Presbyterian Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Jeannine Olson, Bonners Ferry, Idaho, became the bride of Norman L. Hooper, in a ceremony held July 23 at First Presbyterian church. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the four o'clock afternoon rites attended by 100 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Olson, Bonners Ferry, who traveled here for the wedding. Mr. Hooper is a son of Mrs. John Esp, 889 Olympic avenue, and V. Ray Hooper, Medford.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the double ring wedding and pink bows marked the pew ends. The Rev. G. Robert Jacks sang two selections from the balcony and was accompanied by Mrs. Richard Sheldon.

The bride wore a white peau de soie gown with Chantilly lace bodice and inverted pleats at the waist flared into a full skirt with chapel train. Lace applique and seed pearls accented the skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink-lavender orchids and stephanotis. Mr. Olson gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Ann Martin, Ashland, Oregon Technical Institute school friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Darlene Harbison, Spokane, Wash., cousin of the bride, and Miss Lauralee Olson, Spokane, niece of the bride. They wore pink organza frocks with cummerbunds and white lace over pink bodices. Miss Martin carried shocking pink gladioli and the bridesmaids' bouquets were of pink gladioli.

Roger Hooper served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Jack L. Esp, another brother, and Ronald Nelson, Eagle Point. Junior ushers and candlelighters were Gregory Esp, brother of the bridegroom, and Grant Mayfield, nephew of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Olson wore a mauve rose lace frock with bone lustre accessories and straw hat. Mrs. Esp chose a sapphire blue lace sheath

Schools Set For Officers

The annual schools of instruction for all new officers and program planners of Jackson County Home Extension units will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, at Hedrick Junior High school.

Registration and a coffee hour will begin at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Leona C. Sheehan, Jackson County Home Extension agent and members of the Jackson County Advisory committee will conduct the various classes.

The instruction schools are held to help new officers plan their work for the coming year. The projects for the coming year will also be discussed.

Last Tuesday Mrs. Sheehan and Mrs. Lucian Van Gordon and Mrs. Glen Allen of the county advisory committee attended a meeting in Grants Pass with committee members from Josephine and Klamath counties to plan for the annual district festival. It will be held in Grants Pass September 14.

Griffin Creek Home Extension unit has planned a picnic for Wednesday, August

10 at TouVelle State park from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Those planning to attend are to bring their own table service and a covered dish. Children of the members are welcome. The unit will furnish butter, rolls, coffee and pie.

A new appliance for the barbecue set operates on electricity instead of charcoal, is smokeless, but can be used either indoors or out. Made of chrome plated steel, it has an aluminum drip pan and removable rack. It weighs eight pounds, and operates on AC or DC current.
