Sievers, Freese Dynamite Boston in 16-3 Chisox Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Warned to quit monkeying around with fireworks, the White Sox are now using two sticks of dynamite—Roy Sievers and Gene Freese—to blast their way to a second straight American league pennant.

The White Sox received their warning last week in New York when the fire commissioner personally confiscated a carload of fireworks they planned to use to rile the Yankees.

Safely out of his jurisdiction in Boston Tuesday night, the White Sox bombed five Red Sox pitchers for 21 hits and a 16-3 victory that kept them a game in front of the pack.

Sievers and Freese led the barrage as Early Wynn breezed to his sixth victory. Sievers, who has jumped his average from .237 to .315 within the past month, drove in four runs with four hits, including his 17th homer. Freese had five hits. One was a three-run homer and two others were doubles.

Even little Nellie Fox joined in the shooting with his first homer of the year. Minnie Minoso also homered for the White Sox while Gary Geiger and Frank Malzone connected for Boston.

The Yankees beat the Indians, 6-1, the Athletics shaded the Orioles, 2-1, and the Tigers defeated the Senators, 5-3, in other AL games.

Pirates Retain Lead
The Pirates stayed a half game ahead in the National league race with a 5-4 decision over the Cardinals while the second-place Braves beat the Giants, 3-1. The Reds downed the Dodgers, 4-1, and the Phillies broke a three-game losing streak with a 4-3 win over the Cubs.

Mickey Mantle brought the Yankees from behind in their game with the Indians by hitting his 25th homer with one on in the sixth inning. The Yanks made it one-sided with four more runs in the seventh. Art Ditmar won his eighth game with help from newly-acquired Luis Arroyo. Dick Stigman suffered the loss.

Kansas City put together four singles in the eighth off loser Milt Pappas to break a 1-1 tie and beat Baltimore. The victory went to Johnny Kucks, who contributed one of the singles during the eighth. Kucks gave up nine hits, eight of which were singles.

The Tigers overcame a three-run deficit to win but Clem Labine to snuff out a ninth-inning threat by the Senators to save Frank Gardner's two-run homer helped Washington jump to a three-run lead in the first inning but Rocky Colavito hit his 21st homer with one on in the fourth and the Tigers got to Pedro Ramos for two more in the sixth on three singles, an error and Chico Fernandez' sacrifice fly.

Law Wins 13th
Vern Law of the Pirates was credited with his 13th victory of the season and 10th straight over the Cardinals although he needed help from Fred Green and Elroy Face.

Trailing 5-0, St. Louis rallied for four runs in the seventh on a pair of two-run homers by Carl Sawatski and George Crowe. It was Crowe's 13th pinch home run of his career and added to his own major league record. The Pirates nicked loser Curt Simmons for three runs in the fourth and Bill Virdon hit a pinch two-run homer in the seventh for the clincher.

Carlton Willey of the Braves and Sam Jones of the Giants were locked in a scoreless duel until Johnny Logan singled home the first run of the game for Milwaukee in the seventh. The Braves clinched their fourth straight victory when they added two more in the eighth with the help of first baseman, Jim Marshall's throwing error.

Willey gave way in the ninth to Ron Piche after Marshall homered and Felipe Alou singled. The loss was a tough one for Jones, who struck out 11 and didn't give up a hit until the sixth. Willey, who had a three-hit shut-out until the ninth, is now 5-4. Jones is 12-10.

Purkey Beats Dodgers
Bob Purkey set the Dodgers down on four hits in winning his 10th game for the Reds. The only run he allowed was Duke Snider's 12th homer in the second. Frank Robinson's 19th homer of the season with one on in the fifth off loser Johnny Podres broke a 1-1 tie. Rookie Cliff Cook had four hits for Cincinnati and Vada Pinson three, including a pair of doubles.

A three-run homer in the ninth by rookie Clay Dalrymple powered the Phils to victory over the Cubs. Robin Roberts won his seventh game but reliever Dick Farrell had to bail him out in the bottom of the ninth after rookie Ron Santo led off with a homer.

