Miss Geraldine Bohl Wed To Lance Corporal Conway

A ceremony held at First Church of the Nazarene July 16 wedded Miss Geraldine Bohl to Lance Cpl. Larry Conway of the United States Marine corps. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Grace Bohl, 716 Welch street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Duard Conway, 2395 Tulane avenue, Central Point.

The Rev. Harold Sanner officiated for the double-ring rite, held at eight o'clock in the evening. About 150 guests were present. The bride has attended First Church of the Nazarene since childhood.

Mrs. Lana Stiles was at the church organ and Robert Hansen played a clarinet solo and also sang.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of lace and tulle over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with long sleeves of Alencon lace. Sabrina neckline embroidered with iridescent sequins and the full skirt was made with alternating panels of lace and tulle with lace and sequin appliques on the tulle panels. She carried a spray of carnations.

Mrs. Leon Downing, Pasadena, Calif., was honor attendant for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Lou and Miss Janet Bohl, sisters of the bride and Miss Denise Conway, sister of the bridegroom. All wore frocks of sheer nylon floral print in aquamarine tones with closely fitted bodices, three-quarter length sleeves, full ballerina-length skirts and satin belts of aquamarine color. They carried baskets of gladioli.

Judy Ballestrasse, cousin of the bride from Seattle, Wash., was flower girl.

Marine Pfc. Richard Conway, Camp Pendleton, Calif., was best man for his brother and ushers were Lance Cpl. Arthur Warren, Camp Pendleton, Philip Reeves and Jerry Anderson, both Medford.

The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli, and candelabra held tapers which were lighted by Misses Sue Conway and Brenda Scarborough. They wore lavender satins in frocks with full skirts and puffed sleeves.

The reception for 100 guests was held in the church annex. Mrs. Robert Hansen served the wedding cake and Mrs. A. Larson, the punch. Miss Sylvia Yell opened the gifts and Miss Hazel Rawlings took charge of the guest book.

Lance Cpl. Conway and his bride are making their home in San Clemente, Calif., where he is on duty with the Marine corps.

College Students Married In Lutheran Church Rites

Ashland - Two students, both active in student body government at Southern Oregon college, were married in a ceremony July 2 at the Zion Lutheran church, Klamath Falls. The Rev. Norbert Dey officiated at the eight o'clock double ring rites.

The bride is the former Miss Janet Meyner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer, Klamath Falls. She is student body secretary and Robes member.

The bridegroom, Jack Henry, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henry, also Klamath Falls. He has served on the student council at the college.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the wedding attended by 125 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin frock in ballerina length styled with round neckline, short sleeves and full skirt. Her Irish lace veil fell to her skirt hemline and she carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Miss Lois Robertson was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Eileen Meyer, sister of the bride, both Klamath Falls, and Miss Carolyn Brantley, Medford. They wore frocks in shades of pink taffeta in ballerina length and carried cascade bouquets of pink and white Shasta daisies. Their single strands of pearls were gifts from the bride.

Ralph Hensley, Ashland, served as best man. Seating the guests were William Wiggs, Ashland, and Walter Henry, Klamath Falls, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church parlors. The couple traveled to Redding, Calif., on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a pink embroidered eyelet sheath frock with black patent leather accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

The newlyweds are making their home at 220 Fourth street, Ashland. The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Klamath Union high school and are employed by the state board of higher education. The new Mrs. Henry will be a junior this fall majoring in elementary education. Mr. Henry will be a senior this fall at the college where he is majoring in secondary education. He is a member of Mugs, men's service organization.

Lycett-Hall Marriage Announced

Prospect - Miss Connie Fay Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jasper Hall, Prospect, became the bride of George Alden Lycett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lavar Davis, Prospect, in a ceremony July 15 at the Chapel in the Pines. The Rev. George L. Fitch officiated at the Nazarene rites.

More than 80 relatives and friends attended the 7 o'clock evening rites. Colored gladioli decorated the church. Miss Jill Hedgpath played the wedding music.

The bride wore a white ballerina length dress. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and white orchids. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Carole Fairley, Winston, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Donna Jean Ellis and Miss Vickie Lycett, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Fairley wore green chiffon, Miss Ellis was in blue chiffon and Miss Lycett's frock was pink lace. Their face veils were held by white apple blossoms.

Kern Grieves served as best man and seating the guests were Richard Betts and David Hall, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held on the lawn at the Prospect hotel. Mrs. G. A. Hubbard cut and served the wedding cake and the Misses Diane Ellis and Sue Stewart poured the punch and coffee. Miss Sharon Owens was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to Salt Lake City, Utah, on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a brown suit with brown and white accessories.

The newlyweds both attended Prospect High school. Mr. Lycett is employed by the Red Blanket Lumber company.

Summer parties in the Rogue valley are often themed to the Hawaiian islands, and last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kane, Talent, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Betz were hosts for a luau at the Beta's home, 573 Clover lane. Pictured early in the evening as the first guests began to arrive are (left to right) Mrs. Harold Schmelzer, Mrs. Betz and Mrs. Kane.

Mrs. Paul Betz and Mrs. Richard Kane worked many hours preparing food for the Hawaiian luau which they and their husbands gave last Saturday at the former's home on Clover lane. Mrs. Gordon Germer, Phoenix and Mrs. H. N. Caster (standing) admired the beautiful and tempting array of food before serving began. The party was on the patio, which had been draped with fish netting and decorated with sea shells, float corks and balls.

For proper nourishment, these foods are daily essential: enriched and whole grain breads and cereals, fruits, vegetables, milk and meat, eggs or a meat substitute.

Medford Artist Winner Of Sweepstakes Award

Eugene Bennett, Medford, was sweepstakes winner in the 13th annual Southern Oregon Art Exhibit which opened Friday in Grants Pass.

His winning picture was an oil titled "Dusk." This is the fourth time that Mr. Bennett has received the sweepstakes award, having won it in the first annual exhibit in 1948, then in 1950 and again in 1959.

The judges, Dr. Gordon Gilkey, Oregon State college, Otto J. Wilda, Southern Oregon college, and Warren A. Wolf, Medford High school, also awarded him a first, an honorable mention in oils, and an honorable mention in sculpture.

Other Medford prize winners were Mrs. Jack Mitchell, who received second prize for her oil "The Veteran;" Robert Bosworth received a second prize for a watercolor "Symphony in Red" and honorable mention for watercolor "Branch Patterns;" and Miss Margaret Osenbrugg received an honorable mention for her watercolor "Ocean Shore."

In the junior division Vance Velly and Nancy Brown received first prizes for watercolor. Second prizes were awarded Carl Washburn and Nancy Brown. Honorable mention were awarded Salli Reule and Carol Olson.

A total of 291 entries by 93 artists made this the largest show which is sponsored by the Grants Pass Branch of the Association of University Women. Artists from all over southern Oregon exhibited work this year.

D. M. Staley, Eagle Point, won second prize on an oil entitled "Night Bird." Mrs. Ralph Hixon, Central Point, an honorable mention for an oil named "Under the Cherry" and Thomas Staley, Eagle Point, won second prize on his sculpture "Glyptic Faggot Number 16."
