

Palmer, Snead Pace Field Into Second Round of PGA

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
Akron, Ohio - (UPI) - Golfing's new king - Arnold Palmer - and one of its old ones - Sam Snead - led the field into the second round of the PGA championship today.

Palmer, driving well but putting only "so-so," showed the way as the 4-1 favorite when he fired a three-under-par 67 over the long narrow fairways of the 7,185-yard Firestone Country club course. That was one stroke better than Snead, and two blows better than Paul Horney and Freddie Haas. Right behind them came Don January, Ken Venturi, Doug Sanders and Don Fairfield with even par 70's.

Palmer, with official money-winnings of $66,610 already in his pocket, is trying to add the PGA crown to the Masters and U.S. Open championships for a "big three" slam.

The iron-nerved, muscular Pennsylvanian came from behind to win the Masters and the Open.

Now he's in front and he isn't used to that.

"But I'm hoping to stay there," said Palmer.

Complains About Putter
He complained that his putter - which has been his bread and butter club - let him down "a bit" Thursday in carding that 67. He shot the front nine in 34, one under the card, and the treacherous back nine in 33, two under.

"I sank some good ones, but missed some easy ones," he said.

He also didn't like the fact that five of his drives caught the rough. But when they strayed he recovered, usually with long irons in a majestic manner. Typical was his recovery on the 465-yard par four 18th.

Palmer hooked into the wily rough, with some trees between the ball and the green. But he lashed an amazing three iron shot out of that mattress of grass and even put bite on it to send it to within 20 feet of the pin. It took him two putts to get down, but that three iron shot was the payoff in taking the lead.

Palmer had only five one-putt greens, below his average. But those other clubs in his bag saved him.

Plays It Carefully
He played it carefully. On the 625-yard par five 16th, as tough a hole as these players have had to face in a major golf championship in years, he used a three wood off the tee, "just to make sure that the ball would wind up in the fairway."

Then he used that three wood again for his second shot, leaving him a wedge to the green, where his 18-foot birdie attempt hung on the lip.

Palmer was happy with his game; Snead wasn't.

He stomped off the 18th green immediately to the practice tee, complaining, "I played awful."

Snead, trying for his fourth PGA title, had nines of 35-33. He birdied that long 16th hole when he wedged his third shot 12 feet from the pin and sank the putt. But a lot of other golfers came to brief on the hole.

Wall Takes An Eight
Art Wall, golf's leading money-winner last year, took an eight there when his second shot landed behind a tree. James Yates of Atlanta, Ga., did even worse. He put his fourth shot into the middle of the lake in front of the green for an eventual nine.

In the field of 184 shooting for this one, 10 players were grouped four strokes behind Palmer at 71. They were George Bayer, Jim Ferree, Al Besselink, Ernie Vossler, Bill Collins, Don Whit, Jim Ferrer, Bob Harris, Ed Griffiths and John O'Donnell.

Defending champion Bob Rosburg, who started out with a birdie and eagle, wound up with a 74 - and that's where Ben Hogan wound up, too. Dow Finsterwald, the 1958 PGA king, had a 73 along with Mike Souchak.

Two former winners, Doug Ford and Lionel Hebert, were at 75. Two other ex-champs, Vic Ghezzi and Jim Tunesa, were at 76 along with former U.S. Open champion Jack Fleck.

At 72 were Tommy Bolt and Walter Burkemo. Cary Middlecoff and Jackie Burke were grouped in the 73 bracket with Finsterwald, Souchak and Shelly Mayfield.

PACKERS HIRE GHILOTTI
Green Bay, Wis. - (UPI) - Bob Ghilotti, former Stanford star who has been end coach at the University of Colorado, has been hired by the Green Bay Packers of the National Football league in the same capacity. Ghilotti checked in when the Packers opened camp Thursday.

SPORTS

Veteran Throwers Take Over in PCL

By PETE COLEMAN
United Press International
The veteran pitchers took over the Pacific Coast league Thursday night.

Elmer Singleton fashioned a four-hitter as Sacramento downed Salt Lake City, 3-1. Ery Palica of Seattle blanked Vancouver, 5-0. Eddie Fisher effectively scattered 10 hits in Tacoma's 6-3 win over San Diego, and Bill Kennedy turned in a game-saving relief appearance to help Portland down Spokane, 5-4.

