Giants Edge Cincy 2-1 in Long Game

San Francisco — (UPI) — Jim Davenport singled home Andre Rodgers from third in the 10th inning Saturday to give the San Francisco Giants a 2-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds and their fourth straight win.

The deciding run got on base when Rodgers worked losing pitcher Jim Brosnan for a pass with one out and then went to third base on an infield single by Don Blasingame after relief pitcher Stu Miller had struck out.

On the play second baseman Roy McMillan threw the ball wildly to first for an error allowing Blasingame to go to the middle bag.

Then Davenport, who had come into the game late, hit a looper into centerfield that dropped between Vada Pinson and McMillan for the winning blow.

Miller pitched the last two innings after southpaw Billy O'Dell retired with an injured hand and picked up his third victory against as many defeats. O'Dell, who struck out eight and was touched for an unearned run during the eight innings he worked, went out in the ninth after Gordon Coleman led off with a hard single which apparently bruised his pitching hand.

Miller struck out two batters while setting the Reds down in order after coming on in that inning and made Frank Robinson hit into a double play in the 10th to wipe out another possible rally.

Casey Says Piersall Is Not Crazy

By MILTON RICHMAN
New York — (UPI) — Jim Piersall has a bona fide booster in Casey Stengel, who dropped a hint Saturday that he would not mind having him on the Yankees.

Stengel said there are "a lotta players in the American league who aren't half as good as Piersall."

"Some people say this man is crazy," Casey continued. "Well he certainly doesn't play crazy. When he hits the ball, he never runs to third base. He doesn't run through the pitcher's box either."

Stengel even defended the Cleveland outfielder for the extremely shallow manner he played Yankee pitcher Ryne Duren during the eighth inning of Thursday's nightcap. Piersall stationed himself only a few feet behind second base until manager Joe Gordon urged him to move back.

"I don't see that Piersall did anything so stupid," Stengel said. "Ever look up Duren's average? He hasn't had a hit this season and even he can't remember the last time he connected safely."

"Piersall was playing him perfectly," Casey insisted. "The only better place anyone could play Duren would be behind the catcher. He's what you call some 'bitter.'"

Woman Cancels Lake Erie Swim

Erie, Pa. — (UPI) — Four-foot high rollers and heavy winds Saturday night forced an attractive Erie swimming instructor to postpone for at least a week her attempt to become the first person ever to swim across Lake Erie.

Miss Mary Hafey, a swimming teacher at the Erie YWCA, returned here from Long Point, Ontario, after she was advised by the weather bureau that conditions would not improve.

Miss Hafey, a pert five feet two and 120 pounds, journeyed to Long Point Friday night and was to have begun her third try at conquering the lake Saturday. But bad weather beset her then, too.

Miss Hafey failed in her two previous efforts, in 1958 and 1959, when she was forced to call it quits after some 12 miles in choppy waters. Those unsuccessful attempts began on the American side. This time she will start in Canada. She predicted the 28-mile swim, to be undertaken during fair weather, would take her about 24 hours.

Yankees Celebrate Stengel's Birthday

New York — (UPI) — The New York Yankees front office planned a party Saturday to Stengel's 70th birthday.

Stengel is in his 12th year at the Yankee helm. During his tenure, New York has won nine American league pennants and seven world championships.

Hobbie Holds League-Leading Bucs To Seven Hits To Pace Cubs To Win

Cards Dump Phils Back Of Jackson

By United Press International
Glenn Hobbie stopped the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates on seven scattered singles to pitch the Chicago Cubs to a 6-1 victory Saturday and end an eight-game losing streak.

Hobbie, mainstay of the Cub's pitching staff, bounced a double off the right field wall and scored the first run in a four-run seventh inning which included a three-run home by George Altman.

The rally came off reliever Elroy Face but the loss went to starter Bob Friend who left for a pinch hitter after allowing the Cubs to take a 2-1 lead in the sixth inning.

Hobbie, who received news that his wife had given birth to a 6-pound, 9-ounce boy, walked only one batter and struck out six in bringing his record to 10-13.

The Pirates nipped Hobbie for their only run on three singles in the first inning, but failed to get more than one safe blow in any one frame thereafter.

