

Newlyweds Now Living In Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Ware have arrived in Medford and are presently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Ware, 181 Winema way.

Their wedding was an event of June 12 in Haynesville, La., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. DeLoach. The double-ring ceremony was solemnized at four o'clock in the afternoon with the Rev. E. V. Appling of First Baptist church officiating.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of blue lace over blue taffeta, styled with long sleeves and a boat neckline. She wore an illusion veil and carried a white orchid. Mr. DeLoach gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Ruth Sims, Haynesville, was honor attendant and Miss Verona DeLoach was bridesmaid for her sister. They wore identical gowns of blue organza with matching headbands and carried nosegays of white blossoms.

Betty Jo DeLoach, small sister of the bride, and her cousin, Herman Lee, acted as ring bearers.

For the event Mrs. DeLoach chose a blue gown with white accessories and Mrs. Verona DeLoach, paternal grandmother of the bride, wore a grey dress of summer silk with white lace.

John DeLoach, brother of the bride, was best man.

A reception followed at the family home.

En route to Medford the newlyweds spent some time in Tucson, Ariz., with his brother, Capt. Donald M. Hall and family.

Friends of the young couple gathered recently at the Ware home for a surprise shower and lawn party. Refreshments, including wedding cake, were served to about 60 guests.

The bride attended Haynesville High school and the bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school in 1959. He recently completed one year of training at Keesler Air Base electronic college, Biloxi, Miss. He is employed at the Oregon Food store, Ashland.

Carol Arlene McVay Bride Of Everett Roy Stricklin

Miss Carol Arlene McVay, daughter of Mrs. Arthur J. Paisley, Medford, and Loris G. McVay, Tillamook, became the bride of Everett Roy Stricklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stricklin, 704 South Peach street, Sunday, August 7. The wedding ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. George Roseberry at First Methodist church. Over 100 guests attended.

White and yellow gladioli decorated the church. Miss Sue Donna Doolen was organist and Miss Colleen Barr sang.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Marion Walters, Canyonville. She wore a ballerina-length gown styled with a lace and net paneled skirt with ruffled net flounce. The lace bodice was fashioned with an oval neckline. Her headband of pearls held a waist-length illusion veil, and she carried a corsage of pink rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Neil Glenn, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and Miss Jeri Smith was bridesmaid. Both wore gowns of lavender taffeta with nylon organza overskirts and white chiffon sashes. They carried yellow gladioli bouquets.

Shirley Glenn, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of yellow nylon with white nylon lace accents. David Phillips, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Neil Glenn, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Allan Higinbotham and Russell Glenn, Central Point, and Robert Seth seated guests.

More than 100 guests attended the reception which followed in the church reception room. Mrs. Robert Phillips, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Billy Flannery, Central Point, served the cake.

Mrs. John Thran, Grants Pass, cousin of the bride, poured coffee and Miss Marie Walters, another cousin, poured punch.

Mrs. Alan Higinbotham was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Seth took charge of gifts.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Marjorie Walters, wore an aquamarine and white print dress with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Stricklin wore a navy blue and white dotted dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school and he is employed by the post office department. They are making their home at 319 South New-town street following their return from a wedding trip to the Oregon coast. For traveling the bride wore a white sheath dress with pink accessories.

Strained canned fruit cocktail into prepared coconut cream pudding. Spoon into paper cups and serve with wooden spoons for a backyard picnic desert. This makes a delicious pie filling too.

Applegate Family Leaves To Make Home in Hawaii

Applegate Valley - The W. D. Pearson family believes in enjoyment of living and seeing a portion of the world as life goes along, so they chose to move to Hawaii. They will sail from San Francisco on the President Cleveland August 15, and will be resident hosts at the Friends meeting center (Quaker) in Honolulu, entertaining members of the church who are traveling to and from the Orient.

For many years Mr. and Mrs. Pearson have talked of going to the Islands, and about six months ago they started taking action. Letters requesting information went to former high school classmates of Mrs. Pearson who are teaching in the Islands. Letters were sent to all other friends and acquaintances who had lived there. Mrs. Pearson had success in contacting Daniel Inouye, representative in Congress, Washington, D. C. The family subscribed to a newspaper from the Islands to learn of general living conditions.

Finally they learned of a vacancy at the religious center, applied, and were accepted. The Pearsons made their boat reservation in May. Mrs. Pearson had worked at the Friend's Center in San Francisco some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearson and nine year old daughter, Anne, came here from Berkeley, Calif., eight years ago, purchasing a small farm adjoining Star Ranger station. Mr. Pearson has been with the Commercial printing company in Medford. Both are natives of California.

Mrs. Pearson taught in a Japanese relocation center during World War II, and also spent several years in newspaper work at Santa Rosa and Healdsburg, Calif. Mr. Pearson was in the printing business in Portland for several years. He expects to be employed in this work in the Islands. Both were members of the Friend's church in Berkeley, and while here at-

Missionary Union Announces Christmas in August Program

Wednesday evening, August 17, is the date for the annual "Christmas in August" program sponsored by the Women's Missionary Union of First Southern Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane.

Gifts will be sent this year to the Warm Springs Indians near Madras, where the Southern Baptists have established a mission.

The young women's auxiliary will decorate the auditorium and a Christmas tree for the event. The junior girls will present the program.

Mrs. Frances Gilchrist, president-elect of the missionary union, is in charge of general arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Roger Pryor.

Gifts suggested by missionaries at the mission include such items as Bibles, children's and babies' clothing, dress lengths, aprons, sweaters, hose, handkerchiefs, soap, tooth brushes, towels, washcloths, pencil tablets and quilt scraps.

Resources To Be Topic

With particular reference to the state's natural resources, former Governor Elmo Smith, Albany, Republican candidate for U.S. Senator, will tell about "Oregon's Stake in the Future" at a coming meeting of Jackson County club, Oregon Federation of Republican Women. It is set for tomorrow, August 15, at the Red Cross building at 12 noon.

The luncheon session is open to the public and both men and women are invited to attend. Mrs. Ernst Ruegger, SPring 2-9958, and Mrs. L. Dow Inskeep, SPring 3-1547 will accept reservations.