Singleton, working his 11th season in the PCL, turned in a real sparkler. He had a no-hitter for four and one-third innings and had trouble only in the fifth when Salt Lake got its lone run on two safeties.

The win was the ninth in 12 decisions for 40-year-old Elmer, who struck out six and walked but one. The Solons clinched it in the first inning when Buddy Shields tripled in one run and later scored on a single.

Palica at Best
Palica, the circuit's ERA leader, was his clutch-pitching best against Vancouver. He gave up seven hits, but kept the Mounties away from home plate as he posted his fourth shutout and eighth victory.

Gordy Coleman hit a three-run homer for Seattle and Bill Hain drove in the other two Rainier marks with a single.

Fisher had trouble with San Diego all the way but he managed to wiggle out of the jams to finally score his 10th victory after failing to do so five straight times. Jose Pagan provided the Tacoma power getting a triple, a double and a single in five trips.

Stan Johnson paced the Padres at the platter with a perfect four-for-four night.

Kennedy, 39-year-old lefty, sat on the league-leading Indians over the last four frames to save the victory for Portland starter Bill Griffin. The reliever got in a jam of his own in the ninth when Spokane got one run but a double play got him out of it.

The Beavers clinched it with a four-run outburst in the fourth. Billy Wilson had hit a solo homer for the Beavers earlier.

The teams change opponents tonight. Spokane stays home to host Vancouver, Seattle goes to Portland, Sacramento moves into Tacoma, and Salt Lake visits San Diego.

LINE SCORES:
Portland - 010 400 000-3 8 3
Spokane - 001 001 011-4 10 0
Griffin, Kennedy (6) and Westfield; Rakow, O'Donnell (6) Wheeler (6), Young (9) and Pagliaroni.

Vancouver - 000 000 000-0 7 1
Seattle - 000 000 02x-5 9 0
Navarro, Coleman (8) and White; Palica and Zimmerman.

Salt Lake - 000 010 000-1 4 1
Sacramento - 200 010 00x-3 4 1
Parsons, Pepper (6) and Hall; Singleton and Barragan.

San Diego - 000 200 001-3 10 3
Tacoma - 101 001 03x-6 10 1
Striker and Thomas; Fisher and Reveira.

Brown had four hits for the night, one a double.

Butte Falls-Timber Products game, originally set for next Monday night, has been moved to Thursday, July 28.

LINE SCORES:
Natl Guard - 014 026 1-15 13 3
S and W - 401 012 3-13 7 9
Callender and Burns; Barnum and Christian.

Guard Nine Trips S-W In Softball

National Guard recorded two Jackson County Softball association victories last night, one of them by forfeit.

The Guardsmen, with the aid of their own 13 hits and nine adversary miscues, outscored S and W Floor Covering 15 to 13. Civil Service defaulted to National Guard.

S and W's setback assured Luthia Lumber of first place alone in the standings when the regular league schedule concludes next week end. A play-off among the loop's top four teams will follow. Luthia is 11-1 and has a three-game lead with two tussles to play.

The Floor Coverers, now 8-4, share second spot with Butte Falls.

The two wins pulled the Guard, now 4-8, into a position for a possible fourth place tie. NG is currently seventh in the eight-team field.

The Soldiers had a six-run sixth inning on two bases on balls, three errors, Lyle Brown's and Vern Parent's and Don Sanford's two-basers. They went into the bottom of the seventh canto leading 15 to 8 and managed to quell an S and W surge after five runs came in. The Floor Cover club used two walks, an error, a sacrifice flyout by Dick Meister, a single by Chuck Hoyt and a double by Jerry Christian.

Brown had four hits for the night, one a double.

Butte Falls-Timber Products game, originally set for next Monday night, has been moved to Thursday, July 28.

LINE SCORES:
Natl Guard - 014 026 1-15 13 3
S and W - 401 012 3-13 7 9
Callender and Burns; Barnum and Christian.

Snead, trying for his fourth PGA title, had nines of 35-33. He birdied that long 16th hole when he wedged his third shot 12 feet from the pin and sank the putt. But a lot of other golfers came to brief on the hole.

Wall Takes An Eight
Art Wall, golf's leading money-winner last year, took an eight there when his second shot landed behind a tree. James Yates of Atlanta, Ga., did even worse. He put his fourth shot into the middle of the lake in front of the green for an eventual nine.

