

Miss Medlin Married To John Ramsay

Mr. and Mrs. John Alfred Ramsay are making their home in San Diego, Calif., following their wedding July 1 at the First Presbyterian church in San Diego. The Rev. John B. Toay officiated at the double ring ceremony held at 7 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the former Margaret Anna Medlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Medlin, 525 South Riverside avenue, Medford, Mr. Ramsay is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ramsay of Applegate valley, Route 1, Box 45, Jacksonville. The parents of the couple were in San Diego for the rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white sleeveless frock fashioned with gathered skirt and matching jacket. The jacket had a Peter Pan collar and embroidered yoke. Her white straw lace hat held a short face veil and she carried a white Bible, a gift to the bride when she was enrolled in the first grade.

Other relatives attending the ceremony were Charles F. Ramsay, brother of the bridegroom, Applegate valley, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ramsay, grandparents of the bridegroom, and Miss Elizabeth Ramsay, aunt of the bridegroom, all Carlsbad, Calif.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school last month with academic honors. She plans to attend San Diego State college.

Ramsay also attended Medford High school and is an electronics technician in the U.S. Navy stationed at the Amphibian base at Coronado, Calif. They are making their home at 1629 Union street, Apartment 2, San Diego.

Miss Lyman To Teach in Fall At University

Gold Hill-Miss Shirley Lyman, daughter of Mr. and Ernest Lyman, Gold Hill, received her master of science degree in foods and nutrition last month from Oregon State college, Corvallis.

She plans to visit her parents August 1 and in mid-August will leave for Tuscaloosa, Ala., where she has accepted a teaching position at the University of Alabama.

A graduate of Crater High school with the class of 1953, Miss Lyman attended Oregon State college where she received a bachelor of science in 1957 in home economics and a master of science degree in foods and nutrition. Her master's thesis was on "The Effect of Structure and Palatability of French Fried Foods."

Since July 1958, Miss Lyman has been a junior home economist instructor, doing home economics foods research at the college. After graduation last June, she remained in Corvallis where she plans to continue this work until August 1.

Miss Lyman was elected to Omicron Nu home economics honorary, and Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary. She lived in Azalea house where she was house manager and served as vice president one year.

She is a member of the American Home Economics association, Oregon Home Economics association, the state council and is chairman of the Oregon Home Economics association research committee. She is also a member of the American Association of University Women.

Among activities in which she participated when a student at Crater High included the Girl's League, Future Homemakers of America, Comets, and the annual staff. She served as treasurer of the Future Homemakers of America group during her junior year and was selected as football princess during her senior year.

Miss Lyman received a third place award in the Elks Scholarship division when a senior.

The decorations for the evening centered around the Rainbow which is Mrs. Hermann's symbol for the year.

Families Hold Reunion

Applegate Valley-Fifty seven persons, including friends, attended the second annual reunion and dinner of the Haskins and Saltmarsh families held last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Saltmarsh, 2710 Stewart avenue, Medford. Mrs. Val Haskins of Jacksonville was presented a large birthday cake.

Those coming from a distance for the reunion were Mrs. Cora Rankin and son Kenneth, Silverton, Ore., Mrs. Frank Feige, Auburn, Calif., and Mrs. Peggy Lay, Klamath Falls. Attending from Ashland were Mrs. Paul Guiley and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Eastman. Frank Watson, San Jose, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne, also attended.

Melvin Saltmarsh, Medford, was elected president of the group, and Mrs. Guiley was elected secretary. The home of Dick Saltmarsh on Coleman creek was selected as the meeting place for next year. The first pioneers of these families came to Jackson county in 1852.

Chevalier Degree To Be Conferred On Three Youths

Three Medford youths, Leslie Little, Billy Williams and Dick Swinney, will receive the chevalier degree of the Order of De Molay at a public ceremony Monday, July 25, at 8 p.m. in the Medford Masonic temple. This is the highest honorary degree to be attained in the Order of De Molay.

The advisory board, assisted by Oregon chapter, Knights Templar, will conduct the ceremony with Ross Gilkison conferring the degrees.

The Shrine Chanters will provide music during the evening.

Following the ceremony refreshments will be served by the De Molay Mothers' club in the dining room.

All De Molay members, friends and persons interested in De Molay are invited to attend.

Picnic

Medford Christian Temperance Union will hold a picnic Thursday, July 28 at the ranch home of Dr. B. R. Elliott, 2188 Hanley Road. Those needing transportation are asked to call SP 2-8449, and then to be at the Presbyterian church by 11 a.m.

Couple to Leave For Stay Abroad

Cave Junction - Mr. and Mrs. Martin Halburson, Kerby, will leave July 26 for New York City on the first interest, and will sail from New York aboard the SS Stanangofjord September 20. They plan to take their car with them.

After landing at Proanhem, Norway, they will visit

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Fronts, parents of Mrs. Halburson, and five sisters and two brothers of Mr. Halburson for that they have not seen for more than 50 years.

Group Attends Reception

Approximately 700 Order of Eastern Star members from all parts of Oregon and Washington attended a reception at Seaside, Ore., July 16, honoring Mrs. Jens Hermann, worthy grand matron of Oregon.

Honored with her were Mrs. John Phillips, grand chaplain of Oregon and Mrs. Thelma Palmrose, grand representative to Vermont in Oregon.

Attending from Ream's chapter in Medford were Mrs. Morris Boughner, worthy grand patron of Oregon; Mrs. Boughner, grand Electa, and Mikelyn Boughner; Mrs. E. G. Randolph, grand representative of District of Columbia in Oregon; Mr. Randolph, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nordwick.

From Navita chapter in Central Point were Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. Wyley Berry, grand representative of Wisconsin in Oregon; Mr. Berry and Mrs. Merrill Harsh.

Those attending from Adarel chapter in Jacksonville were Don Shores, Estaral committee member and Mrs. Shores and Mrs. Furman Everham. Mrs. E. Roudabush and Miss Carlotta Wiseman, past grand matron of Oregon, represented Josephine chapter, Grants Pass. From Ashland were Mrs. William Webber and Mr. and Mrs. George Ward.

All of the grand officers of the grand chapter of Oregon were in attendance with the exception of the grand secretary. Other distinguished and honored members were the worthy grand matron and patron of Washington, Mrs. Becky Davis and Robert Cunningham, with other grand officers.

Eleven past grand matrons, seven past grand patrons, 35 grand committee members, 20 grand representatives and many worthy matrons and patrons from throughout Oregon were also present.

Mrs. Hermann was given a surprise addendum by the Portland Assembly 14 of Rainbow Girls and one by her local Maple chapter of Seaside. The Southern Oregon association addendum was a ship, the S.S. Mattie Hermann, in which they "sailed" Mrs. Hermann to three ports representing the Rogue River valley, the Klamath basin and the Umpqua valley. At each port Mrs. Hermann was presented with gifts appropriate to that section of Southern Oregon. At the close of the addendum, Mrs. Shores presented both Mr. and Mrs. Hermann with honorary memberships in the Southern Oregon association.

The decorations for the evening centered around the Rainbow which is Mrs. Hermann's symbol for the year.
