Newlyweds Make Home In Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Charles Emden are making their home at 122 Mistletoe street following their wedding July 17 in Zion Lutheran church. The bride is the former Carol Mae Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Severson, 604 Plum street. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Emden, Cedar Grove, N.J.

The vows were read by the Rev. H. C. Coovert at two o'clock in the afternoon. Pink and white gladioli and carnations decorated the church.

The bride wore a pastel pink street-length gown of sheer nylon over pink taffeta, with pink satin accessories. Her flowers were pink and white carnations with a cascade of stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds attended the couple and Melvin G. Frick, Central Point, brother of the bride, and John Austbo were ushers. Mrs. Reynolds wore a dress of pale yellow dimity. Her flowers were white carnations with yellow rosebuds.

Miss Nancy Frick, niece of the bride, was candlelighter. Miss Linda Severson, sister of the bride, was at the guest book and Miss Ruth Coovert played the organ.

Mrs. Arthur Taylor, Cedar Grove, N.J., the bridegroom's aunt, cut the cake at the reception which followed at the church. Mrs. Gus Priebe, Myrtle Point, served punch.

Pink and white carnations and matching candles decorated the room.

The newlyweds traveled to southern California and Mexico on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a pink traveling suit with white accessories.

The bridegroom attended Paul Smith's college, New York, and Utah State university. He is a forester with the bureau of land management.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the bridegroom's parents and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor, Cedar Grove, N.J., and Gus Priebe, Myrtle Point.

A reception held August 7 at the Pythian building honored Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cook on their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Cook, who were married in Marysville, Mo., have lived in Medford 25 years.

Reception Honors Cooks

Jacksonville - Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cook, 400 Oak street, were honored August 7 at a reception which observed their golden wedding anniversary. The event was held in the Pythian hall, Medford, with a group of Pythian Sisters in charge. Mrs. Cook has been a member of the lodge for many years.

Mrs. H. M. Curtis, daughter of the honored couple from Sacramento, Calif., and her daughter, Suzette, were here for the event.

Mrs. Cook wore a dress of beige nylon lace and her corsage was of pink carnations.

The refreshment table was centered with gold colored gladioli, arranged by Mrs. Donald Anderson.

Mrs. Ben Anderson, niece of the couple, served the anniversary cake. Mrs. Charles Franks, Phoenix, poured punch and Mrs. W. L. Michael, the coffee. Mrs. Curtis took charge of gifts and her daughter, the guest book.

Mrs. Howard J. Veal sang a group of favorite songs, and Mrs. Edward Bostwick accompanied her. Mrs. Ida Ireland gave a reading in the couple's honor.

Mrs. Harry Bryant was chairman in charge of arrangements and she was assisted by Mrs. P. M. Aldredge and Mrs. W. A. Grochocki. About 65 guests attended the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook were married in Marysville, Mo., in 1910 and have lived in Medford the past 25 years. They were the original owners of Cooks Beauty shop.

Sister Here

Mrs. Lester Huffstader, Bend, Ore., is a guest at the home of her sister Mrs. Betty Clause, and daughter Patty, 311 south "B" street, Eagle Point. The Bend woman is also visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay, 2235 Springbrook road.