In the field of 184 shooting for this one, 10 players were grouped four strokes behind Palmer at 71. They were George Bayer, Jim Ferree, Al Besselink, Ernie Vossler, Bill Collins, Don Whit, Jim Ferrer, Bob Harris, Ed Griffiths and John O'Donnell.

Defending champion Bob Rosburg, who started out with a birdie and eagle, wound up with a 74 - and that's where Ben Hogan wound up, too. Dow Finsterwald, the 1958 PGA king, had a 73 along with Mike Souchak.

Two former winners, Doug Ford and Lionel Hebert, were at 75. Two other ex-champs, Vic Ghezzi and Jim Tunesa, were at 76 along with former U.S. Open champion Jack Fleck.

At 72 were Tommy Bolt and Walter Burkemo. Cary Middlecoff and Jackie Burke were grouped in the 73 bracket with Finsterwald, Souchak and Shelly Mayfield.

PACKERS HIRE GHILOTTI
Green Bay, Wis. - (UPI) - Bob Ghilotti, former Stanford star who has been end coach at the University of Colorado, has been hired by the Green Bay Packers of the National Football league in the same capacity. Ghilotti checked in when the Packers opened camp Thursday.

Palmer, driving well but putting only "so-so," showed the way as the 4-1 favorite when he fired a three-under-par 67 over the long narrow fairways of the 7,185-yard Firestone Country club course. That was one stroke better than Snead, and two blows better than Paul Horney and Freddie Haas. Right behind them came Don January, Ken Venturi, Doug Sanders and Don Fairfield with even par 70's.

Palmer, with official money-winnings of $66,610 already in his pocket, is trying to add the PGA crown to the Masters and U.S. Open championships for a "big three" slam.

The iron-nerved, muscular Pennsylvanian came from behind to win the Masters and the Open.

Now he's in front and he isn't used to that.

"But I'm hoping to stay there," said Palmer.

Complains About Putter
He complained that his putter - which has been his bread and butter club - let him down "a bit" Thursday in carding that 67. He shot the front nine in 34, one under the card, and the treacherous back nine in 33, two under.

"I sank some good ones, but missed some easy ones," he said.

He also didn't like the fact that five of his drives caught the rough. But when they strayed he recovered, usually with long irons in a majestic manner. Typical was his recovery on the 465-yard par four 18th.

Palmer hooked into the wily rough, with some trees between the ball and the green. But he lashed an amazing three iron shot out of that mattress of grass and even put bite on it to send it to within 20 feet of the pin. It took him two putts to get down, but that three iron shot was the payoff in taking the lead.

Tiger, Wildcat Nines Top Foes

Medford Tigers and Wildcats kept their first place pace in the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball Pee Wee league southern division yesterday with wins, respectively, over Central Point and Ashland teams.

Bruce Bertrand, Jim Cox and Mike Hickey led the Tigers to a 7 to 6 nod over the Central Point Indians. The Wildcats crushed the Ashland Cubs 13 to 1.

Bertrand, who had two singles and four runs batted in, squeezed Jim Brennann home with the winning run in the extra sixth inning for the Tigers. The bases were loaded after two walks, a sacrifice by Cox, and another base on balls.

Cox had two triples and a single and turned in some fine fielding and throwing at third base. Mike Hickey chucked four innings of no-hit ball for the Tigers after the Ashlanders had taken a 6 to 2 lead in the first two innings.

Mike Farthing hurled four innings of two-hit, three strikeout ball for the 'Cats after Ken Eckel had whiffed the side in the first frame. Eckel homered and doubled for the Medford club.

LINE SCORES:
Med. Wildcats - 261 22-13 7 1
Ash. Cubs - 010 00-1 2 9
Eckel, Farthing (2) and Koblik; Georgiana and Dorris.

CP Indians - 240 000-4 6 1
Med. Tigers - 201 201-7 6 3
Watson and Miller; Furrer, Hickey (3) and Clave.

OLDEN TIMES FAVORITE
Ingleswood, Calif. - (UPI) - Rex C. Ellsworth's Olden Times, a French-bred colt, was expected to head a field of outstanding 2-year-olds in the $100,000 Hollywood Juvenile Stakes Saturday.

