

Newlyweds Living Here After Wedding Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dale Lindsey are making their home at 2334 Corey road following their wedding last month in Advent Christian church. The bride is the former Miss Sherri Jean Doe, daughter of Mrs. Karen Hendrickson, Medford, and James H. Doe, Springfield. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lindsey, Medford.

The Rev. Fred O. Sapp Jr. officiated at the evening ceremony Thursday, July 14. One hundred friends and relatives attended.

Mrs. Gertrude Shide, grandmother of the bride, was organist and the Rev. Mr. Sapp sang a traditional German wedding song.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess style gown of ivory bridal satin with full-length sleeves and a fitted lace jacket. Her elbow-length veil was held by a seed pearl tiara.

Her gown was made by her aunt, Mrs. Paul Doe. Her veil was loaned by a cousin, Mrs. Guy Parker. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweet peas centered with a corsage of pink roses.

Miss Kay Hendrickson, sister of the bride and honor attendant, wore a buttercup yellow sheer nylon frock. She carried a colonial bouquet of white sweet peas centered with yellow rosebuds and wore a matching headband of yellow rosebuds.

Ted Lindsey was best man for his brother, Patrick Stoner, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Serving as ushers and candlelighters were Neil Stoner, Applegate, and Bruce Matheny, Jacksonville, uncle of the bride.

For the event Mrs. Hendrickson wore a beige princess style fall dress and her corsage was of yellow rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend because of illness.

Mrs. Leonard McKee, Jacksonville, was in charge of flowers.

A reception followed the ceremony. Pink and white garlands and baskets of pastel garden blossoms decorated the church reception room. Assisting were Mrs. Paul Doe and Mrs. Mel Steinbech, Medford and Klamath Falls, aunts of the bride, who served cake; Mrs. Wendell Matheny and Mrs. Paul Matheny, Jacksonville, cousins of the bride, who poured punch; and Mrs. Donald Stoner and Mrs. Bruce Matheny, Jacksonville, aunts of the bride, who were at the gift table.

Miss Teri Steinbech, Medford and Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Neil Stoner assisted with the flowers.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Eagle Point High school and is employed at DeLeigh Motors. He is an active member of the topographical unit of the local Army Reserve unit. The bride is a member of the 1961 class of Medford High school.

The young couple traveled to the San Francisco area for their honeymoon.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Richard Doe and daughter, Donna, Eugene, aunt and cousin of the bride; Mrs. James H. Doe, Springfield; and Jimmy Steinbech, Medford and Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride.
