Nazarene Group Announces Camp Sunday Subjects

August is camp month in the Church of the Nazarene of the Oregon Pacific district since the church owns and operates its own camp located at Clackamas.

Several of the young people from the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., Medford, are presently attending the youth camp this week...

Some 200 are participating, the local pastor, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, announces. A number of new facilities have been added to the camp ground to make it more acceptable, he said...

Included are an enclosed swimming pool, tennis and shuffleboard courts, and baseball diamonds. Next week the boys' camp for the western Oregon district will be held, with several of the boys 9 to 13 years of age attending from the local church.

Announces Topics Pastor Sanner has announced his subjects for Sunday. In the 11 a.m. service, which is broadcast over KDOV, his subject will be "One Died For All. His evening service is titled "How To Be Happy and Still Be Alive."

The Men's fellowship of the Nazarene church is sponsoring the painting of the exterior of the buildings. This week they have been preparing the surface, and Saturday they will gather at 8 a.m. to put on the first coat. Max Goble is chairman of the group sponsoring this work.

Youth fellowship will meet today at 6 p.m. in the church for election of officers. The group will attend the play at First church, then return to Westminster for refreshments and devotions. The newly-elected officers will have a retreat at the Lawson's cabin on the Applegate Aug. 31 and Sept. 1.

Californians View Foundation Pageant Hornbrook - Mrs. Henley Clawsen, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Bray, Yreka, attended at Mt. Shasta City Sunday, a pageant presented by the St. Germain foundation at their sanctuary.

The pageant, entitled "I Am Come," depicts the life of Christ from birth to ascension, and included the portrayal of many of His activities. Appropriate music was piped throughout the natural amphitheater where the pageant was presented.

Mrs. Edna Ballard is head of the Foundation, whose sanctuary is the site of the former Shasta Spring resort. An estimated 5,000 persons attended Sunday's presentation of the annual pageant.

Robert Allen, Choir Set to Participate "The Divine Mystery" is the subject of the sermon which the Rev. Frederick Ross Evans will preach at both services Sunday at the First Christian church.

The youth choir under the direction of Mrs. William Palmer will sing "Come Ye Children Sweetly Singing" at the first service, and Robert Allen will play a violin solo, "Larghetto," at the second service.

THE REV. AND MRS. FLOYD POLLOCK To establish church in Minnesota

Minister To Start Church for Indians

Eagle Point - The Rev. and Mrs. Floyd Pollock have decided to help start a Mission church among the 21,000 Indians in Minneapolis, Minn., and left here Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Pollock is an ordained minister of the Christian Missionary Alliance and started his work with the Indians in 1926 at Naytah Wash, Minn.

At that time there had been Catholic and Episcopal missionaries there, but he started a church. After four years in Naytah Wash they moved to Cass Lake, Minn., where he worked over nine years with the Indians.

In 1941 the Rev. Mr. Pollock started a mission church in Bly, Ore., and the following spring and summer, they built a small church. Mr. and Mrs. Pollock spent about six months in Ashland, six months in Hugo, and upon moving to Eagle Point have been serving around the valley at different times, especially in Brownsboro and Eagle Point.

Mr. Pollock said he has had four calls to open the mission in Minneapolis, and in June, he, his wife, and son, Paul, went there on vacation and decided to return to his intended work. He will be doing evangelistic work in the five states of Montana, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, and Wisconsin until he gets his mission established.

The Pollocks will make their home in Minneapolis until Paul, now a freshman, is through high school. Mr. Pollock has been asked to conduct special services at Cass Lake for 12 days starting Nov. 1. The Pollocks have been living with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ragsdale, Crater Lake highway, Eagle Point.

Interim pastors and speakers have delivered the sermons during the month of August, and the Rev. Clifford J. Young and family will return next week after their vacation.

Sunday church school begins at 9:45 a.m. and morning worship at 11. The builders class is having a barbecue tonight at the Robert Blacketer home. Class members will meet at 7 p.m. at the Rogue Valley hospital and proceed in a caravan.

Pastor Announces Subject of Sermon "Witnessing for Jesus" is the topic for Sunday's sermon by the Rev. John E. Simon, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church, East Main at Vancouver ave. The services begin at 8:15 and 11 a.m., and Sunday school is at 9:30 a.m.

The Church Council of St. Peter's met Wednesday night to consider plans for the coming season. The kindergarten, taught by Mrs. Emil Tams, will open Sept. 13. Confirmation classes, both for children and adults, are now being organized.

Events of the future include the Oregon State Walter League convention, Sept. 9-11, a Sunday school teachers' institute, a training course for the Sunday school staff, the Southern Oregon Circuit meeting, an every-member stewardship visitation, attendance by the pastor of the National Counselors and Fiscal Conference of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod at Valparaiso, Ind., and his attendance at the District Leaders' and the District Fiscal conferences in Portland.

The present arrangement of conducting two services each Sunday will continue until Sept. 18, when the early service will be discontinued.

Missionaries To Show Pictures of Bolivians Talent - Mr. and Mrs. John Kunkle, missionaries currently on furlough from their work in Bolivia, will speak at the Talent Methodist church Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

They are to show pictures illustrating their work and the way of life in Bolivia. Everyone interested is invited.
