The Medical Roundup

by Walter Alvarez

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic
Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Clinic

The Idea of Putting Back Something Each Day Into A Depleted Bank of Health

Hundreds of times in my medical life I have been consulted by a man (or woman) who for months or years had been straining every nerve to accomplish something.

Eventually outraged nature said she had taken enough punishment and wouldn't stand any more. She said the person would have to quit and take a rest or else there would be a nervous breakdown.

I remember a nice friendly man whose main cigar store and seven branches burned up in the great San Francisco fire in 1906. For the next several years he worked day and night to rebuild his business, and then he went into a mental slump. He came to me, asking what he could do.

I said to him that he was like a man who had drawn out and spent recklessly every cent he had in the bank. Now, what he had to do was to try so to live that each day he could put back in the bank of health a little of the strength he had "blown in." If he did this for a year or two he would probably not only feel well and strong again, but he would have some reserve strength with which to meet some emergency which might arise, like a death in the family, or some other such disaster.

Always, I say to these people who are close to a nervous breakdown, "Do recognize the early symptoms – such as an inability to take in what you are reading – and back up before you go over the edge. Why? Because once a man goes over the edge, it may be very hard to get him back. He hasn't the strength with which to help himself; perhaps he will be quite unable to sleep, and perhaps then every sedative drug will work the wrong way – more like a stimulant."

Often in these cases, when the patient is too tense to relax, too tired to sleep, too mixed-up physically and psychically to react rightly to drugs, and too jumpy to profit from a vacation, his poor doctor doesn't know what to do to help him.

Sometimes, then, he can help himself and start working back to health by resting on a couch. Saturdays and Sundays; going to bed early each night and, often taking barbiturate with the hope of getting sleep. For a few months he must not be afraid of these sleep-makers. If he has any sense at all, he won't get a habit.

Actually, I think there are hundreds of persons right now in mental hospitals who would not be there if, when their ability to sleep left them, they had immediately taken barbiturates in quantities adequate to give them sleep.

Dr. Alvarez' booklet "Triumph Over Nervousness" may be obtained by sending 25 cents and a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Dr. Walter C. Alvarez, Dept. MMT, The Register and Tribune Syndicate, Box 957, Des Moines 4, Iowa.

Carole Admits Carrying 'Kit'

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Preliminary hearing testimony by Carole Tregoff admitting she carried a so-called "murder kit" for Dr. R. Bernard Finch and had been intimate with him was read Tuesday at the couple's second murder trial.

The testimony was admitted over objections by Grant Cooper, attorney for Finch.

Superior Judge Leroy Dawson this morning reversed a ruling he made Wednesday and admonished the jury to consider Miss Tregoff's statements as evidence only against her and not against the surgeon.

Prosecutor Joe Powers read the testimony to the jurors. The testimony was not admitted at the first murder trial which ended with a hung jury.

The victory won by the prosecution clearly pointed up a major discrepancy in Carole's story about her actions on the night Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch, 33, was shot to death July 18, 1959.

Deadline Set For Suggestions

Salem—(UPI)—Persons who have ideas about proposed changes in state regulations for feeding garbage to swine or inspection of poultry and rabbits should contact the state department of agriculture by Sept. 15.

Major change in the voluntary poultry inspection regulations would require two rooms for poultry slaughter.

Another rule would require hot water for daily cleaning of all processing floors.

The change in garbage feeding rules involves a general tightening up on sanitation, drainage, cooking and construction requirements.

Police Fire To Disperse Crowd

Leopoldville, The Congo – (UPI) – Police fired into the air Thursday to disperse an anti-government crowd in front of a hall where Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba was making the keynote speech to the Pan-African People's conference.

The incident came not long after Baluba tribal leader Albert Kalonji had appealed to Katanga President Moise Tshombe for military aid to fight off Congolese troops sweeping rapidly through the so-called "mining state" in a move that threatened bloody civil war.

The Congolese troops were part of the forces being massed by Lumumba for action against secessionists in Katanga and Kasai provinces.

Requisitioned airliners flew an estimated 1,000 native troops to southwestern Kasai Wednesday in apparent preparation for all-out attack on the so-called "Mining State" proclaimed there by opposition leader Albert Kalonji.

Lane Man Named Blood Banks Chief

San Francisco – (UPI) – Dr. Keith D. McMillan, director of Lane county bloodbank of Eugene, was named by the American Association of Blood Banks as president-elect for 1961.

He was chosen Wednesday at the group's 13th annual meeting. McMillan will succeed Dr. John R. Schenken, director of laboratories at Nebraska Methodist Hospital, Omaha, Neb.

Nixon Says He'll Fight on Issues

Washington—(UPI)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon served notice Thursday he is ready and willing to campaign on the controversial issues fought out in the pre-election session of Congress such as medical care for the aged.

The GOP presidential candidate's Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy, already has said he will carry the fight for his proposals to the voters if Congress does not approve them.

Nixon, just back from a one-day trip to Detroit, made plans for at least two more visits to heavily unionized Michigan. Unlike his "non-political" address Wednesday to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, he said his next trips would involve political talk "in spades."

The vice president planned to preside at the opening of the Senate session today.
