

Nitrogen Too Wins Silver Cup

Detroit-UPB - Nitrogen Too owned by Samuel Du Pont of Wilmington, Del., and driven by Ron Musson, outran the field of seven on the Detroit river Saturday to capture the 15th running of the Silver cup.

The Du Pont boat's sister racer, Nitrogen, driven by Normal Evans, swept to a tie for second with the favored Miss Thriftway, owned by Willard Rhodes of Seattle and driven in the race by Bill Muncey.

Wild Bill Cantrell driving Gale V owned by Joe Schoenlith of Detroit appeared to wash out in the final heat and did not finish. Gale V was in contention until the next to the last lap of the heat as Cantrell battled Muncey for second position and a shot at the leading Nitrogen Too.

They appeared to be washing each other on the turns and in the fourth lap of the three-mile course Gale V was left dead in the water on the second turn.

Miss Buffalo Last
Miss Buffalo, owned by Chester Hardt's syndicate and driven by Bob Schroeder, was the final finisher as Thunderbolt, another Detroit boat owned by George Zigas and driven by Walter Kade, failed to finish.

Such Crust, Detroit's Jack Schaefer's boat driven by Leo Macutza, broke down on the second lap of the fourth heat and did not run in the final. By points Nitrogen Too racked up 1100 for finishing first twice and second in her third heat. Musson posted the best lap time, 105.88, the best heat time, 103.84 and ran the final heat in 103.7 miles an hour in blazing to victory.

Thriftway and Nitrogen finished with 925 points and Gale V, although she failed to finish the final heat, came out of the race with 700 on the strength of a first and second in the preliminaries.

Thunderbolt, Miss Buffalo and Such Crust were ranked in that order on the point board.

SOC Schedule Adds Whitman

Asland - Last minute changes have placed Whitman college of Walla Walla, Wash. on the Southern Oregon college grid schedule Oct. 1, at 8 p.m. in Asland.

Moffatt Naval Air field had been the scheduled opponent for that date, but the Twelfth Naval district in California has cut the allotment for varsity football. As a result, Moffatt cancelled all of its games for the year.

Whitman is a member of the Northwest conference which includes such schools as Pacific, Lewis and Clark, Linfield, College of Idaho, and Willamette.

One other minor change has taken place on the Red Raider grid chart and that is the game time of the SOC-Oregon Tech battle. The classic had been set for 1:30 in the afternoon, but the kickoff has been moved to 8 p.m., Oct. 15.

Little more than a week separates the Raiders from their opening day of practice for the 1960 grid season which begins Sept. 6, at 9 a.m. with the initial meeting in the gym.

Chestnut Hill, Mass. - UPB - The powerful Australian teams of Neale Fraser and Roy Emerson and Rod Laver and Bob Mark turned the 80th National Doubles tournament into an all-Aussie final Saturday by defeating American tandems in semi-final play.

Laver and Mark, national champions of Australia, needed only 72 minutes to dispose of Wimbledon doubles champs Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., and Rafael Osuna of Mexico, 6-2, 8-6, 6-2.

British Wightman Cuppers Ann Haydon and little Deirdre Catt gained the women's final by beating Janis Hopps of Seattle, Wash., and Gwyneth Thomas of Shaker Heights, Ohio, 6-2, 12-10, in a 70-minute match.

The blonde, pony-tailed Miss Haydon and the four-foot, 11-inch Miss Catt moved easily through the opening set, which saw seven service breaks, four straight in the early minutes and three in a row before the left-handed Miss Haydon held for the deciding game.

Miss Haydon and Miss Catt, the top-ranked foreign girls, will meet Darlene Hard and Maria Bueno, the No. 1 American team, in today's final.

Southern Oregon Tourney Entries Exceed Record 400

For the first time in the history of the Labor Day holidays' classic at Rogue Valley Country club here entries in the Southern Oregon Golf championship exceed the 400 mark.

Co-Chairmen Darrell Miller and Bill Clark this week reported a total entry of 418 men and women for the 32nd annual tournament. This field includes 272 in the regular men's division, 93 in the ladies' and 53 in the senior men's.

The Southern Oregon formally opens next Wednesday, Aug. 31, with qualifying by out-of-valley contestants. Match play starts on Thursday and continues through Monday, Sept. 5, Labor Day. Rogue Valley club members are qualifying in advance.

The 418 entrant figure is not necessarily final. Dropouts could slightly cut the field. Still the Medford links event looms as the biggest, in size, golf tourney in Oregon this year. And, the field of strong contenders could make it one of the best.

Visiting golfers number 313 of the overall total. Portland's delegation alone is 90, almost equal the home course entry of 95. California participants number 76 from 28 different cities. Twenty-two linksters will come from clubs in Washington. Largest single club representation will be from Oswego which has 24 men and women registered in the tournament. Coos Bay will have 22 players here. Twenty will come from Eugene.

The huge field includes 68 men, five of them seniors, with four-stroke or under handicaps. There are 14 women with handicaps under 10.

Heading a group of six scratch (no-handicap) contestants is Dick Yost, Columbia-Edgewater, Portland, a Walker Cupper and ex-Oregon and Pacific Northwest open and amateur titlist. Others are Bob Atkinson, Portland Golf club, Oregon and Southern Oregon amateur champion three times each; Gene Maidment, Colwood, Portland, recent participant in the National Public Links tourney in Hawaii; Jack Mattison, Eugene; Charley Siver, Columbia-Edgewater, and Phil Underwood, Waverly, Portland.

Pre-Qualifying
Pre-qualifying by all men and women entrants residing in the Rogue River Valley will conclude on Tuesday, Aug. 30. Valley participants, both RVCC member and non-members must qualify by that date. High handicappers of the area have through Monday, Aug. 29, for their 18-hole preliminary rounds. Players aspiring for championship flight positions must qualify on Tuesday and are instructed to contact the pro-shop for starting times.
