

Mr. and Mrs. Monte Clifford Voight (Ferebee photo)

Miss Nyback Wed To Medford Man

Klamath Falls — Miss Sandra Lucille Nyback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alrick Nyback, 3814 South Sixth street, became the bride of Monte Clifford Voight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Voight, 5 Valley View drive, Medford, at a ceremony August 7 in the First Presbyterian church. Dr. D. Kirkland West, minister at the First Presbyterian church, Medford, read the rites.

Woodwardia fern, candles, white gladioli and Happiness roses decorated the altar. Pew bouquets of the same roses decorated the aisles. Robert Blair, Portland, was soloist, and Miss Susan Williams was organist.

Mr. Nyback escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a Bianchi original gown of candlelight silk mist, embellished with hand-drawn Alencon lace over-embroidered with tiny pearls, and she carried a Bible topped with an arrangement of white Cattleya and Heringsonia orchids and white elf rosebuds.

Miss Maureen Byrd, Forest Grove, a sorority sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Reed, the bride's cousin; Miss Gail Voight, Medford, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Janie Stinson, Medford, the bridegroom's cousin, and Miss Evelyn Vaughn, Portland, another sorority sister of the bride.

Miss Carol McFadyen, cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. The attendants' gowns, of misty blue silk organza over matching blue taffeta, were princess style, with scoop necklines and shirred short sleeves. Bias bands and silk organza roses trimmed the gowns.

They wore pale blue satin shoes and gloves and carried cascade bouquets of small garnet and deep red Happiness roses.

Susie Soran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Soran, was flower girl.

Edward Paul Tucker, Roseburg, served as best man. Ushers were Henry Wilkins, Olex, Ore.; Tom Olson and William Culp, Portland; Gary Baker, Lakeview; Gary Benedict, McMinnville; Richard Seideman, Orrin Ormsbee and John Weber. All are fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Jimmie Stinson, cousin of the bridegroom, was junior usher, and two cousins of the bride, Michael McFadyen and Rex Reed, lighted candles.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nyback wore a mauve silk organza lace sheath dress with pink satin shoes and gloves and a velvet hat of magenta and mauve. Her corsage was of magenta Brazzo orchids.

Mrs. Voight chose a broad-edged satin sheath of azure blue, accented with darker blue velvet accessories. She wore deep purple orchids.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. A fountain, arranged with pink and white flowers, was placed back of the receiving line. Large baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the rooms and arrangements of pink Aristocrat roses and sprays of glass wheat were on the bride's table. Roses and rubrum lilies encircled the punch bowls.

Miss Helen Blanas and Miss Kathleen Hepburn cut the cake. Mrs. Arthur Reed, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Harry Scribner, aunt of the bridegroom, poured coffee. Mrs. Eugene Bailie was at the gift table; Miss Yvonne Bailey at the punch table, and Miss Ann Scribner, cousin of the bridegroom, at the punch bowl. Taking charge of the guest book was Miss Sharon Lantz.

Fraternity brothers of the bridegroom sang the Sigma Phi Epsilon Sweetheart song as they approached the newlyweds in the receiving line.

The young couple traveled to Banff, Alberta, Canada, on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a pink and white ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of white Cattleya orchids.

In Portland The newlyweds will make their home in Portland after September 10 and the bridegroom will enter his senior year at Lewis and Clark college.

The bride, a graduate of Klamath Union High school in 1958, attended Pacific university for two years as a music major, and will transfer to Multnomah college to study business next month.

She is a member of Theta Nu Alpha sorority and was a vocalist with the Pacific University Singers. The bridegroom is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, Intercollegiate Knights and the Palatinate society.

Coming from Medford, in addition to those in the wedding party, were the bridegroom's father and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smeltzer, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Williamson, Mrs. D. Kirkland West and son, Bruce.

Also in Klamath Falls for the event were the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Janie Voight, Nampa, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Helfer, Mendocino, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Beck, Walnut Creek, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Allen, Santa Rosa, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. William Bond, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Gyle Lewis, Lebanon, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tucker, Roseburg.