Palmer, driving well but putting only "so-so," showed the way as the 4-1 favorite when he fired a three-under-par 67 over the long narrow fairways of the 7,185-yard Firestone Country club course. That was one stroke better than Snead, and two blows better than Paul Horney and Freddie Haas. Right behind them came Don January, Ken Venturi, Doug Sanders and Don Fairfield with even par 70's.

Palmer, with official money-winnings of $66,610 already in his pocket, is trying to add the PGA crown to the Masters and U.S. Open championships for a "big three" slam.

The iron-nerved, muscular Pennsylvanian came from behind to win the Masters and the Open.

Now he's in front and he isn't used to that.

"But I'm hoping to stay there," said Palmer.

Complains About Putter
He complained that his putter - which has been his bread and butter club - let him down "a bit" Thursday in carding that 67. He shot the front nine in 34, one under the card, and the treacherous back nine in 33, two under.

"I sank some good ones, but missed some easy ones," he said.

SO JUNIOR TROPHY WINNERS - Pictured here are the winners of first, second and third place trophies in the Southern Oregon Junior Golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club. The two-day medal play tourney ended on Tuesday. Players and their placings are: Standing, from left, Doug Olson, Medford, boy's runner-up; Graham Bruness, Tillamook, junior boy's second; John Carey, Cottage Grove, junior boy's champion; Chuck Allen, Medford, boy's division winner; Chuck Allen, Roseburg, junior boy's third; Dan Morrow, Eugene, boy's third; Ed Mencke, Medford, pee wee third; David Glenz, Coos Bay, pee wee champion, and Ken Clark, pee wee runner-up; front row, Mary Sanders, Grants Pass, girl's title; Judy Angstead, Klamath Falls, junior girl's second; Sue Lance, Glendale, Calif., junior girl's champion, and Peggy Saunders, Grants Pass, girl's No. 2 placer. - (Knackstedt photo).

Drag Races Sunday at White City

Amid the powerful roar of well-tuned engines and the acrid smell of smoking tires some 100 contestants are slated to participate for trophies and other hardware at this Sunday's drag races being held at the White City strip.

Contestants from throughout southern Oregon and northern California will be on hand matching their vehicles and driving skill against the electronic timing clocks.

Many of the sleeker competition cars will be making an all-out attempt to garner the $125 bond posted on the strip gasoline record of 145 miles per hour. This special bond has been building up each meet since the present strip standard was established last September by Warren Welsh, Reno, Nev.

Continued Rivalry
Of special interest will be the continued rivalry between the Sands-Gegner machine and the Southern Oregon Wheelers 'Zombie.' Two weeks ago a special match feature race was arranged between these two rivals with the Sands-Gegner coupe coming out on top. Although no special match race has been arranged for this meet, the Zombie crew will be making an all-out attempt to get back in the winners column.

For many entries this will be their last chance to get their machines tuned up before they leave next week to participate in the Great Western drags, being held July 30-31 in Reno, Nev.

It has been rumored that a sleek new dragster powered by a fuel-injected Oldsmobile engine will make its initial appearance on the Camp White strip Sunday.

SOTA officials stated that time trials will open at 9 a.m. with eliminations after lunch.

GOES 115,106 MPH
Couer d'Alene, Idaho - (UPI) - Veteran driver Norm Evans whipped Seattle To around the Diamond Cup hydroplane race course at 115,106 mph Thursday in a warmup run for Sunday's race. Evans, who won $100 for the day's fastest lap, was one of five drivers who took four hydroplanes around the slightly choppy course. Evans ran the Seattle To through only four laps, all of them at better than 109 mph, but twisted a quill shaft in the doing. It will be replaced. Seven boats are in the pits, with four more expected to bring the total to 11 for the third annual race Sunday.

LINE SCORES:
The Jinx 3 (E. Champion 488)
705; Sleepers 1 (S. Jones 317) 721.
Two Hils 2 (E. Merrit 210) 721;
Lotters 2 (E. Knudsen 370) 730.
Goofers 1 (T. Urien 355) 843;
Wild Ones 3 (E. Shama 391) 925.
Dreamers 3 (V. Mathison 459)
845; Honeymoners 1 (J. Harrison 321) 804.
High game - Ethel Champion 169.

Palmer, driving well but putting only "so-so," showed the way as the 4-1 favorite when he fired a three-under-par 67 over the long narrow fairways of the 7,185-yard Firestone Country club course. That was one stroke better than Snead, and two blows better than Paul Horney and Freddie Haas. Right behind them came Don January, Ken Venturi, Doug Sanders and Don Fairfield with even par 70's.

