Jack Assured of New York Support

Hyannisport, Mass. (UPI) - Former New York Gov. Averell Harriman assured Sen. John F. Kennedy today that Democrats in New York will be united in support of him for president despite the split in party ranks there.

"I told him I'm convinced, myself, that he will carry New York state," Harriman told reporters after a two-hour meeting with the Democratic presidential candidate at Kennedy's Cape Cod vacation home.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City will visit Kennedy Monday for further discussions of party problems, Harriman said.

CHEATER GOES TO JAIL

Mobile, Ala. - (UPI) - L. L. Raybon, 34, was sentenced to six months in jail Friday for trying to cheat a blind newsstand vendor. Raybon pleaded guilty to charges that he cut scrap paper in the shape of currency and demanded change from blind vendor Earl Pendleton, 56.

TO ATTEND DEDICATION

Jacksonville, Fla. - (UPI) - Former President Herbert Hoover, 85, who urged Congress 30 years ago to begin a flood control project at Florida's Lake Okeechobee, will attend dedication ceremonies for the completed dikes in December. They will be named in his honor.

ion from 1943 to 1946, said he also discussed foreign policy and various world problems with Kennedy.

Berlin Trouble Reportedly Planned

Washington - (UPI) - The United States was reliably reported today to have received an intelligence report that the Russians and Communist East Germans may be preparing a "military move" against West Berlin within the next 30 days.

Authoritative sources said this ominous threat to the Red-encircled Free World outpost was one of the principal

Agents Arrest Man For Auto Theft

Norval Kenneth Ford, 63, of 1236 North Riverside ave., Medford, was arrested by FBI agents and Jackson county sheriff's deputies Friday for interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle.

Ford was arraigned on the Dyer act charge before U.S. Commissioner Frank Van Dyke. He is being held in the county jail for the U.S. marshal with bail set at $1,500.

According to law enforcement officials, Ford was charged with the theft of a car in Prescott, Ariz., February, 1959. He has lived in southern Oregon the past 17 months where he was a used car salesman.

Some of our states some day, may be proud to have a peanut embossed on its state seal; and that peanut will be pictured with a crown, for it will be "King Peanut." It will indicate to all the world that here is a very important little guy that has made good. The only small thing about the peanut is its size.

Festival Matinee To Start Monday

Ashland - "The Virtuous Bigamist," starring the famed French comedian Fernandel, will open the "Festival Matinee - Curtain at Two" Monday, July 25, at 2 p.m. at the Varsity theater in Ashland.

Doors will open at 1:30 p.m. Running time of the film is less than two hours, enabling Festival patrons to attend the opening night "Feast of the Tribe of Will," and the performance of "The Taming of the Shrew."

HUNT JEWEL THIEF

New York - (UPI) - Police hunted Saturday for $50,000 in jewels the school teacher daughter of a Texas oilman said was stolen from her dresser drawer. Caroline Baxter, 22, a private school kindergarten teacher and daughter of the late Bruce Baxter, a Corpus Christi, Tex., oilman, said she was sightseeing with her mother, who was enroute home from Europe, when the jewels were taken from her apartment.
