

Flaming Wreckage Fatal To Girl, 20

Portland — (UPI) — Susan Holman, 20, Portland, was killed in a flaming one-car accident on Mount Scott here early today.

The girls died when the car in which she was riding left the roadway, turned over, pinned her and burned. The body of the victim was badly burned.

Driver of the car, Richard Frank Soles, 20, Portland, was not hurt.

An autopsy was ordered to determine whether Miss Holman died from burns or other injuries.

Concession Raises Funds for FFA

Gold Hill — Donald Denning, president of Crater FFA chapter, and Bob Marshall are operating a new cone concession at the Sears Shopping center in Medford.

About 100 members of the chapter constructed the stand. Denning introduced the idea as a way to raise funds for chapter projects.

The two boys will operate the stand seven days a week until school starts in September. The stand is open from 9 a.m. until 7 p.m., except Monday and Fridays when it remains open until 9:30 p.m.

Alan Bray, radio chairman, and five other members of the chapter, Willie Debreck, Dennis Cornutt, Gary Evans, Dennis Samples and Delmer Smith, recently taped four programs for a local radio station.

Crater FFA also has slated livestock and dairy judging practice. The boys will compete in the Jackson and Josephine County 4-H FFA fairs scheduled for this month. The four boys scoring the most points at the practice meetings and fairs will make the trip to the Oregon State fair in Salem during September.

OBITUARIES

LEON GILBERT SHARYON
 As a hand — Leon Gilbert Sharyon, 31 Gresham st., Ashland, died Wednesday night at the local hospital. Born in Appleton, Minn., he was orphaned at the age of two and grew up in Little Falls, Minn. Blunt Words Bring Man of the Week To Moise Tshombe

By WILLIAM J. FOX
 United Press International
 The Man of the Week: Premier Moise Tshombe of the Congo's Katanga province.

The Place: Elisabethville.
 The Quote: "I don't want United Nations troops in my country. U.N. troops will have to fight their way into the Katanga."

In those blunt words, Tshombe set the stage for the probable denouement of the tangled drama that been the Republic of Congo's lot in little more than a month of independence.

In the chaos that marked the weeks since Belgium gave the Congo its freedom on July 1, Tshombe has sought to break away completely from the infant nation and set up his own state.

Aid From Belgium
 When the native Congolese army mutinied early in July and indulged itself in an orgy of rape, looting and violence that sent the white populace fleeing in terror, Tshombe invited Belgian troops to preserve order and proclaimed Katanga's secession from the new republic.

The Belgians moved in swiftly all over the Congo, and intervention that brought bitter protests from Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba and an appeal for help to the United Nations.

The U.N. Security Council authorized Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to send an international force to restore order, with the first troops arriving by the middle of July and a multi-national army of
