"Let them loose when you please; for I am chained to endure all your tyranny," says the Duchess of Malfi, as she and Carlota are tormented by madmen sent by her brother, Ferdinand. Ann Hackney (standing) of Marshall, Tex., is the Duchess, and Shirley Patton (seated) of Ashland, is Carlota in James Sandoe's staging of John Webster's dynamic tragedy, "The Duchess of Malfi."

Seven Accidents Investigated By Area State Police

Several accidents were reported Friday and Saturday to Oregon state police.

Axil William Raski, 52, Applegate rd., Jacksonville, and his passenger, Emily Mildred Mansfield, 48, route 1, box 180, Talent, were lodged in the county jail for being drunk on a public highway following an accident Friday evening.

A vehicle, operated by Raski, collided with a vehicle driven by Willis Gene Hight, 29, of 1341 Iowa st., Ashland. Hight was traveling north on Highway 99 when Raski pulled out of a private drive into the side of Hight's vehicle, police said.

William Doyle Pennington, 25, of 679 Mae st., Medford, was also lodged in the county jail for being drunk on a public highway following an accident Saturday morning, according to state police.

Pennington told police that an oncoming car forced him onto the shoulder of Agate rd. causing him to swerve across the road into a pear tree.

Pennington's passenger was Louis Medina, 26, Pine st., Central Point.

Another accident was reported at 10:43 p.m., Friday, Wendell Forrest Carson, 19, of 3055 Delta Waters rd., Medford, was northbound on Orchard Home dr. when his car failed to make a sharp curve near the Owens Boat works, according to police reports.

No injuries, but extensive property damage was reported when a vehicle driven by William David Barbera, 17, of 75 South Seventh st., Central Point, collided with a vehicle driven by William Richard Snyder, 21, of 343 B st., Ashland. The accident occurred at about 11:15 p.m., Friday, near the Medford armory, police said.

Ruth L. Blanchard, 30, route 1, box 277, Central Point, and Leon Eugene Blanchard, 51, were injured and then taken to the Rogue Valley hospital, Friday, following a single vehicle accident.

State police believe that Ruth Blanchard was driving the vehicle on the Camp White drag strip when the accident occurred.

A collision also occurred at 1:45 p.m. Friday on Table Rock rd. about two tenths of a mile south of the Orr dr. junction. Involved were vehicles driven by James Raymond Foster, 34, of 3325 Highway 66, Ashland, and Edwin Everett Minick, 86, of 5809 Table Rock rd., Medford.

Mrs. Melissa Combust Cameron, 74, of 4655 South Pacific highway, was advised that a complaint would be filed against her for an improper left turn following an accident Friday morning, on Highway 99 near Phoenix.

The collision took place between a vehicle driven by Mrs. Cameron and a vehicle driven by Arthur William St. George, 56, Turlock, Calif.
