

S-W County Softball Champ, Nips Lithia Lumbermen 3-2

S and W Floor Covering of Medford last night captured the Jackson County Softball association championship for 1960. The Floor Covers tipped Lithia Lumber of Ashland 3 to 2 in league playoff finals at the Medford High school stadium. Butte Falls drubbed the Central Point Cheney Studs 13 to 6 for third place. S and W overcame a 1-2 deficit with two runs in the top of the fourth inning then held on over 3 1/2 tense remaining frames. Dale Thompson with three safeties and Jim House and Dick Meister with two each led a 10-hit attack and Floor team pitcher

Willie Barnum held Lithia to five safe blows. Jerry Montgomery socked three of the Lumbermen hits. A seven-run fourth stanza was the big element in the Butte Falls win. Art Ellis had a homer and two singles and Hank Tygart a double and two singles for BF and Darwin Moore and Bill Irwin two hits each. Irwin yielded only two hits to Cheney, both to Doug Graham. One was a home run. S and W, which was runner-up to Lithia after completion of the regular league schedule, gained the first center in the championship game in the first inning on hits by Fuz McGay, Thompson and Lou Schell and an error. The Lumber club put over both its tabulation in the second panel on singles by Montgomery, Tim Dugan and George Zickeloose, a walk, a fielder's option and an error. The Floor Covers tied up when House and Meister singled and House crossed home on a bad throw-in from the outfield. Then Chuck Marrs singled home Meister for what proved to be the winning score. Barnum, S and W skipper and Jackson county's "Mr. Softball," walked two and fanned two in pitching the titular victory. Montgomery of Lithia registered four strikeouts and walked two. The Butte Falls tally splurge in the fourth against the Studs was on four errors, three walks, a fielder's option, a hit batter, Tygart's double and Art Ellis's and Irwin's singles. Irwin walked six and fanned seven. Lithia Lumber ended the regular twice round league play slate with a 13-1 record to S and W's 10-4. Butte Falls and Cheney Studs had 9-6 records in finishing among the top four. In playoff semifinals on Wednesday, S and W beat Cheney and Lithia won from Butte Falls.

Dairy Maids Defeat KF; Face Redding on Sunday

Memorial Stadium, White City - Rogue Valley Dairy Maids edged Klamath Falls Basinettes 3 to 2 last night in a non-league women's softball game here. The Maids collected their runs in the first two innings and held on from there. Next contention for the Dairy Maids will be on Sunday evening when they are hostesses at this Veterans Administration domiciliary park to the Redding, Calif., Comets. The encounter is set for 7 p.m. The Maids were slated against Bremerton, Wash., here Saturday night but Bremerton has cancelled the doublebill. One of the reasons was the desire to participate in the Washington state tourney this week end. Redding's team, like the Dairy Maids, has faced some good competition this season. The Comets have played Reno, Nev., Travis Air Force base and Roseville, Sacramento, Oakland, Durham and Oregon, Calif. Another of their rivals has been the Fresno, Calif., Rockettes.

At last report the Comets had a 15-6 record against this competition. Their coach is Mel Smith, who went to Redding from Eugene and formerly worked for the Democrat-Herald at Albany. Since Bremerton is not coming this week, the Maids Northwest Women's Major league season has been completed. Rogue Valley last night got two runs in the opening canto on a walk, a two-base error and a passed ball. In the second panel for one marker Shirley Hanson got a hit and Bernice Bigham sacrificed. There was a walk and a fielder's choice swat by Jan Bate-man. Klamath put a run over in the fourth inning on hits by Shirley Anderson and Ruth Hagelstein and a base on balls. In the sixth a walk, a fielder's option and Terry Wicklein's triple got the counter. Ellen Callaghan had two hits for the Maids.

More Nat Records Foreseen Tonight

By GARY P. GATES Detroit -UPI- Coaches and national swimming experts, in exuberant spirits after Thursday's world record breaking performances by Mike Troy and Lynn Burke, predicted today that a few more records will be washed off the boards before the four-day Olympic Swimming and Diving trials end tonight. The nation's classiest swimmers and divers will be out to fill the 24 remaining vacancies on the U.S. Olympic team as the trials draw to a flourishing close with finals in nine events. Three of the finals are scheduled for late in the afternoon and the other six are on tap for tonight. Miss Burke, 17-year-old back-stroke artist from Santa Clara, Calif., will get a chance to crack the world mark she set in Thursday's preliminaries when she takes the starting position in the women's 100-meter backstroke final. She broke her own world record by racing through a chilling rainstorm in 1:10.0 Thursday, one 10th of a second better than her previous record which was set at the National AAU meet last month.

Two other strong candidates for record smashing efforts are Alan Somers, the Indiana University long distance specialist who led all qualifiers Thursday in the 1,500 meter freestyle, and Chris van Saltza, who finished far in front in the 400-meter freestyle preliminaries. The sturdy blonde from Santa Clara, Calif., has already set an American record here in the 100-meter freestyle. KF Legion Victor 3-2 United Press International Beaverton gained the finals of the Oregon State American Legion baseball playoffs by defeating Bend, 13-11, in the second game of a best of three semi-final series at Bend Thursday night. The Beavers won the first contest by an 8-2 score. Klamath Falls sent its semifinal best of three series with David Douglas into the third game with a 3-2 win at Klamath Falls. The Scots won the opening contest, 1-0. Douglas and the Pelicans meet tonight at the Douglas field.

Parent Club Hurts Dreams of Tacoma

By PETE COLEMAN United Press International When Red Davis, manager of the Pacific Coast League's Tacoma Giants got out of bed this morning, his first thought must have been, "somebody up there doesn't like me." Take last Monday. The Giants had won five in a row and were only two and one-half games out of first place. Then San Francisco, the parent club of the National league blurred the pennant dreams by calling up Willie McCovey, a hard hitting first baseman, and Sherman (Roadblock) Jones, an ace reliever who had won 10 without a loss. The best the Giants have done since then is split a four-game series with the Seattle Rainiers, a team they had previously handled easily. The final game of the set was played Thursday night and won by Tacoma, 5-2, but it was a costly victory. Monzant Injured Starter - reliever Ramon Monzant, owner of a 4-3 record and a 3.48 earned run average, was injured sliding into second base during a Tacoma rally and was lost to the team indefinitely. First reports said he had a dislocated ankle. In other activity, Spokane held on to its four game lead with a 5-3 win over Sacramento, Salt Lake edged Vancouver, 3-2, and San Diego bombed Portland, 11-0. The San Diego Padres got a dandy five-hitter from Gary Peters in ripping Portland. Peters was never in trouble as he racked up his seventh win. Valmy Thomas and Stan Johnson were the Padre stars at the plate, each driving in a pair of runs.