A rehearsal dinner and dance for the wedding party was held at the Reames club Saturday evening.

Mrs. Donald Martin Staley (Ansgar photo)

Staley-Flack Ceremony Held in Boise Cathedral

An event of August 15 in Boise, Idaho, was the wedding of Miss Ellen Dian Flack to Donald Martin Staley. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Percy Gill Flack, Boise, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Staley, Eagle Point.

The ceremony was read at 6 o'clock in the evening at St. Michael's cathedral, and the reception was held at Hillcrest Country club. About 300 guests attended.

The bride's gown of antique ivory peau de soie with pearl-embroidered Alencon lace was fashioned with scalloped neckline, three-quarter sleeves and chapel-length train. She wore her mother's full-length Brussels lace veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and spider chrysanthemums.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Jo Ginevra, New York City, a former Stanford university classmate and New York roommate of the bride. She wore a frock of deep coral chiffon with matching picture hat and shoes. Her flowers were white. Robert Bosworth, Medford, was best man for Mr. Staley and ushers were Thomas G. Staley Jr., New York City, brother of the bridegroom, James Ragland, Medford, and Bradford Scudder, William Langroise, J. L. Scott and Stanton Daly, Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Staley Sr. were in Boise for the wedding and reception and the social events given for the bride and bridegroom. Others in Boise for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Russell, Mrs. Bosworth and Mrs. Ragland all Medford, and the bridegroom's sister-in-law.

Mr. Staley and his bride were in Medford and Eagle Point briefly last week and then left for a trip up the Oregon and Washington coast to Seattle. They will have a home near the bridegroom's parents on the Rogue river.

Mr. and Mrs. Staley Jr. and their children, Michael and Marc, left last week to return to the East coast.

Ceremony In Garden Weds Pair

The wedding of Mrs. Matie Perkett, Phoenix, to Elmer J. Hopkins, Central Point, took place the evening of August 11 at the Edgar Cruce home, 340 DeBarr avenue. Mrs. Cruce is a daughter of the bride.

The Rev. James K. Pack of the Pentecostal Church of God, Central Point, performed the ceremony in the garden. Bouquets of gladioli added to the outdoor setting.

The bride wore a dress of blue satin overlaid with blue nylon lace. It was designed with a V neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds centered with a lavender orchid.

Miss Joyce Perkett, Talent, a granddaughter of the bride, was her attendant. She wore a blue nylon frock with white floral design and carried a bouquet of small roses.

Debra Cruce, another granddaughter was flower girl and Daniel Stewart, Hill, Calif., a grandson, was ring bearer.

Richard Bottger, Jacksonville, a grandson of the bridegroom, was best man. Elza Perkett, Talent, eldest son of the bride, gave his mother in marriage.

Miss Ladonna Cruce, the bride's granddaughter, played wedding music. The bride's daughters, Mrs. Cruce and Mrs. Henry Bottger, gave a reception following the wedding.

The newlyweds are making their home at route 2, box 202. Mr. Hopkins is a night watchman at Cascade Lumber company.

Event Planned By 'Watchdogs'

Several months ago a national magazine featured an article called "Watchdogs in High Heels". Many of these "watchdogs" live in the Rogue Valley.

They are members of the Medford League of Women Voters who will be hostesses at a picnic luncheon for new members Wednesday, August 31, at the home of Mrs. Harry Danielson, 2316 Siskiyou blvd.

The luncheon will be served at 12:30 with a program including swimming and bridge to follow.

The meeting is open to the public so that any women interested in learning the league program are welcome to attend. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. R. W. Schwann at SPRING 2-8825.

"Come and meet the watchdogs and find out what they watch and where they do their watching," the committee says.

Relatives Visit At Laurine Home

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zerald Laurine, and Mrs. Elsie Cushings, 396 Pierce road, were relatives of Mr. Laurine. Mrs. Cushings is his mother.

