

Pittsburgh Defeats Cards, Gains Four Game Margin

Roberto Clemente and Dick Groat provided Pittsburgh with the power that defeated St. Louis, 4-1, Saturday and enabled the Pirates to regain a four-game lead over the second-place Cardinals.

Clemente drove in all the Buc runs with two singles and a homer while Groat had a perfect 4 for 4 game and scored two of the Pittsburgh runs.

St. Louis, which had won six straight, took a 1-0 lead in the first inning, but that was the last time the Cards saw daylight. Groat's triple and Clemente's single tied the score in the Pirate half of the first and they went ahead in the third when Groat doubled and rode around on Clemente's eighth homer of the season.

Jim Brosnan each drove in two runs for the Reds. Starter Jim O'Toole was credited with his 10th triumph while Danny McDevitt dropped his second straight decision for the Dodgers.

The Chicago Cubs won their first decision in the last nine meetings with Philadelphia as home runs by Ernie Banks and Jerry Kindall sparked a 4-2 victory over the Phillies. The Cubs also equaled a major league record when their outfield had no putouts. Banks' homer was his 32nd while Kindall belted his second. Bob Anderson struck out 10 in winning his sixth game.

SPORTS

CLASH TODAY FOR RVCC TITLE—Alan Holmes, attorney, and Dr. Ralph Odell, physician and surgeon, battle today for the men's match play golf championship of Rogue Valley Country Club. They will have a 36-hole match. First 18 will get underway at 8 a.m. and the after lunch 18 will begin at 2 p.m. Rogue Valley has extended an invitation to the public to join the gallery for the tussle. The two are among the top amateur golfers in Oregon. Holmes, club champion in 1958, gained the final by defeating Phil Mongrain. Odell, Ashland city champion in 1959, won 2 and 1 in a semifinal against John Spicer. (Knackstedt photo)

Yanks Win Americas Links Cup

By BILL NEVILLE
Ottawa (UPI)—The United States' finest amateurs, a fifth Straight Americas Cup championship tucked firmly away, waited today for a chance to add the Canadian Amateur crown to their 1960 trophy bag.

The betting was that one of them would turn the trick for the first time in six years when the week-long 56th annual amateur opens Monday.

The heavily favored Americans had their stiffest battle in the eight-year history of the Americas Cup Friday. Set back by an unusual penalty that cost them crucial points and facing a surprising Canadian team that refused to fold, they needed a dramatic comeback in the day's final singles matches to extend their country's perfect cup record.

Dramatic Comeback
But come back they did, sweeping seven and tying three of their 12 singles to nose out the host Canadians, 21½ points to 20. Mexico was a distant third with 12½ points.

Don Cherry, from Wichita Falls, Texas, got the U.S. margin of victory in the next to the last match of the day. John Konek, from Buffalo, N. Y., clinched it in the final.

Cherry, 36, came to the 155-yard 17th hole on the lush 6,740-yard Hunt club course with his team trailing by a half-point. He sank a par 3 to beat Canada's Bow Wylie, 2 and 1, and Mexico's 17-year-old Hector Alvarez, 3 and 1.

Konek, a last-minute replacement, parred the 17th and 535-yard final hole to edge Fernando Garza of Mexico, 1-up, and tie Ron Wylie of Vancouver.

Drain Outs Crater In Junior Tussle; CP Nudges Grovers

Eugene—Drain downed the Crater Cubs 14 to 7 here Saturday afternoon to knock the defending champion team from Central Point out of the Oregon Junior Baseball association tournament.

The tussle was halted after six innings because of Drain's seven-run margin. Central Point outlived Drain six to four but three of four Crater pitchers gave up a total of 14 bases on balls.

Crater, handicapped by the loss of three regulars who were declared ineligible, nosed out Cottage Grove Friday night 6 to 5 in the first round of play. Vern Swanson doubled home what proved to be the winning run in the bottom of the sixth inning.

In other Friday first round conflicts host Eugene Myrmo and Son turned back Bend 7 to 0. Salem Master Service whipped Roseburg 8 to 0 and Drain nipped the Albany Reds 7 to 6.

Mike Glines, Louis Alvarez and Pat Pepper were not allowed to play for the Central Pointers because they had contested in American Legion junior ball this summer.

Swanson Swats
The Cubs got their victory run on a base on balls to Doug Sharp, a balk, a sacrifice by Steve Isaacs and the double by Swanson. Sharp was given first base on a ruling which brought controversy. He had three balls and one strike on him. As Cottage Grove pitched

Junior Keglers Will Contend At Gladstone

Nine Rogue valley boys and girls will contend next Wednesday, Aug. 17, in Young America Bowlerama competition at Gladstone bowl near Oregon City.

The nine who topped second round playoff action on Wednesday, Aug. 10, at Roxy Ann lanes, local YAB center, are:

Dennis Bauman 551, Larry Jones 539 and Jerry Zemlicka 383, senior girls; and Chuck Mariann Furrer 476, Kathi Hart 398 and Becki Barlow 383, senior girls; and Chuck Eilenberger 501, Bill Dickenson 451 and Walt Daigle 380, junior boys.