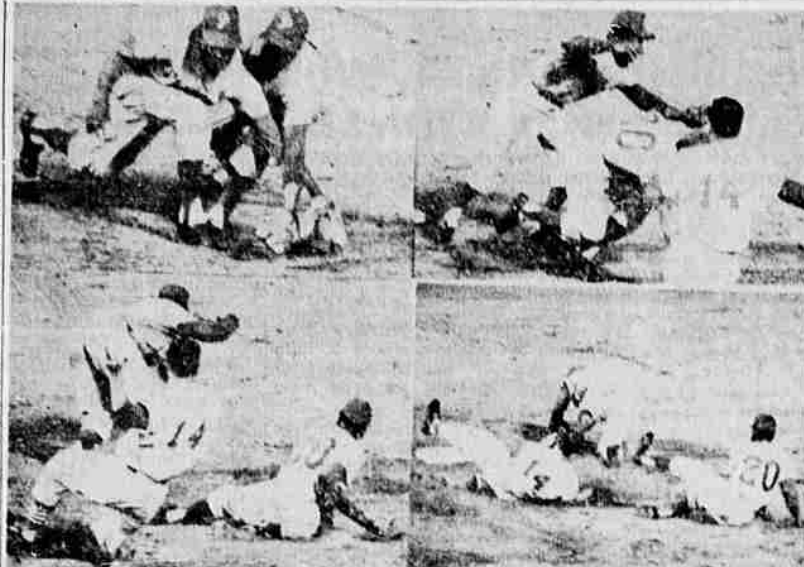

Daryl Spencer's double with the bases full in the fifth inning highlighted a four-run rally that carried the St. Louis Cardinals to a 6-3 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Jackson Gets Win
Larry Jackson struck out eight and allowed seven hits to register his 13th victory against eight defeats. Curt Flood and Bill White hit homers for the Cards while John Callison and Clay Dalrymple connected for the Phils. Chris Short was the loser.

Tony Taylor helped Jackson's cause by striking out three times. It was the sixth time he fanned in two consecutive games, to tie a National league record.

San Francisco got its fourth straight win when Jim Davenport singled home Andre Rodgers in the 10th inning for a 2-1 victory over Cincinnati. Stu Miller, pitching the last two innings after starter Billy O'Dell retired with an injured hand, won his third game of the season. He has lost the same number. Jim Brosnan was tagged with his second defeat.

Milwaukee was at Los Angeles for a night game.

Chicago Moves Into AL Lead With 3-2 Win Over Senators

By United Press International
The Chicago White Sox took over the American league lead Saturday by beating the Washington Senators, 3-2, when Renato Bertoina's 11th inning error on Roy Sievers' grounder enabled Luis Aparicio to score the winning run.

The victory by the White Sox moved them one percentage point ahead of the idle Yankees, who were scheduled game with the Athletics was postponed by rain.

Sievers hit a two-run homer, his 20th of the season, in the sixth inning to give Chicago a 2-1 lead after Washington had picked up an unearned run off Frank Baumann in the second.

Washington tied the score in the ninth on two singles and Earl Battey's sacrifice fly.

Ray Moore, who took over from Washington starter Don Lee in the ninth, opened the 11th by giving up a double to Aparicio. Nellie Fox beat out a bunt, moving Aparicio on third.

Bertoina Fumbles Ball
Sievers grounded to Bertoina, who had plenty of time to get Aparicio breaking for the plate. But Bertoina took his eye off the ball and fumbled it as the flying Aparicio scored.

Billy Pierce, who took over from Baumann in the 10th, picked up his 10th victory in two innings of relief.

Baltimore defeated Cleveland, 4-3, on Jim Busby's single with two out in the ninth inning. Rookie Chuck Estrada went the distance for the Orioles, winning his 11th game although yielding 10 hits, including a homer by Marty Keough.

Billy Klaus opened the ninth with a walk for the Orioles, took second after Al Pilarcik fouled out and third on Estrada's infield out. Busby then came through with his single to score Klaus and send Johnny Klippstein down to his fourth setback.

Rain washed out the Boston-Detroit game.

Former NY Ace Stars For Dallas

Forest Grove, Ore. — (UPI) — Former New York Giant quarterback Don Heinrich was an offensive standout here Saturday afternoon as the Dallas Cowboys staged an intrasquad contest before 1,600 fans to finish their second week of training on the Pacific university's campus.

Heinrich played one half with the Cowboys number one offensive team, and the second half with the number two unit. Heinrich, an ex-University of Washington gridder, tossed three touchdown passes — two to former Cleveland Browns end Frank Clarke and one to end Ray Mathews, formerly of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Heinrich also scored a TD himself with a one-yard sneak.

The fifth touchdown of the day came when fullback Fred Cone romped 55 yards to pay dirt. Cone also added a 24-yard field goal to his offensive effort.

The final score of the clash was 20-16 in favor of the first offensive unit.

In switching quarterbacks, however — at halftime — the Heinrich-led squads scored a 33-3 victory.

L. G. Dupre gained 106 yards in 17 carries to lead the running backs. Clarke made seven catches for 178 yards during the two-hour game played under regulation NFL game conditions.

Coach Tom Landry said, "It was a good workout. We were sharp in the first half and slowed up a bit in the second half, but overall it was a good game."

The Cowboys will leave Forest Grove Friday afternoon by plane to meet the San Francisco 49ers in Seattle Aug. 6, following the exhibition battle with the 49ers the Cowboys will return here for one more week before breaking camp and heading to San Antonio, Tex., to play the St. Louis Cardinals.