Palmer, with official money-winnings of $66,610 already in his pocket, is trying to add the PGA crown to the Masters and U.S. Open championships for a "big three" slam.

The iron-nerved, muscular Pennsylvanian came from behind to win the Masters and the Open.

Now he's in front and he isn't used to that.

"But I'm hoping to stay there," said Palmer.

Complains About Putter
He complained that his putter - which has been his bread and butter club - let him down "a bit" Thursday in carding that 67. He shot the front nine in 34, one under the card, and the treacherous back nine in 33, two under.

"I sank some good ones, but missed some easy ones," he said.

He also didn't like the fact that five of his drives caught the rough. But when they strayed he recovered, usually with long irons in a majestic manner. Typical was his recovery on the 465-yard par four 18th.

Palmer hooked into the wily rough, with some trees between the ball and the green. But he lashed an amazing three iron shot out of that mattress of grass and even put bite on it to send it to within 20 feet of the pin. It took him two putts to get down, but that three iron shot was the payoff in taking the lead.

Palmer had only five one-putt greens, below his average. But those other clubs in his bag saved him.

Plays It Carefully
He played it carefully. On the 625-yard par five 16th, as tough a hole as these players have had to face in a major golf championship in years, he used a three wood off the tee, "just to make sure that the ball would wind up in the fairway."

Then he used that three wood again for his second shot, leaving him a wedge to the green, where his 18-foot birdie attempt hung on the lip.

Palmer was happy with his game; Snead wasn't.

He stomped off the 18th green immediately to the practice tee, complaining, "I played awful."

Snead, trying for his fourth PGA title, had nines of 35-33. He birdied that long 16th hole when he wedged his third shot 12 feet from the pin and sank the putt. But a lot of other golfers came to brief on the hole.

Wall Takes An Eight
Art Wall, golf's leading money-winner last year, took an eight there when his second shot landed behind a tree. James Yates of Atlanta, Ga., did even worse. He put his fourth shot into the middle of the lake in front of the green for an eventual nine.

In the field of 184 shooting for this one, 10 players were grouped four strokes behind Palmer at 71. They were George Bayer, Jim Ferree, Al Besselink, Ernie Vossler, Bill Collins, Don Whit, Jim Ferrer, Bob Harris, Ed Griffiths and John O'Donnell.

Defending champion Bob Rosburg, who started out with a birdie and eagle, wound up with a 74 - and that's where Ben Hogan wound up, too. Dow Finsterwald, the 1958 PGA king, had a 73 along with Mike Souchak.

Pin Lanes Baseballers To Play Crescent City

Medford Bowling lanes will have nine men on the field for its week end series in the Rogue Valley Baseball league. That is the assurance of Manager Pete Hale.

The Keglers are scheduled at 8 p.m. Saturday and 1:30 p.m. Sunday in skirmishes with Crescent City, Calif., at Memorial stadium, White City.

Last Sunday Medford was slated to play Ashland in a twinbill at the Lithia city but only five Medford players showed up. The encounters were forfeited to Ashland which had a full squad of players on hand.

Bad Taste
The situation left a bad

Drag Races Sunday at White City

Amid the powerful roar of well-tuned engines and the acrid smell of smoking tires some 100 contestants are slated to participate for trophies and other hardware at this Sunday's drag races being held at the White City strip.

Contestants from throughout southern Oregon and northern California will be on hand matching their vehicles and driving skill against the electronic timing clocks.

Many of the sleeker competition cars will be making an all-out attempt to garner the $125 bond posted on the strip gasoline record of 145 miles per hour. This special bond has been building up each meet since the present strip standard was established last September by Warren Welsh, Reno, Nev.

Continued Rivalry
Of special interest will be the continued rivalry between the Sands-Gegner machine and the Southern Oregon Wheelers 'Zombie.' Two weeks ago a special match feature race was arranged between these two rivals with the Sands-Gegner coupe coming out on top. Although no special match race has been arranged for this meet, the Zombie crew will be making an all-out attempt to get back in the winners column.

For many entries this will be their last chance to get their machines tuned up before they leave next week to participate in the Great Western drags, being held July 30-31 in Reno, Nev.

It has been rumored that a sleek new dragster powered by a fuel-injected Oldsmobile engine will make its initial appearance on the Camp White strip Sunday.

