

Joint Meeting

Central Point—A joint meeting of Faith circle and the Women's Christian Service circle of Central Point Presbyterian church will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday, July 21, at the church. Mrs. Jack Sides of the First Presbyterian church, Medford, will lead a study of Psalms.

Annual Picnic

The annual picnic of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Tuesday, July 19, at 1 p.m. at Maple park on South Highway 99, across from Cubby's Drive-in.

Members are to take food, and table service for themselves and for their guests.

Activities Told For Senior Activity Center

Members of the Senior Activity center have been invited to attend the Medford Chamber of Commerce Roundtable luncheon Monday noon, July 18. The speaker will be Mrs. Julia Johnson, executive secretary of the Oregon State Council on Aging. The meeting will be in the Jackson hotel Pioneer room.

Members also will be welcome to hear Mrs. Johnson speak at a meeting of the Inter-Agency council Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Red Cross building.

Activities at the center next week will be changed slightly, officers announced. The Arm Chair Travel club will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. to see a second series of colored wild flower slides by L. E. McMurray.

Members of the orchestra also will be able to see the slides. The musicians are scheduled to play for the Roundtable luncheon at 12 o'clock and their 11 o'clock rehearsal has been cancelled. The orchestra will meet at 11:30 a.m. at the hotel.

Take Pictures
Free hand sketches made by Eric Robathon and Robert Bridge during the art show yesterday at Medford Library park will be discussed at this week's art class. Members are to take pictures they exhibited at the Greenwich Village exhibit.

The woodcarving class meeting set for Wednesday at 12 o'clock has been cancelled so members may attend the inter-club picnic of the Medford, Camp White and Grants Pass Fifty Plus clubs at TouVelle park.

Plans for a possible outdoor concert by the orchestra, with community singing, will be discussed at the regular orchestra practice session Thursday at 10 a.m.

Summer programs for the Fifty Plus club, with meeting time and place, are available and will be given at all public meetings of the Council on Aging, at the club, the center and public library.

Event Honors Miss Schrader, Elwin Simmons

Central Point—Miss Beverly Schrader, Medford, and her fiancé, Elwin Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Simmons, 392 Garfield street, Medford, were honored at a shower Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes, 174 Glenn Way, Central Point.

Pink and green streamers decorated the lawn at the Hughes' home where the event was held. A centerpiece of white bells, ivy and forget-me-nots decorated the serving table.

Miss Schrader was presented a corsage of talisman roses, sweet peas and stephanotis.

Several music selections were played by the guests attending, among them was Miss Sharon Simmons who who played the accordion.

Mrs. Maude Simmons, grandmother of Mr. Simmons, was also honored. She celebrated her 80th birthday July 15.

Assisting Mrs. Hughes with the serving of refreshments were Mrs. Claire Johnson, Mrs. Richard Simmons, Miss Elaine Johnson, and Miss Donna Johnson.

Nearly 50 relatives and friends attended.

Since sheets wear longer if rotated, get in the habit of placing freshly-laundered sheets at the bottom of the stack when you store them. Steaks for broiling should be well marbled with fat. These streaks of fat mingled with the lean give beef a juicy, rich taste.

Toastmistress Club Has Officer Installation

New officers of the Medford Toastmistress club were installed at a recent picnic meeting at the home of Mrs. James VanderSteen, 900 Mira Mar avenue. Eighteen members attended.

Mrs. George Watson was installed as vice-president; Mrs. Amy True, secretary; Mrs. Don Marin, treasurer; Mrs. Bernice Kunzman and Mrs. VanderSteen, club representatives. Mrs. C. H. Redmond acted as installing officer and Mrs. John Schroeder presided at the meeting in place of the president, Mrs. Richard Williams.

Mrs. William Fasel were guests at the meeting. Four husbands of members also attended.

Mrs. C. E. Wilson gave the invocation; Mrs. Watson was lexicologist; and Mrs. VanderSteen was in charge of the educational item. Mrs. John Schroeder, toastmistress, gave members subjects for discussion. No flag or timer was used at the informal meeting.

Mrs. Kunzman, who was introduced by the toastmistress, Mrs. Ethel McIntyre, spoke on "Weakness is Sometimes Strength."

Mrs. Watson was in charge of the business session. Mrs. Mrs. Bertha Nelson and

Individual Pizza Pies

Cut English muffins into 3 thin slices each and toast on one side in the broiler to produce individual pizza pies. Spread the other side with canned spaghetti sauce with mushrooms and add cubes of mozzarella cheese, pieces of peppery salami and sprinkle with oregano. Broil until cheese is melted and the pizzas are lightly browned and bubbly.

Elmer Ness announced that a public relations dinner will be held October 12. A rummage sale also is planned by the club for August 12 at the Fehl building. Mrs. Roy Rolfs is chairman.

The next meeting of the group will be August 24 at the home of Mrs. C. H. Redmond. A picnic supper will be served.
