Detroit, Cleveland Fire Up Following Managerial Trade

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

It never fails—the manager and suddenly the ball club gets all fired up, too. Only trouble is that the flame generally dies out after a day or two, but at least the Detroit Tigers and Cleveland Indians were happy to discover the spark was still there Wednesday night.

With their dismissed manager, Jimmy Dykes, watching from the stands and wondering why on earth they couldn't do the same thing for him, the suddenly-aroused Tigers snapped a four-game losing streak by crushing the first-place Yankees, 12-2.

It was pretty much the same story with the Indians. First they all shook hands with ex-manager Joe Gordon and wished him luck in his new job with Detroit, then they went out and walloped Washington, 7-4, behind the six-hit pitching of Jim (Mudcat) Grant.

Talking To Himself
The Tigers really had Dykes talking to himself. Before he got the axe with Detroit Wednesday—and swapped jobs with Gordon at Cleveland—the Tigers had scored a total of only six runs for him in their last three games. But with coach Billy Hitchcock in charge Wednesday night, they made it all up to Dykes by pounding four Yankee pitchers for 13 hits.

Norm Cash drove in three runs with a homer and a single to pace the Tiger assault and Hank Aguirre, who pitched a perfect game for 5 1/3 innings but departed after his arm stiffened in the sixth, was credited with the win.

Grant took Washington as easily as he usually does. He had won 14 in a row from the Senators before they finally beat him for the first time on July 17. Ken Aspromonte drove in three runs with a homer and a double for the Indians, who scored three unearned runs on Billy Connel's solo's two errors in the seventh.

America's Olympic hopes in the freestyle were dimmed when ailing Jeff Ferrell, stricken with appendicitis last week, missed qualifying for the Olympic team by one-tenth of a second in the 100-meter freestyle final.

It was a bitter disappointment for Ferrell, who holds the American record in the 100 and 200-yard freestyle. The trials will conclude Friday with nine final events.

BEAVERTON WINS
Bend, Ore.—Beaverton won from Bend, 8-2, in their best-of-three semifinals series in the state junior Legion baseball playoffs Wednesday night.

Oswego—Oswego—John Hedlund carded a hole in one on the 165-yard fourth hole at the Oswego Lake Country club Wednesday with a six iron. Playing in the foursome with Hedlund when he fired the ace were Don and Doug Ragan and Scott Smith.

scored a 4-2 nightcap victory after the Reds won the opener, 7-3.

Gene Woodling's 11th inning triple, scoring Bill Klaus, gave the Orioles their victory over the White Sox after Baltimore tied the score with two runs in the ninth off Gerry Staley. Ted Kluszewski, Sherm Lollar and Gene Freese each hit home runs.

Rookie West Stock gained his second victory in four days.

Boyer Paces Cards
Ken Boyer was the big gun for the Cards in their triumph over the Braves. He led an 18-hit assault with three hits, including his 23rd homer, to offset homers by Ed Mathews, Ed Crandall and Joe Adcock.

Stan Musial also homered for the Cards, Bob Grim was the winner and Joey Jay the loser.

Southpaw Johnny Podres gained his ninth victory for the Dodgers with a five-hitter over the Pirates, who still lead the NL by three games despite the defeat. Wally Moon's two-run homer in the

Phil's Beat SF Giants Third Time

Philadelphia—(UPI)—Sam (Broke Arm) Jones takes the mound tonight in an effort to salvage something of the Giants' four-game series with the Philadelphia Phillies and get San Francisco back on the victory trail.

The Giants bowed to the Phils for the third straight time, 6-5, Wednesday night. Tom Sheehan's up-and-down crew frustratingly rallied for five runs in the eighth to go ahead, 5-4. But it went for naught when pinchhitter Johnny Callison bombed one of reliever Billy Loes' deliveries over the fence in the ninth with one aboard.

Jones, who hurled a masterpiece two-hit 6-2 triumph over Cincinnati with a broken finger on his glove hand Sunday, seeks his 14th victory against 10 losses. He'll face another big right hander, Gene Conley (7-7).

Orleans Beat Chicago
The Orioles ran their winning streak to five games with an 11-inning 6-5 decision over the White Sox and climbed to within two games of the league-leading Yankees, while a scheduled twin-bill between the Red Sox and A's was rained out.

In the National League, the spurring Cardinals won their sixth in a row and moved to within a half game of second place by beating the Braves, 13-8; the Dodgers downed the first-place Pirates, 3-1, in a game limited to seven innings by rain; the Phillies made it three straight over the Giants, 6-5, and the Cubs run average. He was in second place going into the game with a 2-48.

Elsewhere, pace-setting Spokane stretched its lead to four games with a 3-1 victory over Sacramento. Salt Lake eased by Vancouver, 8-6, and San Diego dumped Portland, 6-3.

Sacks Loaded
Palica had only one trouble spot while defeating Tacoma. The Giants loaded the sacks in the sixth with two away but the veteran chucker got Danny O'Connell to line out and end the threat.

The Rainiers scored their runs one at a time in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings, the last tally coming on Rudy Regalado's home run.

Jim Baumer had a big night at the dish as Salt Lake downed Portland.

The Bear outfielder rapped out a homer, a triple and a single, drove in one run and scored another. Vancouver made it close with a heavy scoring attack in the late innings but Salt Lake's Don Rowe came in to pitch two innings of one-hit relief ball to save the win.

Golf Marathon Mark Claimed
Portland—(UPI)—Ernie Elliott, 18, shot 257 holes of golf in three minutes less than 24 hours Tuesday at Riverside Golf club here for a new world's record marathon.

Elliott toured the links in 1488 strokes for an average of 5.78 swings per hole. His best round was an 87, his worst a 123 on the next to last 18.

The young golfer played the last eight hours without shoes, stepped on a bee, was run over by a scooter and created a new water hazard when he drove a ball into the club swimming pool.

Liston-Machen Bout Planned
Chicago—(UPI)—A heavyweight bout between Sonny Liston and Eddie Machen was in the making today.

The National Boxing enterprises announced Wednesday night it had reached an agreement for a Liston-Machen bout. The fight would take place in Seattle sometime in September.

third was enough to send Bob Friend down to his eighth defeat against 11 victories.

Johnny Callison's pinch homer with one on in the ninth off Billy Loes gave the Phils their victory after the Giants had gone ahead, 5-4, with a five-run rally in the eighth. Rookie Art Mahaffey had blanked the Giants until the eighth when he was routed. Dick Farrell then came in for his third straight successful relief effort against the Giants and earned his ninth win against two losses.

The Cubs won their nightcap with the Reds when

Harris, Nelson Show Up Well In State Drill
Portland—(UPI)—Mei Renfro was the offensive standout here Wednesday afternoon as the Metro all-star squad held its first scrimmage in preparation for the annual Shriner's hospital game Aug. 13 in Multnomah stadium.

Renfro, a graduate of Jefferson high school in Portland, scored touchdowns on 70 and 20 yard gallops.

A sore leg forced Milwaukee halfback Jay Beck from the scrimmage. He is expected to return to practice within two days.

The State all-stars divided their attention between offense and defense in Wednesday's two practice sessions. Coach Fred Spiegelberg said Marv Harris of Marshfield and Rick Nelson of Salem "looked pretty good" in the line backing practice.

The Staters also ran through their entire offense—ground and aerial. Halfbacks Bill White of Roseburg and Ken Sawyer of Salem showed up well in the Staters practice.
