100 Attend Family Picnic Held In Yreka City Park

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN Mail Tribune Correspondent
Hornbrook—In 1852, a young English widow, Mrs. Jane Bray, crossed the ocean to America from her native land. With her was four-year-old William, the survivor of a set of twin boys, her only children. Absalom, her husband, and little William's father, had been a soldier in the British army stationed on the island of Santa Lucia in the British West Indies. Here William was born and here Absalom met death in battle. The young mother and her small son crossed the Isthmus of Panama on muleback, and many weeks later arrived in the raw, new gold-mining town of Yreka to live with an uncle. And about this time a family named Beck set out from Peoria, Ill., to cross the plains in a covered wagon. Arriving in California, they settled in

Gazelle Child Dies While Baby Sitter Swims in Creek

By BESSIE BOYD FRASER Mail Tribune Correspondent
Yreka—Three small children were taken to the home of a baby sitter in Gazelle last week, in order that their mother, Mrs. Arlene Westbrook, might work as a waitress in her father's restaurant. The baby sitter was a young girl making her home with a Mrs. Wright, who took the children and sitter to a nearby creek to spend the day and then returned to her home. They played in the creek and had a picnic lunch, after which the youngsters were put on a blanket in the shade of a big tree to take their naps. When all were asleep the girl went swimming with a friend and forgot all about time and the children in her care. Hours later Mrs. Wright came to take them home and found them asleep in the sun. The temperature was 108 in the shade that day. They were scarcely breathing from heat prostration. She applied cold towels and tried to revive them, but when they didn't respond to treatment started for help. While stopping at a service station in Gazelle, Jack Campbell realized the babies were in serious condition and tried mouth to mouth respiration, but Gregory Alan Westbrook, 17 months, died shortly after reaching the Mt. Shasta hospital. The other two children are expected to recover. The father is John Curtis Westbrook and the mother is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Twitchell of Gzelle.

100 Attend Family Picnic Held In Yreka City Park

Fall River Mills where Jennie, their daughter, grew up. So the little English boy and the little pioneer American girl met, and later were married and had nine children, and founded the town of Brag in eastern Siskiyou county. Sunday, 100 descendants of this pioneer couple gathered in the city park in Yreka for a family reunion. Five of the nine children survive and three were present on Sunday. They are Mrs. Grace Bray Deter, Yreka; Mrs. Mabel Bray Sanders, Hornbrook; and Mrs. Ruth Bray Baumgartner, Yreka. Unable to attend were Mrs. Pearl Bray Young of Stockton, Calif., and William A. Bray of Anderson, Calif. Surviving grand children number 22, of whom 16 were present. Thirty-four of 54 great-grandchildren, and 20 of 32 great-great-grandchildren also attended.

Tunnel Construction Is Now On Schedule
Illinois Valley—According to L. E. Herndon, project superintendent for Gibbons and Reed construction company, work on the north approach to the Oregon Mountain tunnel is progressing according to schedule. They expect to move their rock plant in some time this week and within the next two weeks heavy earth moving equipment on the job. More than 100 persons have applied for work on the job, Herndon said, estimating that 40 persons will be used during conditions permit, every consideration will be given people for employment, he said. He expressed his gratitude for the many valley persons who have offered housing and other help for his personnel. Herndon asked that people wishing employment go to the trailer office parked at Twin Pines motel so as not to endanger themselves as did one party who ventured into the area recently.

U.S. STEPS UP AID
Washington—UPI—The United States is stepping up its aid to the United Nations force operating in the strife-torn Congo. The defense department said Tuesday 10 C-47 transport planes had been made available to the U.N. and five C-119 flying boxcars and six helicopters will be turned over for the Congo airlift.