Trophies went to these winners. Bowlerama participants received membership pins. Second round playoff followed a first round of 12 qualifying games between July 4 and Aug. 6.

To Form Journal Team
Winners from the Gladstone round will be Portland city champions and receive trophies, jackets and emblems. The six high in each of four divisions, senior and junior boys and senior and junior girls, will be formed into the Oregon Journal's official YAB teams of five regulars and one alternate each.

These teams will bowl at Oswego on Wednesday, Aug. 4, in Area 4 telegraphic competition. The area one of four includes teams in Oregon, Texas, Wisconsin and Arizona. These winners gain a trip to Los Angeles for the nationals and to Disney land.

Bauman, Jones and Zemlicka have been vying regularly in a Monday Night Mixed league at Medford Bowling lanes. Miss Furrer and Miss Barlow have been in the same mixed league and Miss Hart has been in the St. Mary's league at Roxy Ann lanes. Eilenberger has participated at the Caveman Bowl at Grants Pass. Dickenson has been in the father-son league at Roxy Ann and Daigle in the Kiwanis Junior league at Medford lanes.

Selby Chevrolet, Ashland, is providing a car to help transport the local delegation to Gladstone.

Willamette Net Tournament on August 20-21

Corvallis—Entries are coming in fast for the second annual Willamette Valley Tennis championships Aug. 20-21 at the Oregon State college courts in Corvallis.

The tournament, sponsored by the Corvallis Gazette-Times, will feature seven divisions this year with the addition of women's singles, junior girls singles (18 and under) and mixed doubles.

Other divisions, repeats from last year, include men's singles and doubles and junior men's singles and doubles (18 and under).

Trophies worth $250 will be awarded to winners and runners-up in each division.

Entries are due Wednesday, Aug. 17. Entry fees may be paid at the first round of the tournament. Blanks are available at Medford city recreation department or in the newsroom of the Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Tournament play is to begin at 9 a.m. Saturday. A buffet dinner is scheduled Saturday night for all contestants.

Jim Jackson of Portland, former Oregon State net star, has indicated he will return to defend his men's singles title, and will probably team up with Bud McCoy, also of Portland, again in men's doubles where they captured the title last year.

Notice Served On Beanbaling

Cincinnati (UPI)—The managers of the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds were on notice Friday that "the first appearance of bean-balling" will cost their pitchers $50.

In a "Dear Walter and Fred" letter, National League President Warren Giles scolded the managers about too many "charges and countercharges about pitchers intentionally throwing at hitters."

Giles told Reds Manager Fred Hutchinson and Dodgers Manager Walt Alton to warn their pitchers to be more cautious about throwing pitches which could be taken for beanballs.

Giles sought to avoid recurrence of the flareups which marked the clubs' last meeting on the West Coast two weeks ago.

Yankees Hold Slim Lead With Three Hit, 1-0 Win

Whitely Ford protected the New York Yankees' slim first place lead Saturday with a three-hit, 1-0 victory over the Washington Senators.

The Baltimore Orioles, less than a game back, took on the Boston Red Sox in a night contest.

Roger Maris' seventh inning triple and Mickey Mantle's sacrifice fly provided the game's only run as New York

Colts Drub Collegiate Stars 32-7

By ED SAINSBURY
Chicago (UPI)—The College All Stars had the "needle" and the hustle, but you need much deadlier weapons than those to beat the championship pro knowhow of the Baltimore Colts.

That, Colt coach Weeb Eubank and College All Star leader Otto Graham agreed today, is why the kings of the National Football league took the cream of the campuses apart at Soldier Field Friday night, 32-7.

The Colts, whipping up three touchdowns on the magic passing combination of Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore and salting away three field goals by Steve Myhra, never appeared worried about what would happen before the 70,000 fans.

But Graham defended his youngsters.

"The old pros just outsmarted them," he said. "They didn't outthrust them."

Eubank gave amiable agreement.

Good Coaching Job
"Graham did a good job," he said of the former Cleveland Browns ace who has piloted the All-Stars to one victory and two Colt defeats.

Unitas hit on 17 of 29 passes for 237 yards to lead the Colts to a total of 281 yards in the air. Baltimore also netted 133 yards rushing and the big pro line held the collegians to only 13 yards on the ground. The Stars netted 108 yards passing.

Derby Fever Grips Akron

Akron, Ohio (UPI)—"Derby fever" gripped the rubber capital of the world on the eve of the 23rd All-American Soap Box Derby.

A total of 168 champions from 38 states, Puerto Rico, and four foreign countries will vie today for $15,000 in college scholarships and prizes at the end of the 875-foot-long Derby Downs track.

The foreign entries are from West Germany, Venezuela, the Philippines and Canada. Wolfgang Hoehn, 14, West Berlin, winner of the finals at Duisburg, will carry the German colors.