Los Angeles—(UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers, held to four hits Tuesday night by Cincinnati, conducted extra batting practice today for several key players before taking on the Reds again tonight.

The four-hitter brought Cincinnati's Bob Purkey his tenth win of the season by a 4-1 score and his third win without a loss over the Dodgers this year.

For tonight's game Don Drysdale, 8-10, was named to start in the hope he could extend his four-game winning streak. Cincinnati sends Jim Maloney, a $100,000 bonus pitcher, to the mound for his first National league appearance.

Maloney was one of four players brought up by Cincinnati over the weekend. He had a 14-5 record with Nashville.

Early Birds
"I've asked Frank Howard and catcher Norm Sherry to come out about an hour early today for extra batting practice," manager Walter Alton said. "Gil Hodges asked if he could also take some extra hitting and one or two others may turn out."

Manager Freddie Hutchinson of the Reds also called for extra batting practice although Cincinnati connected for 11 hits last night but left nine men on the bases.

Their biggest blow was outfielder Frank Robinson's two-run homer in the fifth inning that put the Reds ahead, 3-1. It was his 19th homer of the season.

Rookie third baseman Cliff Cook collected four hits in four times at bat for the Reds and center-fielder Veda Pinson got three hits, two of them doubles.

A huge crowd of 60,880 got its only real chance to cheer in the second inning when Duke Snider hit his 12th homer of the season for the only Dodger run. It was a 380-foot shot over the right field fence.

Ernie Banks hit his 28th homer for the Cubs. Glen Hobbie lost his 13th game against nine victories.

SPORTS Two Hits Enough For Sacramento

By PETE COLEMAN
United Press International
If it hadn't been for Mike Krsnich of Sacramento, three Vancouver hurlers would have pitched themselves a dandy game in Pacific Coast league play Tuesday night.

The moundmen, starter Dave Jolly and relievers Phil Paine and Fred Baczewski, gave the Solons only two hits. However, Krsnich got both of them and drove in two runs to lead Sacramento to a 3-1 win.

Elsewhere, the pitchers had more luck. Ed Rakow worked a four-hitter and was rewarded with his seventh win as Spokane blanked Salt Lake, 2-0. Erv Palica got plenty of hitting support as he scored his ninth victory in Seattle's 11-5 conquest of San Diego, and reliever Ramon Monzant had lots of backing from big bats as Tacoma outlasted Portland, 9-7.

Hits In Fourth
Krsnich first hit, a two-run double, came during a streak of Vancouver wildness in the fourth and broke up a no-hitter. Moundie hurlers Jolly and Paine gave up a total of four free passes during the frame.

Solon hurler, Winston Brown, pitched a fine game himself, giving up only six hits. In addition, he drove in the other Sacramento run in the fourth with a sacrifice fly. Krsnich's second hit, a single, came in the sixth.

Rakow's masterpiece was the second straight shutout for Indian hurlers. The hard-throwing side-armed fanned eight, walked three and held the Bees in check all the way.

Spokane's first run came in the first inning when Willie Davis tripled and scored on an infield out. The insurance tally crossed in the seventh on a single, a stolen base, an infield out and a sacrifice fly.

Palica Has Good Night
Palica was spinning an airtight shutout until Seattle carved out an 8-0 lead after six, then "relaxed" his way home. The Rainier righthander also had a good night at the plate, hitting a one-on homer and two singles.

Joe Taylor and Hal Bevan also had circuit clouts for the Suds.

Tacoma used the big inning to get Monzant his third win in six decisions. The Giants scored five times in the fourth. Bob Farley drove in one during the outburst, while Bobby Prescott and Danny O'Connell each had a two-run single.

Don Taussig had another big night for the Beavers, driving in five runs with a homer and a double. Monday night, he was credited with four RBIs on a four-baser and a single.
