

GORDON, DYKES SWAPPED

Washington - (UP) - The Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers traded managers today in a move unprecedented in baseball history. Joe Gordon will take charge of the Tigers and Jimmy Dykes will assume control of the Indians Friday.

General Manager Frank Lane of Cleveland announced the transfer of managers at a morning press conference while having breakfast with Gordon in their Washington hotel room.

Although thousands of players have been exchanged between clubs during the 82-year history of organized baseball, this was the first case of a direct swap of major league managers.

"We haven't been getting suits we should have," Lane explained. "Neither has Detroit. Both clubs are having a heck of a time staying ahead of Washington. There are too many good players on both teams for them to be down where they are."

Both Gordon and Dykes will sign new contracts. Dykes' pact with Cleveland will run through the rest of this season only. However, Detroit will match Gordon's existing contract and sign him through the end of the 1961 season.

Coach Jo Jo White will be in charge of the Indians until Dykes arrives. Coach Billy Hitchcock will handle the Tigers until Friday.

SPORTS

PCL Play Featured By Good Chucking

By PETE COLEMAN
United Press International
There wasn't much hitting in the Sacramento-Spokane Pacific Coast League double header Tuesday night, but there was enough good pitching to last a week.

Omel Nelson zipped a two-hitter as the Indians took the opener, 7-6, and winning the nightcap, 6-4.

Bob Bethel, winning his 12th game against four losses, was standout at the plate for Spokane as well as on the mound. He drove in the Indians' only run with a fifth inning single.

George Freese and Howie Reed, one time Portland ball players, banded up on their old teammates as San Diego banked the Beavers.

Freese drove in four runs with a homer and a sacrifice fly while Reed, notching his second victory, kept Portland quiet at the plate by allowing only five hits. One of the Beaver runs came on Bill Wilson's solo homer.

There wasn't much hitting in the Sacramento-Spokane Pacific Coast League double header Tuesday night, but there was enough good pitching to last a week.

Omel Nelson zipped a two-hitter as the Indians took the opener, 7-6, and winning the nightcap, 6-4.

Bob Bethel, winning his 12th game against four losses, was standout at the plate for Spokane as well as on the mound. He drove in the Indians' only run with a fifth inning single.

George Freese and Howie Reed, one time Portland ball players, banded up on their old teammates as San Diego banked the Beavers.

Freese drove in four runs with a homer and a sacrifice fly while Reed, notching his second victory, kept Portland quiet at the plate by allowing only five hits. One of the Beaver runs came on Bill Wilson's solo homer.

1st Baptist Champion In Softball

First Baptist, titlist for the regular season, took the Medford Church Softball league playoff honors last night.

The Baptists tripped Latter Day Saints in the deciding game after blanking First Methodist 6 to 0 in a semi-final. LDS reached the finale with a 9 to 7 verdict over Phoenix Presbyterian.

Methodist took third in the playoff by edging the Phoenix team 10 to 9.

Baptist collected four of its runs in the first inning of the deciding on a double by Russ Carr, singles by Chuck Phillips, Ned Landers, Dick Phillips and Ron Brood and a groundout by Dean Godard. Carr, Landers and Clemans each had two hits for the victors and Brood had a pair for LDS.

Phillips, who pitched both Baptist wins, held the Methodists to three hits in the semi.

Boh Quinney homered for LDS against Phoenix.

Methodist took third in the playoff by edging the Phoenix team 10 to 9.

Baptist collected four of its runs in the first inning of the deciding on a double by Russ Carr, singles by Chuck Phillips, Ned Landers, Dick Phillips and Ron Brood and a groundout by Dean Godard. Carr, Landers and Clemans each had two hits for the victors and Brood had a pair for LDS.

Phillips, who pitched both Baptist wins, held the Methodists to three hits in the semi.

Boh Quinney homered for LDS against Phoenix.

Women's Golf

(Junior Division)
Roxie Lewis won the low gross honors with a score of 18 in last week's junior girls event. Low net prize went to Susan Benesh with an 8.

Girls not listed in the pairings which follow may, nevertheless, play on Friday. Starting time will be 9 a.m. unless otherwise noted. For further information call Mrs. E. W. Sicksel at SPing 2-6917, or Mrs. Abner Clark at SPing 3-3567.

AUGUST 3 PAIRINGS:
8 a.m.—Pam Monroe, Jill Christenson, Vicki Vorhies; scorer: Mrs. Bruce Stanley, 810 a.m.—Mariann Raapke, Patti Clark, Debra Stanley; scorer: Mrs. Dorothy Monroe, 8:20 a.m.—Holly Thompson, Terry Tibbitt, Shannon McIntyre; scorer: Mrs. Jack Raapke, 8:30 a.m.—Roxie Lewis, Susan Benesh, Judy Johnson; scorer: Mrs. Robert McIntyre, 8:40 a.m.—Kathleen Bartels, Ginny Clark, Charlotte Whalen; scorer: Mrs. Hope Lewis, 8:50 a.m.—Roseanne Legas, Janet Price, Denise Vanduser; scorer: Mrs. M. L. Verheis, 9:00 a.m.—Shari Jewett, Michele Littlell, Coralie Sicksel; scorer: Mrs. Jo Coleman, 9:10 a.m.—Caron Schwahn, Catherine Collins, Lynn Butterfield; scorer: Mrs. Abner Clark, 9:20 a.m.—Sarah Collins, Laurie Legas, Mary Collins; scorer: Mrs. H. E. Littlell.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Barnes, Brauner Figure in SOC Football Plans

Ashland - A one-half month separates Sunday football games which begin Sept. 17 for the gridsters of Southern Oregon college. They tangle with Sacramento State college in the Shriner's Myrtle Bowl game in Coos Bay.

