

Ceremony Held at Catholic Church

Sacred Heart Catholic church in Medford was the setting for the wedding of Miss Ann Marie Darland to Walter A. Graff III Saturday, July 23. The double-ring ceremony and the nuptial mass which followed were performed by the Rev. William McLeod at 11 o'clock in the morning in the presence of more than 300 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Darland, 922 Park avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Graff Jr., 2156 West Hillside drive, both Medford.

The bride wore a gown of off-white satin designed with long sleeves, neckline accented with seed pearls and full skirt fashioned with train. Her pearl earrings and necklace were the bridegroom's gift and her bouquet was of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. She carried an heirloom handkerchief belonging to Mrs. B. L. Hunter. Miss Sharon Ann Mott, Spokane, was honor attendant for her cousin and the four bridesmaids were the Misses Susan Graff, sister of the bridegroom, Lynne Parsons, Anne Haviland and Mary Hennebeck. The maid of honor wore a ballerina length full-skirted dress of sheer orchid nylon over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with white lace midriff, boat neckline and elbow length sleeves. She wore a matching hat with crown of flowers and float veil, and carried lavender carnations with valley lilies.

The bridesmaids' gowns were identical to that worn by Miss Mott and their matching hats were of pink. All carried pink carnation and valley lilies.

Barbara Darland, small sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a lavender organly frock with matching pony tail hat.

Mr. Darland escorted his daughter, and Dr. O. J. Halboth was best man. L. A. Dupray was head usher, and seating the guests were Eldon Francis, Gary L. Guss, Dean

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Graff III (Landis photo)

Rickard and Philip Holman, Tom and Tim Darland, brothers of the bride, were acolytes. Mrs. L. A. Dupray and Mrs. Harold Evans, aunts of the bride, had decorated the church with white and lavender gladioli blossoms, and they also supervised the reception decorations of pink roses and gladioli. Miss Mary Robinson was organist. About 200 guests attended the garden reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Andrew Chincholo, aunt of the bride from Stockton, Calif., and Mrs. O. J. Halboth cut the wedding cake using an antique knife belonging to Mrs. Z.N. Agee. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Louis G. Lemire, aunt of the bride from Baker, Ore., and pouring punch were Harold Evans, uncle of the bride, Miss Peggy Schnack and Miss Kathleen Corey, cousin of the bride from Cottage Grove, Ore.

Mrs. Roger Sterton took charge of the guest book, and Miss Kathy Elberts the gift table. Hostesses were Mrs. R. J. Batzer, Mrs. Jack Van Dyck and Mrs. Val Alberts. For the wedding and reception, the bride's mother wore a frock of sheer turquoise cotton with fitted bodice white accessories and corsage of yellow rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an ice blue sheath dress with matching jacket, white accessories and corsage of gardenias.

Among the wedding guests were three grandmothers in the family, Mrs. Lloyd Murphy, Mrs. Evelina Lemire and Mrs. C. A. Winetrou. Also here was Jim Darland, brother of the bride, who came from Norfolk, Va., where he is on duty with the United States Navy. He was to have been in the wedding party, but failed to arrive in time for the rehearsal.

Other guests who came from a distance were Mrs. Donald E. Westby, aunt of the bride from Arlington, Va., Mrs. W. F. Newbury, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Walter C. Carson, Paradise, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Omer Lemire and Mr. and Mrs. George Lemire, all Richmond, Calif.; Andrew Chincholo and family, Stockton; Louis G. Lemire and family, Baker; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Corey and family, Cottage Grove, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Dace Maddox, Klamath Falls, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Sura and family, Tulelake, Calif.

A number of parties honored the bride and bridegroom before the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graff Jr. were hosts for a rehearsal dinner at their home Friday, with 18 guests attending.

Mrs. Roger Sterton and Mrs. C. A. Winetrou were hostesses for a dessert luncheon and shower which honored the bride-elect. Twenty-five guests were invited to the Winetrou home, Country club estates, for the event. Another party which feted the bride was given by Miss Anne Haviland and Miss Lynne Parsons. It was a shower and luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club for 12 guests.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, in California, the bride wearing a white linen dress with blue accessories and white orchid. They will live at 608 Whitman place. The bride attended St. Mary's High school, and the bridegroom Medford High school.

Newlyweds To Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Cotton plan to visit in Medford this week following their wedding July 11 in Denver, Colo. Mrs. Cotton is the former Miss Melinda Beall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Beall, 917 South Ivy street, Medford. Mr. Cotton is formerly of Denver.

The newlyweds plan to make their home in San Francisco.

