

Berean Baptist Church Scene of Recent Wedding

Miss Phyllis Leoma Hagle became the bride of Raymond Loren Marsh in a ceremony held July 9 at Berean Baptist church, White City. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Violet N. Hagle, Route 2, Box 209H, Medford. Mr. Marsh is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Marsh, Route 3, Box 5445, Grants Pass.

The Rev. Ray E. Nelson officiated at the double ring ceremony held at three o'clock in the afternoon. White and gold gladioli decorated the church and an open Bible was at the altar. Mrs. Lois Wilson, Grants Pass, was soloist and Miss Diane Franklin played the organ wedding music.

The bride wore a street length lace frock fashioned with large puffed sleeves, full skirt and satin accents. She carried red rosebuds and white pinks on a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom. Sam Cairnes, Foster, Ore., friend of the family, gave the bride in marriage.

Miss Louella Rone attended the bride. She wore a blue organza frock in street length with lace cummerbund. Her small hat had a short veil and she carried a nosegay bouquet of pink roses. Raelene Nelson, White City, was flower girl.

Dave Woolfolk, Brownsboro, served as best man. Seating the guests were Ronald Greb, Eagle Point, and Charles Haffmeister. Ring bearer was Rodney Ullom, Eagle Point.

The reception following the ceremony was attended by 70 relatives and friends. Miss JoAnna Malloroy and Mrs. E. A. Malloroy, White City, cut and served the cake. Miss Carolyn Hart presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Don Ullom poured coffee. Miss Willie B. Poitevin was in charge of the guest book and Miss Sue Dillard was at the gift table.

Mrs. Hagle chose for her daughter's wedding and reception a floral print beige chiffon frock over yellow taffeta. Mrs. Marsh wore a red and white silk organza dress. Their accessories were white and they had white carnation corsages.

The couple is at home at Route 2, Box 209H, Medford, following a wedding trip to Crescent City and Brookings. The bride attended Medford High school and is a secretary for Stark Finance company. Mr. Marsh attended Grants Pass High school and is employed by Benny Nork Logging company.

Japanese Students To Visit

Ashland-Ashland residents are asked to extend their hospitality to seven Japanese students from Keio University, Tokyo, Japan, who will have a five-day stopover in Ashland, August 1-5, to tour the town and the Southern Oregon College campus as part of their summer exchange program with Stanford University. Dr. Fellers of SOC said that housing has been arranged for but meals still need to be provided. For further information, those interested may contact the Student Affairs office at the college.

This exchange program was inaugurated in 1959 between Keio university in Tokyo, Japan, and Stanford when six students of the latter traveled in Japan with the aid of students from Keio. Under an expanded program this summer, twelve Stanford students are going to Japan and seven Keio students are traveling through the United States.

August 2 the three boys, three girls and their escort will be featured in a panel discussion in the SOC assembly at 9 a.m. Their other plans include attendance at the Shakespearean Festival.

Four of the students are English literature majors; one is a student of political science and another is studying economics. The students are juniors or seniors and 20-21 years of age.

Teacher, Family Visit in Hornbrook

Hornbrook - Mr. and Mrs. Al Gregory and children, Kathy, Mike and Terry of Galaway, N. Y., visited briefly in town recently and then went on to Pomona, Calif., to visit Mrs. Gregory's parents. They plan to return here later. Mr. Gregory was principal of the Hornbrook grammar school for two years, leaving here three years ago to return east.

Events Told for Week at Senior Activity Center

The Senior Activity Center will open its week's schedule of events with the showing of colored slides of Thailand by Col. H. J. Meiring Monday, July 25, at 1 p.m.

They will include pictures taken on a 1,200-mile trip by jeep from Bangkok north to Chiang Mai, the capital of the country during the 13th century when it was known as Siam.

En route to the interior, he took pictures of the Yan He dam on the Ping river which will be one of the seven largest in the world when finished.

Proceeding the Arm Chair Travel groups Edward Root will hold the weekly music class at 11 a.m. for those persons learning to play instruments in order to join the orchestra. The orchestra meets each Thursday at 10 a.m. during the summer months.

Mr. Root said that there are a kettle drum and cello available for any musician or student over 50 wishing to join the group. Everything at the center is free to participants.

The Senior Center Orchestra now has 18 musicians. Sixteen of the group played and sang for the Chamber of Commerce roundtable luncheon Monday, July 18, prior to the talk by Miss Julia Johnson, executive secretary of the State Council on Aging, Eugene.

The center committee is now discussing plans with the park and recreation commission for this group to give a short concert some evening in the Liberty park.

The art class under the direction of Mrs. Victoria Stanley meets at 1 p.m. Tuesdays. July 26 they will meet at the center then plan to paint in Hawthorne park. Members of the class and those in the former classes conducted by Miss Margaret Ossenbruge, Clifford Platz, Mrs. Nettie Williams and Mrs. Ruby Tweddell, showed 70 pictures in oil water color and pastel in the Greenwich Village art show in the Liberty park conducted by the Southern Oregon Artists July 16.

New members are welcome to join the various classes. The summer schedule is available at the center. A Spanish study group meets Thursdays at 9 a.m.

Don't Guess About Your Furnace

Make sure your heating equipment is serviced properly for the chilly days and frosty nights ahead. Just as you get a seasonal check-up on your automobile, so you should have your furnace tuned for the winter months to come. Now, before cold weather starts and you need heat, is the time to have it checked by a qualified gas service man.

You'll save two ways if you put your heating equipment in top working order before you turn it on. First, you'll save gas because a clean, properly adjusted furnace will operate more efficiently. Second, you'll cut repair bills because a thorough cleaning, lubrication and a filter change will make it last longer and perform without costly and annoying interruptions.

Be assured of comfortable warmth with Automatic Gas Heat