Bevos Lose 5-1

Sacramento, Calif. — (UPI) — Carl Greene pitched a three-hitter and Mike Krsnich walked a homer, a double and single Saturday night to give the Sacramento Solons a 5-1 victory over the Portland Beavers.

Krsnich was ejected during a wild seventh inning after he tossed a bat at Portland hurler Bob Anderson and charged the mound following two pitches which nearly hit him. Beaver catcher Daryl Westerfeld also was tossed out by plate umpire Pat Orr when he wrestled Krsnich to the turf.

Krsnich whacked his homer in the second with none aboard to give Sacramento a 1-0 lead. The Solons then added four more in the sixth on five hits as Greene singled across two of the tallies. It marked the hurler's first win in two decisions.

Tribe Buys Newcombe

Baltimore — (UPI) — Manager Joe Gordon said today that one-time National great Don Newcombe will be used as a starting pitcher for the Cleveland Indians and may also see service as a pinch hitter.

Newcombe, 34, who was the National league's most valuable player and the major league's pitcher of the year when he won 27 games for the Dodgers in 1956, was bought from the Cincinnati Reds Friday night for an undisclosed sum. The Indians also agreed to option pitcher Carl Thomas of Indianapolis to the Reds' Nashville farm team in the Southern association.

Cleveland gave utility infielder George Strickland his unconditional release to make room on its roster for Newcombe.

"I expect him to be a big help," said Gordon.

Williams Leads Dodger Drive For NL Pennant

United Press International
Stan Williams, the forgotten man of the Dodgers' pennant playoff victory last season, may be the Los Angeles hero of the 1960 National league race.

The big righthander with the overpowering fast ball was overlooked in the light of Larry Sherry's World Series heroics against Chicago. But it was Williams who nailed down the second playoff game against Milwaukee with three extra innings of hitless ball that gave Los Angeles a 6-3 triumph and the NL flag.

Williams retained his mastery over the Braves Friday night as he hurled Los Angeles to a 7-3 victory over second place Milwaukee. His 11th triumph — the fifth in a row — enabled the Dodgers to close to within two games of Charlie Dressen's crew and remain in striking distance of the league-leading Pirates.

Even so astute a student of baseball as Dressen is amazed by the Dodger drive in the past five weeks.

"I've always said in the past that the team to beat was the club at the top of the standings," Dressen said after he game riday night. "But now I would have to say the Dodgers are the club to beat."

Ralston Upset By Lenoir in Tennis Tourney

Kalamazoo, Mich. — (UPI) — Top-seeded Dennis Ralston, plagued by injuries and homesickness, was ousted by third-seeded Bill Lenoir of Tucson, Ariz., Saturday in the junior division semifinals of the National Junior and Boys Tennis tournament.

Lenoir trounced Ralston in straight sets, 6-3, 6-1, and will meet second-seeded Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., today for the National Junior championship. Froehling advanced to the finals by stopping fourth-seeded Bill Bond of La Jolla, Calif., in the other junior semifinal match, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.

Ralston, the defending champion from Bakersfield, Calif., just ran out of gas. He had been scrambling all week in an effort to overcome a groin and ankle injury that hurt his game and he advanced as far as the semifinals by scoring several comeback victories in earlier rounds.

Tennis officials also said that Ralston's game may have been marred by homesickness. The 17-year-old Californian has been playing in the big European tournaments all summer and has not been home since May.

Hailed by some as the most promising young tennis player in the nation, Ralston was not match for the slick, methodical Lenoir who dropped only four of the 16 games in his two-set triumph.

Don Larsen Back at KC

Kansas City, Mo. — (UPI) — Larsen, the only pitcher in baseball history to record a perfect game in World Series competition, is back with the Kansas City Athletics today after a short stint in the minor leagues with Dallas of the American association.

The A's recalled Larsen from the triple-A club Friday and sent Bob Trowbridge to Dallas to make room on the Kansas City roster.

Larsen was optioned to Dallas three weeks ago after being plagued with control trouble and racking up a dismal 0-5 record. At the time of the option, however, A's manager Bob Elliott indicated Larsen would be back in Kansas City before the end of the season.

SALT LAKE WINS

Salt Lake City — (UPI) — Salt Lake jumped to a 2-1 lead in their current series with Seattle Saturday by dumping the Rainiers 5-3 with a 13-hit barrage that included Hank Mitchell's 13th home run of the season.

Elko, Nev. — (UPI) — Fourteen bicyclists arrived here Saturday night from Salt Lake City to finish what they called the "longest relay bicycle race in the United States." The winning team pedaled the 246 mile course in 11 hours and 15 minutes. They were members of the Salt Lake Wheelmen, a cycling club.
