, was at the guest book.

Baskets of blue majestic daisies, stock and other flowers decorated the room.

A buffet luncheon for relatives of the newlyweds was given by the bride's parents at their home following the reception. The young couple traveled to the Oregon Caves and the coast for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a blue and white eyelet sheath dress for traveling. They will be at home at 118 N. E. Sumner street, Portland, until August 15, when they will move to Bakersfield.

The bride, a graduate of St. Mary's High school in 1958, attended Southern Oregon college and the University of Portland, graduating from the university in 1959. She has been a teacher in Banks High school.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Central Catholic High school, Portland, and the University of Portland. He is a fifth grade teacher in Bakersfield city schools.

Out of town guests at the wedding included the bridegroom's mother from Portland; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Korten, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, their daughter, Linda, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manthe, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, all of Longview; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Manthe, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Lebanon; Mrs. Mary Wells, an aunt, and Mrs. Richard Green, a cousin, Hermiston.

Also Mrs. Mary Betschart, the bride's maternal grandmother, Tillamook; Mr. and Mrs. George Betschart, her grandparents, Weed, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Uniack, Sherman Oaks, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbertson and son, Paul, Seattle.

Dinner Held On Anniversary

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Obenshain, 217 South Sixth street, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary July 15 at a small family dinner.

The couple was married 25 years ago in Santa Ana, Calif., and lived in Belvedere Gardens, West Los Angeles and San Diego before moving to Central Point 14 years ago.

They have two daughters, Mrs. Wayne Wyatt, San Antonio, Tex., and Paula Jean, who is a student at Crater High school.

Birthday Party

Tiller-Drew-Seventeen children met at the Richard B. Slater home July 12 to help Riecky Slater celebrate his tenth birthday. Supervised games were played on the lawn. After the games Riecky opened his gifts and his mother served refreshments.
