

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. McCarty

Couple Weds In Ceremony At Church

Miss Marie Swearingen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Swearingen, 704 West Second street, became the bride of Charles L. McCarty, Notus, Idaho, in a ceremony August 6 in the Southern Baptist church. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCarty, Notus.

Chaplain Roger Prior, White City, performed the ceremony at 7 o'clock in the evening before a group of friends and relatives. Baskets of pink and white gladioli formed a setting for the service.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a light blue dress and carried a white Bible encircled with lilies of the valley. Miss Nancy Barnes, who was maid of honor, wore a brown and white dress with a pink and white carnation corsage.

Robert McCarty, Notus, Idaho, was best man for his brother. Mrs. J. J. Hobbs played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Clyde Smith, Jacksonville, who sang.

For the event the bride's mother wore a slate blue dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue frock and both wore corsages of white chrysanthemums.

A reception following the wedding was held at the Swearingen home. Thirty-five guests attended. Mrs. Rollie Davis cut the cake and Miss Linda McCarty, sister of the bridegroom, served. Miss Sharon Davis was in charge of gifts and Miss Allene Chausse took charge of the guest book.

The rooms were decorated in pink and white, and a matching candelabra, loaned by Mrs. Paul Walker, was used with pink and white gladioli on the bride's table.

Herb cookies and herb tea were served by the hostess, Mrs. John Hollis, and Mrs. Shangle, co-hostesses.

Former Residents Visitors in Gold Hill; Californians Here

Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. George Hammersley, Yreka, Calif., former Gold Hill residents, were honored at a neighborhood picnic held in the adjoining yards of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Matney and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Martin on Second avenue last Sunday. Others attending the event were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ferguson, and Mrs. Blanche Merriman.

Guests for two days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kendal Dufur and family were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Houser, from Compton, Calif.

Miss Jean Taber Married To Jerry Nelson Kucera

Miss Jean Taber became the bride of Jerry Nelson Kucera in a ceremony in the First Methodist church Sunday, August 14, at 2 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carys Taber, 827 Palm street, Medford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kucera, Sun Valley, Calif.

Dr. George Roseberry, minister of the First Methodist church, performed the double ring ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Charles Adamson and vocal numbers were by Mrs. Milton Snow. Baskets of pink gladioli decorated the church.

The bride's gown of white silk organza over taffeta was trimmed with appliques of lace dotted with seed pearls and sequins, and her shoulder length veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was fashioned with stephanotis and pink rosebuds.

Miss Tamara Smith, the maid of honor, wore pink silk organza with embroidered bodice and a short veil of pink net trimmed with chiffon velvet flowers. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds and carnations.

The other attendants were Mrs. Ronald Lingron and Mrs. Richard Anderson, who wore matching dresses of aquamarine silk organza and short veils of aquamarine net with chiffon velvet flowers. They carried bouquets of pink roses and carnations.

Esper Silvester was the best man, and William Morse and Dave Morris seated the guests.

Mrs. Esper Silvester was the bridegroom's honored guest, substituting for his parents who were unable to attend. She wore a beige dress with matching jacket and black accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride's mother wore a pale pink frock with embroidered bodice and pink accessories. Her flowers were pink rosebuds and white carnations.

A reception was held in the church following the wedding, with 125 guests attending. The

Anniversary Celebrated By Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Wood, 1101 Spring street, were honored recently at an old-fashioned family gathering celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

Relatives attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson and their children, Sammy, Jerry, and Judy, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. James Crangle and their sons Harold and Gary, Oakland, Calif. Mr. Anderson is Mrs. Wood's nephew and Mrs. Crangle is her niece.

Medford guests were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jahn and their children Julie, Sue, Philip, and Lillabet. Mrs. Jahn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wood. Another daughter, Miss Doris Wood, Oakland, and son, the Rev. Harold A. Wood and his wife and children James and Pamela, from Billings, Mont., were unable to be present.

The Wood home was decorated with flowers and the many cards which they received from friends and relatives from all parts of the country. The flowers were golden chrysanthemums and the gladioli that had earlier decorated St. Peter's Lutheran church in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Wood are members of the church and had attended one of the morning services where the student pastor, Vicar John Kliffner, said a prayer in their behalf.

The highlight of the family get-together was the cutting of the golden wedding cake which was served with homemade ice cream. The cake was made and decorated by the Wood's daughter, Mrs. Jahn, and their granddaughters, Julie, Sue, and Lillabet Jahn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood were married in Omaha, Neb., and made their home in Tripp county, South Dakota, where both homesteaded in 1909. Mr. Wood was in business in Colome, S.D., from 1913 to 1931. From 1931 to 1941 both Mr. and Mrs. Wood were in business in Marion, S.D., and in Luverne, Minn.

Mr. Wood was an insurance agent in Luverne for 15 years until the time of his retirement in 1951 when the family home was moved to Medford.

Guests Here

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Skaggs and sons, Stephen and Richard, Grenada Hills, Calif., are guests of Mrs. Skaggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Schmidt, 325 Fourth street. They are also visiting Mrs. Skaggs' sister, Mrs. Jack Fitzgerald, Woodlawn drive.

One-Man Show Set At Gallery

A one-man show of paintings and sculpture by Warren Wolf will open Tuesday, August 24 at the Rogue gallery, 220 West Main street. Mr. Wolf is a well known southern Oregon artist and instructor at Medford High school.

The Rogue Valley Art association announced that the exhibit will continue through September 13. The gallery is open daily, except Mondays, from noon until 4 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Thirty or more works collected for the exhibit represents "a growing concern to discover something vital in relation to the inner spirit of man," Mr. Wolf said. "The progression is a search for the true nature of man."

He stated that his work over the past three or four years "has been concerned with some of the great, but fundamental and basic, messages of the Bible that are universal in their content to all mankind, as art, too, must be."

Some of the exhibits were shown in galleries and museums in major shows. Persons who would like to meet the artist are invited to attend the preview and reception honoring Mr. Wolf Tuesday, August 23, from 8 to 10 p.m.
