Brewster-Crick Ceremony Of Interest in County

Trail-Of interest to area residents is the wedding of Miss Marcella Phyllis Crick, Salem, and William Leavenworth Brewster, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Brewster, Trail, in the First Congregational church in Salem July 9. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Crick, Salem.

Dr. Burton Bastuscheck of Willamette university officiated at the three o'clock afternoon rites.

Lavender and pink gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony and lavender bows marked the pew ends. Soloist was Verne Esch.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length frock of eyelid embroidered organza. The fitted bodice was accented with scalloped embroidery and the tiered skirt terminated in a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil of silk tulle was held by a pearl headress. She carried a cascade bouquet of Sterling Silver roses.

Mrs. Robert H. Tremaine, Corvallis, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Watilo and Mrs. David DeLapp. They wore lavender silk organza frocks over blue and lavender floral polished cotton dresses. The sashes were of the floral print and they carried cascade bouquets of orchid colored gladioli. Flower girl was little Debra Nelson who wore a white frock with lavender cummerbund.

Her cymbidium orchid was in tones of brown and beige.

Mrs. Stanley Hubert and Mrs. Donald J. Wiley cut and served the wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. Roy Myers and Miss Janie Kizziah. Assisting were Miss Corinne Klingler and Miss Linda Nelson.

The couple will be at home at 281 20th street, Salem, after July 25 following a wedding trip to Nevada, California, and Mexico. For traveling the bride wore a pastel blue silk frock with white accessories.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Prospect High school and attended Southern Oregon college. He is a sergeant in the Marine Corps stationed in Salem.

Among the valley residents who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Brewster, parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Brill, all Trail; In Suck Bak, Korean student at Southern Oregon college sponsored by the Brewsters, and Mrs. Edith Torrance, Mrs. Marjorie Smith, and daughter, Penny, Shady Cove.

The evening prior to the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Brewster entertained members of the bridal party at a dinner at the Plantation in Dallas, Ore., following the rehearsal.

Old Timers Take Part In Event

Rogue Valley Old Timers club members were guests, along with members of the Eugene Horseless Carriage club, for the Salmon Harbor fourth annual Fleet Days. It was sponsored by the Lower Umpqua Chamber of Commerce July 16-17.

Nine members and their families took the trip, with four members driving cars. Earl Swift drove his 1924 Ford milkwagon, Frank Ford, Howard Walter made the trip in his 1929 Model A coupe and Bruce Blew his 1937 Cord Beverly sedan.

Five members took cars on trailers. They were Jack Milhoan, who took a 1915 Model T Ford touring car; Lowell Reavis, a 1924 Buick runabout, Jim Cowie his 1915 Model T touring car; Roy Erickson his 1927 Nash and Earl Kurz took his 1915 Model T Ford touring car.

Saturday the group participated in a chowder feed and parade at Reedsport and later attended a smorgasbord supper at Umpqua Lighthouse State Park. Rides were taken over the Oregon sand dunes in beach buggies, and the evening ended with a huge bonfire party on the beach.

Sunday the group attended a baked salmon feed at Salmon harbor, and the old cars were displayed during the

Painting by Warren Wolf Chosen for Seattle Show

An oil painting by Warren Wolf, Medford High school art instructor, has been selected for exhibition at the sixth annual West Coast Oil Painting Show in Seattle, Wash., from July 10 through August 5.

The painting is entitled "False Prophets."

The show is open to artists who are residents of California, Oregon and Washington. Of those who are exhibiting this year six are from Oregon, 49 from Washington and 50 from California. Three hundred and sixty-eight artists submitted work to be juried for the 1960 exhibition.

Chen Chi, New York City, traveled to Seattle for the purpose of jurying the exhibition. Born in China in 1912, Mr. Chi has held one-man exhibitions in Shanghai and is an associate member of the National Academy of Design. He travels throughout the United States on assignments as diverse as painting American cities and painting the scene of the Olympic Trials at Squaw Valley.

Mr. Wolf, who has had six one-man shows in recent years, has been asked to be a guest exhibitor at the Oregon State Fair art show this year. His oil painting, "Flight" will be in the invitational division of the show. This work was among those exhibited at his one-man show last year at the Bush House, Salem.

Knackstedts Attend Association Meeting
