Peruvian Claims Relations Strained

Salem—(UPI)—A congressman from Peru said here Tuesday that relations between America and Peru are under a strain because of Fidel Castro's hate-America campaign in Cuba and is accented by deep Communist infiltration in all of Peru.

Sixto L. Gutierrez, of Lima, visiting with Gov. Mark Hatfield, said the Communists, however, have little say in the current Peruvian government.

Gutierrez said more trade between Oregon and Peru would be a good idea.

MANCHESTER, ENGLAND (UPI)—City Information Officer Terence Usher Tuesday refuted popular stories that it always rains here. In a statement to newsmen he said Manchester has been "clearly shown to be one of the drier cities in Britain." Outside, it was pouring.
