Roberts-Witter Rites Held

An event of Saturday, August 6, was the wedding of Miss Donna Louise Witter to Barry James Roberts. The marriage ceremony took place at four o'clock in the afternoon at First Presbyterian church here, with about 125 relatives and friends attending.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Witter, 843 West Second street, and the bridegroom is a son of James Brunt, Norwich, England.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated for the marriage rites, and Mr. Witter gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's gown of white silk organza was fashioned with a billowing skirt which ended in a chapel length train. The scoop neckline was outlined with lace, tiny sequins and seed pearls, and her veil was held by a crown of white orange blossoms. The bride carried white stephanotis and yellow roses.

Mrs. Richard McGuire was honor attendant and Miss Patricia Fitzsimmons, Portland, was bridesmaid. Their frocks were of pale yellow silk organza designed with sweetheart necklines, empire waists trimmed with bows and full skirts. Each carried a spray of Ester Reed daisies.

Escorts Mother

Jerry M. Witter, the bride's brother was best man, and ushers were Noel Johnson, Portland; A. E. Reinking, Jacksonville, Miss Dyke, the bride's cousin of the bride. Young Terry Witter, the bride's brother, escorted his mother.

The Rev. Robert Jacks sang preceding the ceremony, with Douglas Cummings at the organ. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli provided a setting for the wedding party, and candelabra held white tapers. The pew ends were decorated with satin bows.

The reception was held at the church, with about 100 guests present. Bouquets of yellow roses were arranged on the bride's table with white tapers, and the cake was in the shape of a Maltese cross.

Mrs. A. E. Reinking and Mrs. Donald Wendt, Jacksonville, Mrs. Noel Johnson and Miss Edith Roberts, Portland, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Patrick Mahoney, White City and Mrs. Phillip Anthony, Applegate, Calif., aunt of the bride, served punch.

Mrs. Richard Copple, the former Delora Dunn, took charge of the guest book.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roberts, Portland, sponsors of the bridegroom who substituted as his parents. Mrs. Roberts wore a light blue eyelet embroidery frock and a corsage of yellow rosebuds and stephanotis. The bride's mother was attired in a lime brocade sheath worn with white accessories and her corsage was also of yellow rosebuds and stephanotis.

Guests Listed
Other guests who came from a distance were the Noel Johnson's small daughter, Lesley, Portland; Miss Marleta Henderson and Mrs. Eleanor Leitch, Spokane, Wash.; Joseph Martin, Oakland, Calif., uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. George Cormany, Anaheim, Calif.; Virgil Stoneypher and Miss Virginia Stoneypher, Portland.

The newlywed pair traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a black and white suit with black patent leather accessories. The couple will live at 6722 Northeast Tillamook, Portland. The bride, a graduate of Medford high school and Whitworth college, Spokane, is an elementary school teacher in the Parkside schools, Portland. The bridegroom, until recently with the British Royal Marine band, is now a proofreader for the Portland Oregonian.

Mrs. Marie Lindauer, secretary of the school where the bride teaches, was hostess for a party in her honor. Mrs. Patrick Mahoney and Mrs. Lynn Jenkins were hostesses for a linen shower August 3, and Mrs. George Maddox and Mrs. R. A. Brewer for the former Miss Witter.

The rehearsal dinner August 5 was given by the bride's cousins, the A. E. Reinkings, on the patio of their Laurel heights home in Jacksonville. Twenty-four guests were present.

Family Arrives From Illinois

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Cook and children, Rick, Arlene, Catherine and Barbara, have arrived in the valley from Mundelein, Ill., to visit Mr. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Cook, 153 Sixth street. Mr. Cook, now a chief petty officer in the Navy, is a graduate of Medford High school.

Last Sunday a family reunion was held in honor of the visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Arbogast, Medford. Mrs. Arbogast is a sister of the Navy man. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Vincent and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Konopasek and family. The visitors will be here until August 23.

Donald Church Visits Parents

Donald L. Church will leave by plane today for Syracuse, N.Y., after spending some time here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Church, 301 Hamilton street.

The young man was honored at a dinner party Sunday, August 7. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simpson, Eugene, Miss Ellyn Hawley, Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. James Porter. Mrs. Simpson and Donald Church are cousins. Mr. Church will make the trip east by jet plane.

Snowden-Mullen Ceremony Held in Methodist Chapel

Meeker Memorial chapel of the First Methodist church was the setting Saturday afternoon, August 6, for the marriage of Miss Marilyn Mullen to John Nelson Snowden Jr., of Hanford, Calif. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Mullen of North Barneburg road, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson Snowden of Hanford.

The 4:30 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Melvin Dixon, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist church. A program or nuptial music was presented by the Rev. G. Robert Jacks and Miss Sue Donna Doolen.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza fashioned with empire cummerbund and a princess style afternoon length skirt. Re-embroidered Alencon lace accented the Sabrina neckline and demi-sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was draped from a tiny coronet of white orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and white carnations.

Mrs. Raymond A. Ritter Jr., St. Louis, Mo., cousin of the bride, was the honor attendant and Mrs. Brian B. Mullen, the bride's sister-in-law, was bridesmatron. Their afternoon length gowns of honeysuckle yellow organza had Sabrina necklines, tiny cap sleeves and full skirts. Matching cummerbunds of amber yellow taffeta gathered into butterfly bows in the back. Both carried colonial bouquets of marguerites and wore matching coronets in their hair.

Serving as best man was Charles Rossen, of Davis, Calif., and groomsmen was Brian B. Mullen, brother of the bride, John Owens Mullen and Jay Carlton Mullen, also brothers of the bride, served as ushers.

Baskets filled with white gladioli decorated the chancel and gladioli arranged with greenery adorned the communion rail. White bows decorated the pew ends.

A reception was held in the garden of the Mullen home with Mesdames G. T. Hauptert and Stewart Milne and Miss Carolyn Mencke assisting. For receiving the guests, Mrs. Mullen wore a shell pink organza sheath with matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Snowden left afterwards for a wedding trip to San Francisco and Carmel and will be at home in Sacramento, Calif., after August 20.

For traveling the bride chose a porcelain blue cotton sheath with matching accessories.

The former Miss Mullen is a graduate of Southeast Missouri State college in Cape Girardeau, Mo., and for the past three years has taught school in Roseburg, Ore., and Sacramento.

Mr. Snowden is an alumnus of Fresno State college and served four years in the United States Air Force. He taught in Sacramento for the past year.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wescoat, Cape Girardeau, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Ritter Jr., St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosson, Davis, Calif.; Mrs. Roberta Touchette, Sacramento, and the Messrs Arthur Gaitan and Bill Hobbs, Hanford.

Guest Here

Mrs. Carse Austin, San Diego, Calif., has been visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nil, 25 Meyers court.
