HONORARY SHRINE CAPTAIN — Young Zigurds Laizans, an out - patient at the Shriners' hospital in Portland and honorary captain of the state football team, talks things over with Medford gridders who will vie for State against Metro in the Shrine all-star game in Portland on Saturday night, Aug. 13. The ex-Black Tornado players are John Frohnmayer (33), Skip Bennett (25) and Lowell Dean (32).

Shrine Grid Stars Tangle on Saturday; Bennett Co-Caption

Portland —(UPI)— Metro and State squads ran through their entire offenses today as both all-star clubs finished their final day of intensive drills before Saturday night's 13th annual Shriners hospital all-star football game in Multnomah Stadium.

Kickoff time is 8:30 p.m.

Metro hopes received a jolt Thursday when head coach Tom DeSylvia announced that Milwaukee halfback Jay Beck will miss the game becnuse of a strained leg tendon failed to respond to treatment.

Beck had been spelling Mel Renfro at left halfback at the Metros' training camp at Lewis and Clark College. Beck's place has been taken by Leon Warren of Washington, who had been operating at fullback.

State hopes were bolstered by the return to action of South Salem tackle Woody Bennett. Bennett suffered a shoulder injury early in the week at the State training camp at Woodrow Wilson high school. It was earlier thought that Bennett would miss the contest.

In addition to shifting Warren from fullback to left halfback, the Metros also shifted Cleveland's Dennis Maloney from center to tackle.

Medford's Skip Bennett and Marshfield's Marv Harris are co-captains of the State team.

State coach Fred Spiegelberg of Medford said he hasn't planned any special defenses to "contain" the Metros' Mel Renfro. Spiegelberg said "We know we're going to have to give him some yards." The State mentor added: "There's no way to put a complete stop to a player of his ability. Our only hope is that we can keep him under reasonable control."

KF Heads In Legion Series 2-1

Klamath Falls —(UPI)— Righthander Marvin Edwards scattered eight hits here Thursday night to hurl a 10-0 victory over Beaverton in the third game of the State American Legion championship playoffs.

Edwards walked seven and struck out only one batter to give Klamath Falls a 2-1 edge in the best of five series.

Ed Cottrill went the distance for Beaverton, giving up 10 runs on nine hits while striking out five and walking seven.

Big hits of the game were triples by Bucky Wilson and Jim Bickers of Klamath Falls and a three-bagger by Beaverton's Bruce Blackman. Doubles were pounded out by Dave Sacks and Bruce Bicker of Klamath Falls and Gary Beck of Beaverton.

The fourth game of the series is scheduled for 8 o'clock tonight. A Klamath Falls victory tonight could clinch the state championship.

Warning Given Olympic Males

Rome —(UPI)— An eight-foot wire fence separates the women's and men's sections in the Olympic Village here.

Any male athlete caught in the women's enclosure without authorization will be immediately barred from the Olympics.

Any more questions?

LA Dodgers Slice Gap On Pirates

Cincinnati —(UPI)— The Los Angeles Dodgers have 50 games, roughly one-third of the season, left to make up the six that lie between them and the Pittsburgh Pirates.

They start working on that little program tonight, banking on the long right arm of Don Drysdale (10-11), who will pitch against Cincinnati's Jay Hook (8-12) at Crosley Field.

Manager Walter Alston's team made up one game Thursday night on the league-leading Bucs by beating the Reds, 3-0, while Pittsburgh barely lost to St. Louis in 12 innings, 3-2.

Koufax At Best

Sandy Koufax pitched one of the best games of the season for the Dodgers, going the full nine innings and holding Vada Pinson, Ed Bailey and company to just two hits, both singles, and one base on balls. His control, not his best attribute, was near perfect.

His specialty, strikeouts, also was in evidence. Thirteen Reds went out by that route.

Sandy's record is now 5-8, nothing to write home to Brooklyn about, but the handsome, hard-throwing bachelor has won his last four straight.

The game was played almost as if the players were participating in a gentlemanly game of cricket on some green lawn in Sussex, England, despite widespread fear the feud between the two clubs over beanballs and home plate collisions would erupt into open battle.

Giants End Loss Binge, Tip Braves

Milwaukee —(UPI)— The San Francisco Giants, somewhat shell shocked, attempt a two-game "win streak" tonight after having reassured Candlestick fans no team can lose them all.

The Giants snapped out of a six-game losing binge-equaling their longest victory drought since moving to San Francisco — Thursday night by edging a stubborn Milwaukee Braves contingent, 8-7.

Manager Tom Sheehan will nominate either undefeated rookie Juan Marichal (3-0) or Jack Sanford (9-10) tonight in an effort to keep things on a positive note. Milwaukee is expected to counter with veteran Warren Spahn (12-7).

Eruption Contained

The fifth place Giants moved to within five games of the first division by outlasting the Braves. But reliefer Johnny Antonelli had to contain a sudden ninth - inning Milwaukee eruption to do it.

Hardluck Billy O'Dell notched his sixth victory against eight defeats although he was lifted during a Brave uprising in the eighth. The Giant hurler gave up nine hits and all seven runs before yielding to Antonelli.

Giant batters chased four Milwaukee twirlers for 14 hits, including Jimmy Davenport's fifth homer of the season in the third with Joey Amalfitano and O'Dell aboard. The blow put San Francisco ahead, 5-0.

HARRIS VS. COOPER

London —(UPI)— Roy Harris of Cut and Shoot, Tex., will fight British and Empire heavyweight champion Henry Cooper at Wembley's Empire Pool Arena Sept. 13.