They included Mr. and Mrs. James Frost and son, Earl, Newport Beach, Calif., brother-in-law and sister; Mr. and Mrs. Zeneph Laurine and daughter, Zoanne, Portland, brother and sister-in-law; and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jeffries, daughter and son, Zoetta and David.

All of Mrs. Cushings' children have names beginning with the letter Z. Mrs. Frost's named Zenobia and Mrs. Jeffries, her granddaughter,

Gifts for the BRIDE

CHINA — CRYSTAL SILVERWARE
Check The BRIDES REGISTER

717 EAST MAIN MEDFORD, OREGON

Where you find the clothes you love to live in.

jean hart's
617 East Main • Phone SP 2-8992

Bernhard Altmann

New Transition of a Brilliant Classic!

Neo-classic look: the pullover, a pure thoroughbred with saddle-stitched shoulders, double rib cuffs and higher neckline that buttons in back for non-stretch fit. Softest Bernamer incomparably soft. Storm blue, white, sand, poppy red, seal brown. Sizes 34 to 40, $12.95. Matching neo-classic cardigan, $19.95.

Exclusively at...

jean hart's
617 East Main • Phone SP 2-8992

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Carmichael, 103 Jeanette avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lee, to Lawrence Dale Dunshee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Dunshee, Little Applegate. Miss Carmichael was graduated from Medford High school. The bridegroom-to-be, a seaman first class in the United States Navy, is stationed at San Diego. He attended Jacksonville High school. The wedding is planned for the summer of 1961.

September Rites Planned by Pair

Provolt—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sakraida of Provolt announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Patrick Carl Barrett, Grants Pass.

Both were graduated from Grants Pass High school with the class of 1959. Miss Sakraida is employed as a dental assistant in the office of Dr. William D. Penny, Grants Pass. Her fiance will return this fall to Southern Oregon college in Ashland, where he is a sophomore in pre-dentistry. He is employed by the Bureau of Land Management, Medford.

The wedding will be an event of September 8 in Sacred Heart Catholic church, Medford.

Monday Open Nites 'Til 9

Bless that Sole!

There's news in the new neutral color — and the cushion crepe sole that feels so bouncy as you race to class! See this brushed leather softy with a classic look. $8.95

life stride
the young point of view in shoes

in Grape and Black

park Shop

Johnston and Stewart

The Corner Shoe Store
CENTRAL AT MAIN MEDFORD

Family Returns From Mexico Stay

Happy Camp — Mrs. Ruby-grace Applegate and children have returned from a vacation trip to Mexico. They traveled by plane to Puerto Vallarta, Jalisco, where they enjoyed boating, swimming and fishing.

Mrs. Applegate is a teacher in the Happy Camp High school. Her three older children, Barbara, David and Douglas will return to Berkeley, Calif., this fall to go to school. Barbara, who was graduated last spring from Berkeley High school, will enter the University of California.

Visit Sister

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. Charles Gile have been a number of out-of-state relatives, including her brother, Walter Haynes, Jacksonville, Fla., a sister, and Mrs. Dorothy Gould, Hollywood, Calif.

Mrs. Gile and her brother had not seen each other for 53 years and spent much time recalling the years when they were young people in Kansas. Mr. Haynes has been in the office supply business for 40 years. Mrs. Gould, who visits here each summer, is employed by a Methodist church publishing house.

It's from Brophy's Medford
Serving So. Ore. & No. California for over 30 Years

SIR CHRISTOPHER STRADIVARI MEADOW ROSE

Wallace

Grand Baroque

Six-piece place setting $38.75
Federal tax included

Debutante by Wallace

a new sterling pattern that is as traditional as the lovely deb about to be presented to Society — that is modern, too, with sleek, flowing lines emanating from the sculptured warmth of one perfect rose. In third dimension beauty, it has the perfection of simplicity.

park Shop

Brophy's JEWELERS

MEDFORD, OREGON

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced
for Over a Quarter of a Century