Now that the season is drawing near, Red Raider coach Al Akins is beginning to cogit his flock. One of the prime figures in the plans for a winning season this year is sophomore Al (Crater) Barnes from Crater High school of Central Point.

Barnes was the leading ground gainer for the Raiders last year as a freshman. He was chosen on the Oregon Collegiate conference all-star squad.

"The Horse" carried the ball 120 times and gained 562 yards for an average of 56.2 per game and 4.2 per carry. He was also the Raiders' leading scorer with six touchdowns for 36 points.

Tony Brauner, from Medford High, is another of the top flight returnees as a guard and punter. Brauner was converted from quarterback to guard last year and was named to the District 2 NAIA all-star team.

'Cat, Tiger Teams Vie

Medford Wildcats and Medford Tigers will meet Thursday for the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball Pee Wee league title.

Central Point Braves and Jacksonville will mix for third place.

Ken Eckel pitched an eight-strikeout, one-walk no-hitter yesterday as the Wildcats beat Central Point 5 to 0 in a playoff game. Medford Tigers, with Mike Hickey hurling his seventh straight victory, trimmed Jacksonville 13 to 5.

The Wildcats had a four-run fourth inning with Ron Hale singling in two of them. Three errors, a walk and two stolen bases figured in the frame. CP pitcher Lexie Hamilton yielded just four hits, fanned one and walked three.

Other hits for the Medford club were by Bob Dames, Steve Nelson and Donn Stroh.

Don Godley hit a bases-loaded homer for Jacksonville against the Tigers. He also doubled. Greg Dippel round-tripped for Medford with one man on. He, Steve Edmonds and Hickey each had two hits and Ed Markham tripled for the Tigers.

In a Monday makeup mix the Ashland Bear pee wees turned back the Ashland Cubs 8 to 2. The teams play again Thursday night.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

GP Rival Of Keglers Tonight

Grants Pass and Medford Bowling Lanes are rivals this evening in their next to last contest of the Rogue Valley Baseball league.

They tangle at 8 p.m. at Memorial stadium, White City.

Manager Pete Hale said he will have veteran Don Sanford and Crater High Bill Anhorn on hand for pitching service. Anhorn made his debut in the Medford team in the Crescent City mix two Sundays ago.

Other additions to the squad are Ed Allen, catcher from Crater, and Bob Quinney, all-around player from Medford high's state championship aggregation.

Grants Pass pitcher may be picked from among Derald Woolton, Don Jacobson, Les and Wayne Saffer and Roy Harris.

Maids Bill Basinettes

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids softball team starts a busy home stand on Thursday evening.

It has action three or four nights on the diamond at Memorial stadium, White City.

Tomorrow the opposition will be the Klamath Falls Basinettes with play ball time to be 8 p.m.

On Saturday night the Maids oppose Bremerton, Wash. in a double-bill beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday night action, to open at 7:30 p.m., will match Rogue Valley with the Redding, Calif., Comets. Redding comes north after reportedly successful play against strong California competition. A last report the Comets had won 15 games and lost six. Pitchers are Ruth Dolan and Esie Edwards.

The Comets meet the McCulloch Chaff Saw team at Eugene on Saturday.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Wreck Kills Gutowski

Camp Pendleton Marine Base, Calif. - A speeding car-careening down the wrong side of the road was blamed today for the death of Bob Gutowski, the slender giant among pole vaulters still credited officially with a world's record.

The death of the Marine first lieutenant cast a shadow over preparations of the U. S. Olympic team for competition in Rome, although Gutowski would not have been able to vault had he lived. Injuries and duties in the Marines slowed the brilliant vaulter so he did not qualify this year, after representing the nation in 1956.

Gutowski's official outdoor mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches was set April 27, 1957. It was bettered last month, unofficially by Don Bragg by a single inch.

Gutowski, 25, who formerly competed for Occidental college, was on his way home from his assignment as a supply officer for the 7th Marines when the accident occurred late Tuesday on the sprawling base here. The accident also claimed the life of one of two Marines riding in the other auto.

Gutowski was en route to his newly purchased home in Carlsbad, about 10 miles south of the base.

Identity of the second victim was not immediately disclosed.

Medford's Nat Team Slated Dual

Medford's municipal swim team, recently returned from the 32nd annual Spokane swimming and diving open meet in Spokane, Wash., will travel to Grants Pass Friday for a dual swim meet with the Grants Pass swimming team.

The Medford team, which is in only its first year of competition, captured one first, two seconds, three thirds, six fourths and one fifth in the 41 events at the Spokane meet.

Sixteen-year-old Linda Hess captured the first place in the junior women's 100 meter freestyle.

One second place was captured by Ted Lyons, son of team coach Ken Lyons, in the junior men's