PENNANT PUSHING BALTIMORE GAINS 6TH STRAIGHT TRIUMPH

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Pennant push?

Paul Richards says "it could be."

What else can you possibly call it when his charged-up Baltimore Orioles win six in a row, climb within a game of first place and puncture the myth that they can't hit their way out of a paper bag?

Even the hard-to-impress Richards is blinking at the Orioles' total of 14 homers in the past five days. They teed off for four home runs against the Detroit Tigers Thursday in a 6-1 victory that was their 11th in the last 12 games.

Rookie Ron Hansen hit his 13th homer in the second inning, Walt Dropo connected with the bases empty in the third and rookie Dave Nicholson belted a three-run homer in the same game. Those three were at the expense of loser Don Mossi.

Then with Hank Aguirre pitching for Detroit in the eighth, rookie Jim Gentile, who had replaced Dropo at first base, slammed his 16th homer. Jack Fisher limited the Tigers to seven hits in bringing his record to 8-9. The defeat was Detroit's fourth straight and sixth in seven games since Joe Gordon took over last Friday night.

The Red Sox beat the Indians, 5-2, and the Senators edged the Athletics, 5-4, in other AL games. The first-place Yankees and third-place White Sox were idle.

In the National league, Stan (The Man) Musial's two-run homer in the 12th inning gave the Cardinals a 3-2 victory over the first-place Pirates. Sandy Koufax struck out 13 batters in leading the Dodgers to a 3-0 win over the Reds, and the Giants beat the Braves, 8-7, in the only other scheduled game.

Rip Repulski and Don Buddin each drove in two runs in Boston's victory over Cleveland. Tribe Manager Jimmy Dykes, who is having no better luck than Gordon at Detroit, watched the Indians lose their fifth game in the last six starts. The Red Sox rapped loser Jack Harshman and Don Newcombe for 10 hits, including a homer by Repulski. Jim Piersall hit his 14th homer off winner Ike Delock.

Killebrew Tees Off

Harmon Killebrew accounted for all five Washington runs against Kansas City. He drove in four runs with his 16th and 17th homers off loser Ray Herbert and scored a fifth one after singling in the third inning. Tex Clevenger went 7 1/3 innings and won his fourth game against seven defeats.

It was simply a case of too much Musial for the Priates.

Loser Bob Friend allowed only seven hits, but Musial collected three of them. Two were doubles and the other one was his 12th inning homer with one on that snapped the Pirates' seven-game winning streak and led the Cardinals to their fifth straight victory.

Musial's 12th homer of the season moved the Cards within four games of first place. Ernie Broglio, who struck out nine and gave up eight hits, won his 14th game against five losses. He had a scare in the last of the 12th though when the Pirates came back with a run on a single, an infield out and Rocky Nelson's double, which barely missed being a homer.

Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers limited the Reds to two hits in winning his fifth game. Rookie Jim Maloney lost his third game in a row even though striking out eight. The first of his six walks led to one Dodger run and two errors paved the way for the second Dodger marker. Charlie Neal collected three of the seven hits off Maloney.

The Giants broke out with 14 hits to snap a six-game losing streak and dump the Braves into fourth place. Jim Davenport hit a three-run homer for San Francisco and Orlando Cepeda and Bob Schmidt each had three hits. Milwaukee filled the bases with two out in the ninth but Johnny Antonelli got Bill Bruton on a grounder to end the game. Billy O'Dell was the winner and Juan Pizarro, first of four Milwaukee pitchers, the loser.

Marathon Night in Two PCL Parks On Thursday

By PETE COLEMAN
United Press International

It was marathon night in two Pacific Coast league parks Thursday night.

At Sicks' Stadium in Seattle, visiting San Diego had to go 14 innings before copping a 3-2 decision over the Rainiers. And at Derks Field in Salt Lake City, the home town Bees used up 13 innings before slipping by Spokane, 1-0.

Elsewhere, Tacoma and Vancouver managed to get by in regulation time, the Giants whipping Portland, 5-0, and the Mounties edging Sacramento, 3-2.

Relief Ace

San Diego had a pair of stars in their thriller over the Rainiers. Deacon Jones drove in the winning run with a triple while reliever Don Ferrarese held Seattle hitless in six and one-third innings of relief pitching.

Ferrarese fanned 10 and walked only two in hanging up his fourth victory. Ray Rippelmeyer went the route for the Suds and was tagged with his 11th defeat against 12 wins.

Relief pitcher Ron Blackburn was the hero in Salt Lake's marathon win over Spokane. In addition to holding the Indians scoreless the one inning he pitched, Blackburn tripled in the winning run in the bottom of the 13th.

Spokane got only three hits off three Bee pitchers while Salt Lake managed 12 safeties off four Indian hurlers.

Eddie Fisher and Bob Perry combined their talents to lead Tacoma past Portland.

Fisher gave up only four hits in scoring his 14th victory and fourth shutout of the campaign. Perry wrapped it up early for the Giants by hitting a bases-loaded triple in the first inning. Bobby Prescott accounted for the other two Tacoma runs with a one-on homer in the third.

Cowboys Finish Pacific Drills

Forest Grove—(UPI)—The Dallas Cowboys wound up drills Thursday for their Saturday exhibition clash in San Antonio, Tex., against the St. Louis Cardinals.

The squad will stop briefly in Dallas before moving to San Antonio. Thursday's practice was the last drill that the Cowboys will hold at their training camp here. Dallas, the newest team in the NFL, has been training here on the Pacific university field since July 9.