SOTA officials stated that time trials will open at 9 a.m. with eliminations after lunch.

GOES 115,106 MPH
Couer d'Alene, Idaho - (UPI) - Veteran driver Norm Evans whipped Seattle To around the Diamond Cup hydroplane race course at 115,106 mph Thursday in a warmup run for Sunday's race. Evans, who won $100 for the day's fastest lap, was one of five drivers who took four hydroplanes around the slightly choppy course. Evans ran the Seattle To through only four laps, all of them at better than 109 mph, but twisted a quill shaft in the doing. It will be replaced. Seven boats are in the pits, with four more expected to bring the total to 11 for the third annual race Sunday.

LINE SCORES:
The Jinx 3 (E. Champion 488)
705; Sleepers 1 (S. Jones 317) 721.
Two Hils 2 (E. Merrit 210) 721;
Lotters 2 (E. Knudsen 370) 730.
Goofers 1 (T. Urien 355) 843;
Wild Ones 3 (E. Shama 391) 925.
Dreamers 3 (V. Mathison 459)
845; Honeymoners 1 (J. Harrison 321) 804.
High game - Ethel Champion 169.

Palmer, driving well but putting only "so-so," showed the way as the 4-1 favorite when he fired a three-under-par 67 over the long narrow fairways of the 7,185-yard Firestone Country club course. That was one stroke better than Snead, and two blows better than Paul Horney and Freddie Haas. Right behind them came Don January, Ken Venturi, Doug Sanders and Don Fairfield with even par 70's.

Palmer, with official money-winnings of $66,610 already in his pocket, is trying to add the PGA crown to the Masters and U.S. Open championships for a "big three" slam.

The iron-nerved, muscular Pennsylvanian came from behind to win the Masters and the Open.

Now he's in front and he isn't used to that.

"But I'm hoping to stay there," said Palmer.

Complains About Putter
He complained that his putter - which has been his bread and butter club - let him down "a bit" Thursday in carding that 67. He shot the front nine in 34, one under the card, and the treacherous back nine in 33, two under.

"I sank some good ones, but missed some easy ones," he said.

He also didn't like the fact that five of his drives caught the rough. But when they strayed he recovered, usually with long irons in a majestic manner. Typical was his recovery on the 465-yard par four 18th.

Palmer hooked into the wily rough, with some trees between the ball and the green. But he lashed an amazing three iron shot out of that mattress of grass and even put bite on it to send it to within 20 feet of the pin. It took him two putts to get down, but that three iron shot was the payoff in taking the lead.

Palmer had only five one-putt greens, below his average. But those other clubs in his bag saved him.

Plays It Carefully
He played it carefully. On the 625-yard par five 16th, as tough a hole as these players have had to face in a major golf championship in years, he used a three wood off the tee, "just to make sure that the ball would wind up in the fairway."

Then he used that three wood again for his second shot, leaving him a wedge to the green, where his 18-foot birdie attempt hung on the lip.

Palmer was happy with his game; Snead wasn't.

He stomped off the 18th green immediately to the practice tee, complaining, "I played awful."

Snead, trying for his fourth PGA title, had nines of 35-33. He birdied that long 16th hole when he wedged his third shot 12 feet from the pin and sank the putt. But a lot of other golfers came to brief on the hole.

In the field of 184 shooting for this one, 10 players were grouped four strokes behind Palmer at 71. They were George Bayer, Jim Ferree, Al Besselink, Ernie Vossler, Bill Collins, Don Whit, Jim Ferrer, Bob Harris, Ed Griffiths and John O'Donnell.

Defending champion Bob Rosburg, who started out with a birdie and eagle, wound up with a 74 - and that's where Ben Hogan wound up, too. Dow Finsterwald, the 1958 PGA king, had a 73 along with Mike Souchak.

Palmer, driving well but putting only "so-so," showed the way as the 4-1 favorite when he fired a three-under-par 67 over the long narrow fairways of the 7,185-yard Firestone Country club course. That was one stroke better than Snead, and two blows better than Paul Horney and Freddie Haas. Right behind them came Don January, Ken Venturi, Doug Sanders and Don Fairfield with even par 70's.

All-Comer Track Rivalry Saturday at Field Here

Medford High school stadium will be the scene on Saturday of a Southern Oregon All-Comers Track and Field meet.