

Suggestions Given For Pupils Riding, Walking to School

More than 5 per cent of the 6,500 accidental deaths among school-age children in 1959 is attributed to accidents occurring while students are going to and from school.

Medford Police Chief Charles P. Champlin pointed this out and said a large number of these fatal accidents can be blamed on faulty bicycle-riding and pedestrian habits as well as just plain "carelessness."

In order that all Medford area students might make the many trips to and from school without death or injury during the coming school year, Chief Champlin has listed a number of rules and suggestions for both pedestrians and bicycle riders to follow.

For bicyclists they are:

1. Keep bicycles in good shape. It will be safer, and it will last longer.
2. Observe all traffic regulations, such as red and green lights, one-way streets and stop signs.
3. Keep to the right and ride in a straight line. Always ride single file.

4. Have white light on front and danger signal on rear for night riding.

5. Have satisfactory signalling device to warn of approach.

6. Give pedestrians the right of way. Avoid sidewalks. If sidewalks must be used then use extra care.

Look for Cars

7. Look out for cars pulling out into traffic and keep a sharp lookout for auto doors being opened suddenly.

8. Never hitch on other vehicles, stunt ride or race in traffic.

9. Never carry other riders nor any packages that obstruct vision or prevent proper control of the bicycle.

10. Be sure your brakes are operating efficiently and keep your bicycle in perfect running condition.

11. Slow down at all street intersections and look to the right and left before crossing. Hand signals.

12. Always use proper hand signals for turning and stopping.

For pedestrians the suggestions are:

1. When you are walking face oncoming traffic if the road or street has no sidewalk.

2. Do not run or play in streets or roads under any circumstance.

3. Do not run out from between parked vehicles into the street.

4. Always use crosswalks.

Obey Signals
5. Be sure to obey the "walk" and "wait" signal lights in downtown areas.

If these rules and suggestions are followed and school children are "alert" at all times, then many of the senseless and tragic accidents that occur while children are going to and from school, will be avoided, Champlin emphasized.

Champlin also asks for the cooperation of parents. He urges them to make sure that their children know good bicycle riding and pedestrian safety habits.

WATER REPELLENT
All your youngster's shoes can now be made water repellent easily and quickly at home. Next time you stock up on shoe polish, ask for a water repellent preparation.

Patterned or plain, continental or conservative... slacks will stride in to fall with something for everyone. There are big patterns and small patterns in bright fall colors.

SCHOOL BUSES
More than 100,000 school buses operate daily during school months in the United States, covering more than 2,500,000 miles and carrying 7,000 school children.

During the homework period, proper lighting is essential. Basic rule is to have good overall room lighting, plus a wall, study or table lamp to light the entire work surface.

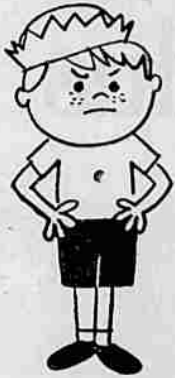

Slated to go to college this fall will be the classical tie; but with a fresher, livelier approach in narrower shapes; in prints, geometric patterns and conversational figures.

The youngster who leaves for school each day after having eaten a nourishing breakfast stands a better chance of becoming a good student than the one who skips or skimps on this meal.

A foreign language should be learned when a child is in grammar school. At that age, a language can be a game to children. Later he becomes self-conscious and loses his ease of imitation.

Home Movie Club Heads List of New Clubs in '60

Heading the high school student's "clubs-to-join" list this year is the home movie club - a new activity at many schools that is educational as well as fun.

More student shutterbugs are turning to more advanced photography. Many are replacing their snapshot cameras with home movie equipment and they are either forming new movie clubs or creating movie divisions within their present camera club.

This new concept of high school photography clubs stems from the development of movie cameras that are simple to operate. These make it easier for students to produce their own movies.

Valuable Service
New club members will find they are not only satisfying their own interests, but offer a valuable service to their school too. Home movies taken by students are invaluable as visual aids for the classroom and offer the student an opportunity to learn by doing.

Students can film everything from a botanical garden for a biology class to activities in city hall for the civics course.

Art, music and geography subjects can also be presented on film in an interesting fashion.

With slow motion control in most cameras, the boys can film sports events. Later, when the players view the movies, they can determine how to improve their game.

The girls may want to film a fashion show of sewing class designs. And, the members can film important school ceremonies to show at future class get-togethers for a lasting record.
