

Mr. and Mrs. J. Michael Lewis (Hughes photo)

Diane Melissa Gourley Bride of Michael Lewis

Ashland - Miss Diane Melissa Gourley became the bride of J. Michael Lewis Saturday, August 13, in a ceremony in Trinity Episcopal church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Gourley, 1875 Siskiyou boulevard, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Grace Donnelly, 423 North Main street.

The Rev. Duane Alvord officiated at the service, which was read at two o'clock in the afternoon in a setting of orchid and white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Edna Dougherty was organist.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of Alencon lace and tulle over taffeta, with fitted bodice, three-quarter-length sleeves and sweetheart neckline. The front of her full skirt had alternating panels of lace and tulle detailed with lace appliques and the back was styled with a cascade of tulle ruffles. A cap of lace and tulle, embroidered with pearls, held her elbow-length veil of silk illusion.

The bride's bouquet was of white carnations and pink roses.

Mrs. Lawrence D. Gourley, Grants Pass, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of orchid chiffon over satin. The fitted bodice had cap sleeves and a cummerbund of purple satin. She carried a white prayer book with pink roses.

Wayne Niehaus, Central Point, was best man. Ushers were Charles R. Gourley, the bride's brother, and Ben G. Pool, uncle of the bride, both of Crater Lake National park. The bride's parents gave a reception at their home following the ceremony. Cake was served by Mrs. Charles Booth and Mrs. Nora Page, Klamath Falls, aunts of the bride, and was served by Mrs. Ben Pool and Mrs. Fred Carlisle, Crater Lake National park, also aunts of the bride. Mrs. Wayne Niehaus, Central Point, was in charge of the guestbook. Mrs. Jeanne Grisland and Mrs. James Driscoll assisted with gifts.

The young couple traveled to Seattle, Wash., where the bridegroom is stationed with the United States Navy. For traveling the bride wore a sleeve dress of blue cuponi with white polka dots and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The bridegroom attended schools in Roseburg and the bride was graduated from Ashland High school last spring.

Nieces Are Guest Of Hornbrook Family

Hornbrook - Mr. and Mrs. Barney Johnson, Kansas City, Mo., and their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Perrin, Prairie Village, Kan., arrived Monday evening for a visit at the home of Mrs. Johnson is Mr. Adams' niece. The Adams plan to take their guests to Crater lake and other points of interest in southern Oregon and northern California during their stay here.

Hornbrook - Mrs. George Smith and sons, Rusty and Jackie, spent last week in Hayward, Calif., visiting Mrs. Smith's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Norvil Hanke, and son. Mr. Smith drove to Chico on Sunday to bring them home.

Children To Be Topic Of WSCS

"Work Among Children" is the theme of the program being planned for the meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in First Methodist church on Tuesday, August 23.

Mrs. Preston Hobbs, who is in charge of the program, will be assisted by three speakers. Miss Nancy Duncan will report to the group on Senior High Institute held at Dead Indian Sodalite camp in July. She was one of 19 Medford youth who attended the week there. Mrs. Kenneth R. Blair will speak on the work and program of the vacation Bible school which closed early this month. Mrs. L. L. Lollis will describe the activities of the laboratory school training of church school teachers which she attended in June.

Mrs. John Kent is planning the worship service for the day and assisting her will be five high school girls, the Misses Jeannine James, Sharon Smith, Susan Garner, Barbara Walker and Nancy Duncan.

Activities for this Woman's Society day begin at 9:30 with devotions, followed at 10 a.m. by the business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Milton Snow. The program will begin at 11 a.m.

Circle 1, under the direction of Mrs. Omar Bacon and Mrs. Cleo Epps, will serve the luncheon at 12:15 p.m. A nursery is provided throughout the day for pre-school children. All members and interested persons are invited to attend.

Many Travellers Visit Hornbrook In Recent Days

Hornbrook - Many visitors have been in Hornbrook recently to spend some time with relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward M. Smith and children, Michael and Karen Marie, Orland, Calif., were week end guests of Dr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nye were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wingert, Mesa, Ariz., and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Collier, Klamath Falls. The three couples are long-time friends, and had not seen each other for several years.

Robert Russell, Roseville, Calif., spent the week end here with his mother, Mrs. Mildred Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Adams and two daughters visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ardon Burns. The Adams' were en route to their home at Bellflower, Calif., after a vacation trip to Yellowstone park.

Mrs. Rose MacKinnon left Tuesday for her home in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, after three weeks' visit here with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John MacKinnon, and daughter, Patty.

Stanley Plummer, Walla Walla, Wash., well known West coast harpsichord player, will be featured for the second time in a Sunday afternoon concert series of the Oregon Shakespearean festival in Ashland. The concert is planned for 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the theater. (Dwaine Smith photo)

Program Announced For Festival Concert Today

Ashland - Stanley Plummer, harpsichordist from Whitman college, will again be featured in the Sunday afternoon Oregon Shakespearean festival concert here. The concert is set for today at 4:30 at the Festival theater.

Mr. Plummer was on the program last Sunday. Additional soloists this afternoon will be Miss Sheila Schuerman, vocalist from Medford, Mrs. Rossmie Taylor, festival lute player, and Ted Lawson, trumpeter, a member of the acting company.

Mr. Plummer, who has concertized extensively on the West Coast, will play Elizabethan songs for harpsichord. Miss Schuerman will sing "Passing By," by Edward Purcell; "O 'Tis The Melody," by T. H. Bayly, and "When Love is Kind," an old English song.

Mrs. Taylor will play "The Green Willow," "Queen's Mary's Dump," "Pavan," "The Huntingtower Ballad," and a French Canadian dancing song.

Visit Grandmother

Hornbrook - Stephen Wyatt and Victor Snyder, Medford, are spending a week with their grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp, and their uncle, Charles Bloomingcamp, Hornbrook. They were brought south by Stephen's mother, Mrs. R. D. Wyatt, 725 Sunrise avenue, and will return with Victor's mother Mrs. Marge Snyder, 625 1/2 West Jackson street.

Paul and Teresa Wyatt and Karen Snyder made the trip with Mrs. Wyatt.

Council Announces Institute

At a recent meeting of the board of Medford Council of United Church Women, plans were laid for the coming fall Mission Institute. It is to be held in Eastwood Baptist church under the leadership of Mrs. Melvin Hoover Friday, September 23.

It has been announced that no luncheon is to be held during this fall session and that books will be grouped for briefing. It has been the custom to consider a large number of books separately thus making an over long session of reviews, state those making the plans.

Mrs. Violet Ricken will conduct devotions.

Theme for home mission study is "Heritage and Horizons in Home Missions." The foreign mission theme is "Into All the World Together." The study books will be sold at the close of the session.

Plans for the World Community Day program are also being considered and will be directed by Mrs. Byron Pierce. Children's clothing and piece goods are requested and also home medical kits. Night gowns having open front yokes for children from 2 to 10 are also listed among the needs.

The Mission Institute opens at 9:30 a.m. and will close at 12 noon. A nursery will care for small children, it is stated.

Swim Party

Valley alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta sorority will entertain active members at a swim party Monday, August 22, at the home of Mrs. John Crawford, 1503 East Main street. The event is set for 7:30 p.m.
