

Forestry Clubs Compete in 4-H Overnight Trip

Two Jackson county 4-H forestry clubs competed in the annual forestry overnight held on Elk creek July 24 and 25. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hanson were host to the clubs as they viewed the Hanson Logging operations on Elk Lake company land.

Bob Vincent, Elk forester, answered questions and provided information on the sustained yield forestry program conducted by the company.

In addition, several 4-H forestry contests were held with Billy Lawson and Leonard Hanson of Elk Trail Forestry Squires taking first in the first year and the advanced forestry division respectively.

Individual results were:
Fire spotting contest—First year: Dick Eastman, Elk Trail, first; LaVonne Myers, Elk Trail, second; Paul Sparks, Phoenix, third; Tommy Lawson, Elk Trail, fourth; Billy Lawson of Elk Trail and Jackie Tuggle, Phoenix, tie fifth.

Fire spotting contest—advanced: Tying for 1st, Leonard Hanson, Elk Trail, and Sam James, Talent, tie for 1st; Roy Myers, Elk Trail, second; Billy Bagley, Talent, third; Lorna Fowler, Phoenix, fourth; James Scott, Phoenix, fifth.

AN ITCH TO DITCH

Houston—John S. Brace reported to police that he parked his tiny sports car beside a ditch and when he returned 30 minutes later he found somebody had been unable to resist temptation. The car was in the ditch.

SUSPICIOUS DRINKER

Houston, Tex.—(UPI)—A tavern owner called police Wednesday night and reported a "suspicious" character "who has been drinking nothing but water for four hours." The man was taken to jail for questioning by a psychiatrist.
