

Mrs. O. A. Eden (at left) and Mrs. Eugene Ingram paused a moment during the annual garden party of Medford Sojourners club Thursday to pose for the Tribune cameraman. The party is held each summer at the Eden's home on Genesee street, and Mrs. Ingram was chairman of the event this season. The two women are shown with Mrs. Eden's twin granddaughters, Carolyn (at left) and Janet, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Eden, Oswego, Ore., who are spending a few weeks with their grandparents.

Mrs. Robert Babcock (at left) and Mrs. Kenneth Lyons were among the newcomers to Medford at the annual garden party of Medford Sojourners club held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden, 211 Genesee street. The Babcocks formerly lived in Edmonds, Wash., and Mr. Babcock is with the Modern Tile company. The Lyons came to Medford from Moscow, Ida., and Mr. Lyons is with the city's parks and recreation department.

Los Angeles Wins Match

Los Angeles - (UPI) - Los Angeles defeated New York, 115-106 international match points, Friday night for the contract bridge championship in the final session of the two-day intercity contest.

Los Angeles held a wide lead during the first day of competition but the New Yorkers whittled the margin to nine points at the end of 80 deals in four sessions which decided the championship.

An international match point is about equal to 100 points in a rubber bridge score.

Lewis Mathe, Meyer Schleifer, Ira Rubin and Ivan Erdos represented Los Angeles and Mrs. Helen Sobel, Peter Leventri, Tobias Stone and John R. Crawford represented New York.

Visitors in City

Newcomers to the city who attended the annual garden party of Medford Sojourners club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden were Mrs. Don Larsen (at left) and Mrs. Fred Beyer. The Larsens came here from Houston, Tex., and Mr. Larsen is with the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad. The Beyers formerly lived in New York City and Mr. Beyer is a retired officer of the New York City Fire department.

State Senator and Mrs. C. R. Theissen and their three children, Sidney, Mont., visited recently in Medford with Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, 946 Park avenue. The Theissens had been in Los Angeles for the Democratic convention and then toured that state before coming to Oregon.

Sojourner Garden Party Held Thursday Afternoon

Medford Sojourners held a garden party Thursday afternoon in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden, 211 Genesee street. Seventy-six members and guests were present.

Prospective members present for the first time were Mrs. Robert Babcock, Mrs. William B. Walker, Mrs. Andrew W. Faley and Mrs. Donald Hanlin. Inactive members present were Mrs. James Asher, Mrs. Robert Middleton and Mrs. Alice Andrew.

Pink and dark red gladioli decorated the luncheon table. They were gifts from Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Warner.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Eugene Ingram, Mrs. Fred Cate, Mrs. Walter Marquess and Mrs. Marvin Slaven.

Mrs. Gladys Eaton won the special award, Mrs. Lewis Smith the bridge prize. Mrs. John Goodwin the pinochle prize and Mrs. John Luke the canasta award.

The next meeting of the club will be August 25 at the Girls Community club. All women who have lived in Medford or the vicinity for not more than two years are invited to attend and become members.

Fall Activities To Be Outlined
An outline of fall and winter activities will be given at a meeting of Crater Lake post and auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Tuesday, August 16, at the VFW hall. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m.

Camp White domiciliary programs and local veterans affairs will be considered.

Eagle Point—Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Logan and daughter Louise, Prineville, Ore., are guests of Mr. Logan's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hanscom, and his nephews Harry and Harold Hanscom and their families. All are of Stevens road, Eagle Point.

Riverside Club Names Winners
Mrs. Roger Smoot and Mrs. Yvonne Dalen were first place winners for north-south players in last Wednesday's duplicate game at Riverside Bridge club. Mrs. B. Cadmus and Mrs. C. Anderson were second; Mrs. R. J. Conroy and Paul Hatton, third; and Mrs. H. J. Boyd and Al Gilhousen, fourth.

Daughter Here
Mrs. Fred Van Bember and small son, Bruce, have arrived in Medford from Prairie Village, Kan., to spend some time with Mrs. Van Bember's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Dowson, 47 South Berkeley way. Mrs. Dowson met the two in San Francisco.

Group Attends District Session

Twenty-five members of the Veterans of World War I, barracks and auxiliary, Medford, attended a District 7 meeting in the Grants Pass park August 7. Mr. and Mrs. Don Reed, Baker department commander and auxiliary president, were among those attending.

R. Dayton, Riddle, district commander, and Mrs. Alvin Lucas, Medford, president of the auxiliary, presided at the meetings.

E. D. Potts, mayor of Grants Pass and candidate for state senator, spoke to the group. He stated he was much in favor of legislation to help World War I veterans. Those attending voted in favor of the coming ballot measure to renew the veterans loan fund.

A potluck dinner was served at noon, followed by group singing of World War I songs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kothe and daughter Linda from Salisbury, Mo., recently spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Plyers, Grant road, Central Point.

The Kothes are relatives of the Plyers.
