Sonny Ray Stops Ryan

Chicago (UPI) — The know-how of an experienced boxer carried light heavyweight Sonny Ray to a first round technical knockout win over Billy Ryan, Ray said today.

Ray scored with two solid right hands in the first 80 seconds of their televised bout Wednesday night, and it was all over. But his first punch was the deciding blow.

"I was watching for him to use his left hook," Ray said. "So when he got set to throw it, I put my right over it and hit him on the chin."

It was a long straight right and it hit Ryan as he was backing away, but right on the jaw. He sagged to the floor and it took the count of five before he was on his feet. Though, referee Stanley Berg kept him out of action for another three seconds, he wasn't ready then.

Ray moved in quickly with a series of jabs with both hands and then drove Ryan against the ropes with another right. Before he could hit the canvas, Ray was swarming over him and Berg halted the bout.
