Double-Ring Service Weds Couple at Friends Church

Miss Beverly Joan Schrader, Modesto, Calif., became the bride of Phil Elwin Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Simmons, 392 Garfield street, in a ceremony held July 22 at Medford Friends church. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dallas L. Dorey, Modesto.

Pastor Clynton Crisman officiated at the double ring rites attended by 70 relatives and friends. Gold gladoli decorated the church and white bows and gladoli blossoms marked the pew ends.

Miss D'Ann Clark was soloist and Mrs. Crisman played the organ music for the 8 o'clock evening rites.

The bride wore a ballerina length frock of yellow silk styled on princess lines. It was fashioned with scoop neckline and the flared skirt had an inset band of yellow net which formed a bow near the hemline in back. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was held by a coronet of lilies of the valley and she carried a bouquet of white gladoli and stephanotis. Alfred Hooker, uncle of the bridegroom, gave her in marriage.

Miss Donna Johnson was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Simmons, Miss Elaine Johnson and Miss Barbara Walters. They wore silk frocks in shades of mocha, beige, pink and blue and carried nosegay bouquets of yellow and white flowers in gold cornucopias.

Flower girls were Paullette and Cynthia Simmons. They wore blue and apricot colored nylon organza frocks and carried white baskets filled with poppies.

Terry Simmons served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Othar Richey, and Jerry and David Gaines. Candelighters were Larry Johnson, Samuel Hughes and Sherman Simmons.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Simmons chose a two piece mauve colored lace dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was rosebuds.

Following the ceremony an outdoor reception was held at the Simmons home. Yellow roses and candles decorated the serving table for the event. Mrs. Alfred Hooker cut and served the wedding cake which she had decorated. She was assisted by Mrs. George Simmons. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Claire Johnson and Mrs. Richard Simmons poured coffee. Others assisting with the wedding and reception were Mrs. Charles Hughes, Mrs. R. B. Langston, Mrs. Millie Johnson, Mrs. Harold Hughes and Mrs. Claude Johnson.

The couple is at home on Vilas road, Medford, following a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a two piece black and white jersey dress. The bride attended schools in Chicago, Ill., and is employed by Myron Root company. Mr. Simmons is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed by Oregon Sawmill company.

Among the guests attending the wedding and reception were the grandmothers of the bridegroom, Mrs. Maude Simmons and Mrs. Millie Johnson.
