Big Families in Style at Conventions; Nixon, Rocky To Follow Kennedy Pattern

Chicago - (UPI) - Big families are in style at political conventions, and from a presidential candidate's point of view, the bigger the better.

Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy set the pace. He had his mother, and so many sisters, brothers, in-laws, nieces and nephews at the Los Angeles convention that reporters lost count.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov.

Nelson A. Rockefeller cannot match Kennedy in this department, but they are going to try.

Nixon's Wife Along
Nixon will have his photogenic red-haired wife Pat along when he pulls into town for the GOP convention Monday morning.

They are expected to be met by two excited daughters, Tricia, 14, and Julie, 12, who will be accompanied by Mrs. Hannah Milhous Nixon of Whittier, Calif., the vice president's mother.

This will be the Nixon girls' first political convention. They can't wait. They have spent the past few weeks at a summer camp in California. Nixon aides said they are expected to arrive in Chicago with their grandmother Sunday evening or early Monday.

The governor's part will include his tall artistic wife Mary, who is called "Tod" by friends, and his sons Michael, Rodman and Steven and his daughters, Ann and Mary.

The prominent Rockefeller family also will be represented by the governor's brothers, John D. III, Winthrop, Laurence and David.

Also in the Nixon entourage will be the vice president's two brothers and their wives. They are Don Nixon of Whittier and Lt. Ed Nixon, a Navy flier who is stationed at Pensacola, Fla.

Several members of Mrs. Nixon's side of the family also will be sharing the limelight. Their names will be announced later.

In vying for the family spotlight Rockefeller will give Nixon some keen competition.

The body was found a few hours after FBI agents arrested Victor Harry Feuger, 25, St. Johns, Mich., at Birmingham, Ala. FBI agents said Feuger was arrested while trying to sell a car belonging to Bartels.

A medical satchel containing doctor's instruments and medicine was found in the car, the FBI said.