The bride attended Barnard college, New York City, and is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley. She has been living in New York City where she was with CBS Television Research department, Public Relations Associates, Inc., and the Ford Foundation.

Mr. Cotton is a graduate of the University of Denver, Colo., and has been employed by Shell Oil company and Youngstown Steel company.

Couple Honored On Anniversary

Shady Cove - Mr. and Mrs. Ray Briggs were hosts at their home for a party which celebrated the 24th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Hopkins. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sheppard and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Littlefield, all of Shady Cove.

Lake Creek Garden Scene Of Harrison-Pech Rites

Lake Creek - Mr. and Mrs. Richard George Harrison are making their home in Colbert, Wash., following their wedding July 25 in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Pech, Lake Creek, parents of the bride, the former Miss Eunice LaVerne Pech.

The Rev. D. E. Millard, Eagle Point, officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites attended by 200 relatives and friends. Mrs. Stanley Wertz, Medford, accordionist, played the wedding march and Mr. and Mrs. Millard sang for the double ring ceremony.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Harrison, Spokane, Wash.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a light blue gown with white accessories and a pearl trimmed headdress of white velvet and nylon. She carried pink rosebuds on a white Bible.

Miss Lucille Pech attended her sister. She wore a pink lace and net frock over light green taffeta. Miss Shirley Welch was bridesmaid. Her pink lace and net frock was worn over lavender taffeta. Their corsages were of pink gladioli. Little Vivian Phillips, niece of the bride, was ring bearer. Her frock of white dotted Swiss had a lace top and her wristlet was of pink rosebuds.

Roland Pech, brother of the bride, served best man and seating the guests was Jack W. Pech, cousin of the bride.

The wedding was held on the lighted lawn at the Pech home. A floral arch was the background for the ceremony.

Mrs. Pech chose for her daughter's wedding a turquoise green frock with a corsage of gladioli.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Kermit DeL'ax, assisted by Mrs. Ray Atkins, Mrs. Harry Note, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Pech, mother of the bride. Mrs. Claus Charley and Mrs. Ernest Burrell presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Robert Gilky and Mrs. Arthur Burrell poured punch and Mrs. Gerald Hansen was in charge of the guest book. At the gift tables were Mrs. Wayne Wakefield, Medford; Miss Shirley Welch, and the Misses Lucille and Beverly Pech, sisters of the bride.

The couple traveled along the Oregon coast on their wedding trip.

Mr. Harrison attended Spokane, Wash., schools and served six years in the U. S. Navy. He is employed by the Pohl Spring Works of Spokane as a blacksmith. The bride attended Lake Creek schools and was graduated from Eagle Point High school. She has been employed at Gonzaga university, Spokane, for the past five years.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. Donald Young and daughter, Linda, Oakland, Calif., aunt and cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Stanley Morgan, Phoenix, Ariz., cousin of the bride.

Mirrors

for every use

SELBY GLASS CO.

303 N. Bartlett SP 3-3645

Don't wait for rain...

Every coat in this collection is water repellent for rainy days... the perfect weight for nippy days... irresistibly styled... cleverly tailored... fully lined.

- Jerseys
- Poplins
- Corduroys
- Bulky Knits
- Chesterfields
- Balzacans
- Boxy Styles
- Bright Colors
- Subdued Tones
- Novel Prints
- New Plaids

A style and price to fit every budget. $19.98 and up

Rath's
MEDFORD'S FASHION CENTER
214 E. Main
SP 2-7168

Open Mondays 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Use your Charge Account... or Our Budget Plan... Up to Six Months to Pay.

SHOP IN AIR CONDITIONED COMFORT

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Graff III and their large wedding party are shown here in an informal pose on the steps of Sacred Heart Catholic church following the marriage ceremony and nuptial mass

July 23. The bride is the former Ann Marie Darland. Mr. Graff and his bride are making their home at 608 Whitman place in Medford. (Landis photo)

Anniversary Party Given For Couple

Central Point - Mr. and Mrs. Luther Blake, Route 1, box 3198, Central Point, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary July 24 at a dinner given by one of their daughters, Mrs. Lee Couch, Gold Hill.

Mrs. Couch cut and served the tiered anniversary cake and Mrs. Eugene King presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Luther Gann poured coffee and Mrs. Louis Springman was at the gift table.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake were married July 25, 1935, in Mensa, Ark. They have six children, Mrs. Couch; Cecil Blake, Omaha, Neb.; Miss Inez Blake, Miss Leona Blake, Gene Blake and Dwayne Blake. The couple has three grandchildren.

