Catholic Rites Held

Sacred Heart Catholic church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Sally Ann Devers to Arnold Joseph Widmer Saturday, August 13. The wedding rites and nuptial mass were celebrated at 10 o'clock in the morning by the Rev. John Lig.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Devers, 1825 Oregon terrace, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Xavier Widmer, Barnett road.

The bride wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with cathedral train. Her French illusion veil fell from a satin coronet trimmed with pearls and she carried a shower of stephanotis and white roses centered with a white orchid.

Maid-of-honor was Miss Bobby Jean Britt and the bridesmaids were the Misses Carmen and Carol Valentine, nieces of the bridegroom. They were gowned in yellow organza and carried bouquets of yellow-centered daisies and yellow roses. All three attendants wore crowns of yellow tulle trimmed with iridescent beads and short illusion veils.

Mr. Devers escorted his daughter to the church altar and Patrick Dugan was best man for Mr. Widmer.

Seating the guests were Timothy Dugan and James Valentine. Patrick and Michael Naumes served as acolytes.

For the wedding and the reception which followed at the Devers home, the bride's mother wore a sheath of ice blue brocade satin with rhinestone trim, and matching hat of blue flowers. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of sheer blue embroidered cotton and pink accessories. Their corsages were white orchids.

Yellow flowers decorated the church for the ceremony, and the Devers home for the reception.

Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel and Mrs. Eugene DeVoe presided at the punch bowls. Mrs. John Laden and Mrs. Frances Flinn poured coffee and Mrs. Fred Brennan cut the wedding cake. Assisting were Mrs. Robert Naumes, Mrs. Marjory Olds, Mrs. Ronald McKenna and Mrs. Donald McClintock. Miss Jane Killingsworth took charge of the guest book and Miss Rose Widmer, the gifts.

Anita and Linda Jarmin passed rice and the bridegroom's cake.

The cake was cut with a knife loaned by Mrs. John Lynch. The newlyweds are traveling to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., on their wedding trip. The bride's traveling attire was a navy blue and white suit and white accessories.
