

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon DeVos (Anders photo)

DeVos-Stiehl Ceremony Held

One of July's largest weddings in Medford was that of Miss Mary Stiehl to Gordon DeVos, which took place July 9 at First Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. Harold Sanner read the ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening, and about 200 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Stiehl, 116 Elk street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert DeVos, Route 2, Box 15, Jacksonville. The newlyweds are at home at 2300 Jacksonville highway.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of nylon net and tulle designed with long sleeves, lace bodice and lace-trimmed skirt. The neckline was outlined with sequins and the pearl necklace she wore was the bridegroom's gift. Her short veil was held by a bandeau of pearls. She carried a purple orchid encircled with white carnations, and a white Bible which was a gift from her Sunday school teacher in 1950.

Miss Carolyn Ellis, Roseburg, was honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Miss Hazel Rawlings and Miss Janet Bohl, both Medford. They wore full-skirted frocks of pink dotted Swiss with puffed sleeves and ribbon sashes, and white gloves. Their headbands held short floating veils to match their gowns. Miss Ellis carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli spikes, and the bridesmaids' bouquets were of pink gladioli.

Venita Goble, Eagle Point, was flower girl and Clyde Goble, Eagle Point, carried the rings. Candelighters were Miss Lois Ralls and Miss Karen Warner. The flower girl's bouffant frock of white dotted Swiss was worn with a wreath of flowers on her hair. Miss Ralls and Miss Warner wore frocks of pale pink flowered in blue, and carnation wristlets.

Mr. Stiehl gave his daughter in marriage, and Harold DeVos, Sams Valley, was best man for his brother, Melvin Stiehl, Astoria, brother of the bride, and Jerry Anderson, Medford, seated the guests. The church was decorated with pink and white gladioli and palms. Miss Velda Krause was organist, and Mrs. Rex Goble sang.

The reception, attended by 100 guests, was held in the church reception rooms. Mrs. Harold DeVos, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Rex Goble cut the wedding cake. Miss Leah Weaver served punch. Miss Amy Stiehl, sister of the bride, took charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with pink carnation corsage for the wedding and reception and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of chiffon over aquamarine print. Her flowers were also pink carnations.

Mr. DeVos and his bride made a wedding trip to Los Angeles. Mrs. DeVos wearing with bronze and white accessories. Mr. DeVos, who attended Jacksonville High school, is on the staff of Matlack's market. Mrs. DeVos attended Crater High school.