Among the guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Blake and family, Phoenix; the Rev. and Mrs. Lyman Stiles, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Abel, Mr. Springman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendrickson, Mr. King and Jimmy, Waymon, and Johnny Stanfield, all Gold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gann, Luther Gann and family, and Mrs. Opal Ross, Central Point.

Among the guests at the wedding of Miss Ann Marie Darland to Walter A. Graff III were three grandmothers of the couple. Pictured during the garden reception, held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Darland, are (left to right)

Mrs. Lloyd Murphy and Mrs. Evelina Lemire, grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. C. A. Winetrou, grandmother of the bridegroom. Posing with the three women is little Barbara Darland, who was flower girl for her sister's wedding. (Landis photo)

Information Meeting Set For Students and Parents

Students who will enter Oregon State college this fall and their parents and friends have been invited to attend an orientation and information meeting at the home of Karen Culbertson, 2615 Hillcrest road, Thursday, August 4, at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting is being arranged by Miss Culbertson, sophomore in business and technology at OSC, who is in charge of the student group sponsoring the affair.

Other students from throughout this area who are interested in the offerings of OSC together with their parents are also welcome, according to Miss Culbertson. Alumni and other friends of the college also are invited. This is one of a series of similar meetings being held in many sections of Oregon during August at which college officials will meet with students and their parents.

Main speaker at the information session will be Dr. Dan W. Poling, dean of men. Accompanying him will be Robert Knoll, alumni manager.

Discussions will center around the orientation program for new students, housing, academic requirements, fields of study, campus activities, and present and future

Family Arrives

Guests in the valley are Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Ousterhout and six children, Nancy, Julia, David, Glenn, Polly and Lloyd, of Silver Spring, Md. They are visiting Dr. Ousterhout's father, G. E. Ousterhout, Dutton road, and other relatives.

Relatives and friends of the visitors are planning a picnic in their honor. It will be held this evening in Hawthorne park, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cook, Medford are heading the committee.

Dr. Ousterhout is a research nutritionist for the U.S. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries. He and his family are en route to Davis, Calif., where a meeting of poultry scientists is to be held on the campus of the University of California. Dr. Ousterhout will give a paper during the sessions.

Family Vacations

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gates, 1555 Webster street, Ashland, spent a week's vacation at Lake Shasta recently where they went water skiing, swimming, and boating. With the couple were their two daughters, Debra, 7, who learned to water ski during the vacation, and Donna, 5.

programs of the college. A question-and-answer period about the college will be a highlight.

Prospect Club To Hold Show

Prospect - The third annual flower show sponsored by Prospect Garden club will be held Friday, August 26, at the Prospect community hall.

Mrs. Everett Shafer, general chairman, has announced that the show this year will include a section for vegetables and a horticulture division.

Committees include Mrs. Earl Millard, Mrs. Calvin Sargent and Mrs. Shafer, schedule; Mrs. Richard Lowery, staging; Mrs. R. L. Conger and Mrs. R. Bean, entries and arrangements; Mrs. Millard and Mrs. Lowery, placement; Mrs. Bean and Mrs. Barr, farmers market; Mrs. John Eastin and Mrs. Halvor Garden, silver tea; Mrs. Garden, publicity; Mrs. Conger, guest book.

Materies Return

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Materie, 213 Girard avenue, returned last Sunday from a two week vacation trip in southern California and the Bay area.

The couple, accompanied by their daughter, Nancy, visited Disneyland and did other sight-seeing before traveling to Carmel and on to San Francisco where they remained a week before returning to Medford.

Forgeys Return After Stay Here

Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Forgey, Vancouver, Wash., arrived in the city Tuesday and were guests of Mrs. Forgey's sister, Mrs. Karl J. Knutson, and her father, W. R. Bullock, 615 North Columbus avenue.

Mr. Forgey is chaplain for the American Legion in Vancouver, and also a deputy sheriff for Clark county, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Forgey came from San Leandro, Calif., where they visited in the home of Mrs. Forgey's brother, the Rev. Ralph D. Bullock, and with a sister, Mrs. Frank De Pont, Soledad, Calif.

The Forgey's daughter, Mrs. Virginia Harbert and daughters, Kristin and Melissa, Santa Barbara, were also guests there.

The Forgeys, who left Friday, formerly lived here.

ENGAGED!

pick your Gorham pattern STERLING well before your wedding

SINGLE TEASPOONS In Most Patterns about $5. Fed. Tax Included

LAWRENCE'S
YOUR FRIENDLY FAMILY STORE
specializing in Fine Silver, Diamonds and Watches
130 East Main Est. 1908