Rainbow Girls Instituted

Jacksonville - Ceremonies held here Saturday, July 30, instituted a new assembly of the Order of Rainbow Girls, youth group sponsored by the Masonic lodge. Originally scheduled to be known as Acacia assembly, the group was instituted as Warren assembly since it is sponsored by Warren Masonic lodge, Jacksonville.

For the first time in Oregon, the official institution ceremonies preceded initiation for the 31 charter members. The ritual was opened by Gull Buffington, representing the worshipful master of Warren lodge. He was assisted by V. L. Armstrong, recorder; Fred M. Gardner, chaplain; Mrs. Gardner, marshal and Mrs. Irene McKinley, Portland, musician.

Mrs. Hazel Graham, Tillamook, supreme deputy of the order in Oregon, and Miss Joan Rose, Vale, grand worthy advisor in Oregon, were present and Mrs. Graham conducted the instituting ceremonies.

The Klamath Falls assembly, with Miss Kayleen Johnson presiding, took charge of the initiation. Introduced were Mrs. Margaret Kofoed, supreme deputy of Nevada; Mrs. W. P. Scarth, Silverton; Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Virginia Pearce, Portland, grand deputies in Oregon; Jens Hermann, Seaside, and Mrs. Helen Reightmeier, Portland, state executive committee; Miss Merrill Borchert, Portland, grand drill leader; Miss Janice Taylor, Portland, worthy advisor of Mt. Scott assembly; Mrs. Herman, worthy grand matron of the Oregon Order of Eastern Star; Morris Boughner, Medford, worthy grand patron; Mrs. Boughner, grand Electa; Mrs. Virginia Wright, Portland, associate grand conductress of the OES; Mrs. E. G. Randolph, Medford and Mrs. Wyles Berry, Shady Cove, grand representatives; Mrs. John Snook, Central Point, worthy matron of Nevita chapter, OES; Mrs. Larene McCallum, Manzanita chapter and E. G.

Hornbrook Woman Honored Guest at Family Gathering

Hornbrook - A family gathering on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wyatt on Sunrise avenue in Medford surprised and honored Mrs. Wyatt's mother, Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp. The occasion was Mrs. Bloomingcamp's birthday.

All of her children and their families were present, including her son, Charles, of Hornbrook, daughter, Mrs. Marge Snyder and children Victor and Karen of Medford, and another daughter, Mrs. M. F. Cavin and Mr. Cavin and daughter Janet of Hills.

The Leonard's older son, Jerry, was unable to attend. He is a student at Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls, and has a summer job in that city.

Guests of Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp on Thursday last week were her aunt, Mrs. Nettie Peters and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Day of Scotia, Humboldt county, Calif. Accompanying them were Mrs. Peters' sister, Mrs. Flora Tid Ball of the Los Angeles area, and Mrs. Lois Cummins of Etna, Calif.

Hockadays Hold Family Reunion

Happy Camp - The family of Mrs. Mabel Hockaday held a reunion at the Buckhorn Lodge in Happy Camp July 31.

The Hockaday family has lived many years in Happy Camp. They moved here from Etna and homesteaded property on Indian Creek, where they built their home in 1922. Five of their 13 children were born there. Filmore Hockaday, the father, was killed in an accident at his mine on South Fork of Indian Creek in 1936. Shortly after that Mrs. Hockaday sold the home and moved to Yreka with the younger children.

At the reunion 12 of the 13 children were present. There were also 24 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren in attendance. Sons and daughters present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hockaday and family, Happy Camp; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hockaday, Chico, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roberts Sr., Selad Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Alva Hockaday and children; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Spriggs and family, Happy Camp; Mr. and Mrs. Moe Davis, Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. Durey, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hockaday and family of Happy Camp; Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hockaday and family, Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hockaday and family, Kennewick, Wash.; and Mrs. Dorothy Daman, Buckeye; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hockaday and family, Hornbrook.

An easy to put-on and take-off boot for women is a soft touch in the closure department. Instead of hooks, buttons or zippers, the boot uses two tabs of brushed nylon fabric - hook tape - one on either outside flap. The tabs fasten at a touch to a disappearing center gusset.

Nancy and Mary Beth Housel are transferring from Pittsburg, Pa.

Mrs. C. A. Young was installed as mother advisor. On the advisory board are Mr. Buffington, chairman, Mrs. Carman Gleason, secretary, Mrs. Gertrude Winningham, Mrs. Hulda Thurman, Mrs. Rose Picard, Virgil Wilkes, Fred M. Gardner, Donald Shores, Donald Lue and Mr. Armstrong.

Miss Armstrong introduced her family and thanked the board for making it possible for her to serve as a worthy advisor, saying it was a wish fulfilled. Mrs. Graham presented the "Letters Temporary" to Mrs. Johnson and Miss Rose presented the "baby doll" to the new assembly on behalf of Sunrise assembly, Portland. Presentations were made to Warren assembly by many of those present with the Klamath Falls assembly presenting the Bible which was used during the ceremonies. Mr. Armstrong gave his daughter her own gavel as a present from her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Hall

Couple Married in Reno Now Living in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Hall are making their home at 14 South Orange street, Medford, following their wedding July 2 at the Federated Congregational Presbyterian church in Reno, Nevada. The bride is the former Miss Sandra Jane Van Horn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis F. Van Horn, Sparks, Nevada. Mr. Hall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hall, Roseburg.

The Rev. Felix A. Manley officiated at the 2 o'clock afternoon rites attended by 60 relatives and friends. White gladioli decorated the church for the double ring ceremony and white satin bows marked the pew ends.

The bride wore a waltz length gown of silk fashioned with scoop neckline accented with seed pearls. Her illusion veil was held by a pearl crown and she carried white orchids and stephanotis on a white prayer book. Mr. Van Horn gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Dorothy Richie attended the bride. She wore an orchid chiffon frock and carried a bouquet of carnations which matched her dress.

James Hall, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, and seating the guests were Jim Deller, Roseburg, and Jim Funston, Medford.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Twentieth Century club in Reno, Mrs. Van Horn chose a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Mrs.
