Church Ceremony Marries Couple

Eagle Point - Miss Sharon Lee James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack K. James, Long Mountain road, Eagle Point, became the bride of Donald Eugene Wisely, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wisely, 97 Bigham lane, Central Point, at a ceremony August 20 in the First Presbyterian church. Dr. D. Kirkland West, minister at the First Presbyterian church, Medford, read the double ring service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her white silk organza gown of original design was fashioned with sweetheart neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and a full skirt with a bustle forming a chapel-length train. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and orchids.

Mrs. Richard Swinney, Medford, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Esther Smith and Miss Donna Shore, Medford. Miss Nyla Murray and Miss Marianne Samuelson, Medford, sorority sisters of the bride, were candle-lighters. The attendants' gowns of light and dark pink silk organza over matching pink taffeta, were sheath-style with bolero jackets. They wore rose satin shoes and white gloves, and carried cascade bouquets of white gladioli.

The candle-lighters wore sky-blue silk organza gowns over matching blue taffeta, fashioned with full skirts.

Attendants Named

Robert G. Christian, Medford, served as best man, and the ushers were Cecil Owings and Jerry Perkins, both of Medford. Dennis R. James and John K. James, the bride's brothers, also assisted at the wedding.

Pink and white gladioli, huckleberry greenery and white candles decorated the altar.

Miss Coleen Barr sang, and

Mrs. R. A. Sheldon was organist.

Mrs. James wore for her daughter's wedding a pale blue linen sheath with white accessories and a white linen hat. Her corsage was of pale pink rosebuds. Mrs. Wisely wore a pink linen sheath with white accessories and white rosebud corsage.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on the Rogue river. The bride's table was lighted by tall pink tapers in silver candleabra and the rooms and the patio were decorated with white wedding bells and baskets of pink and white gladioli. Tables in the garden were centered with small wedding bells on pink cloths.

The wedding cake, made by the bridegroom's mother, was cut with a knife loaned by Mrs. James A. Grigsby.

Mrs. W. A. Graff and Mrs. Fred Greene poured coffee and Mrs. Mahr Reymers cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Bert Wright and Mrs. Robert E. Prentice presided at the punch bowls. Assisting were Mrs. Earl Lininger, Mrs. Harry Jewett and Mrs. Jack Milhoan. Mrs. Peter Johnston, sister of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book and Miss Nancy Lininger, the gifts.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wisely, Portland, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom and their daughter, Jaunice; Mr. and Mrs. Melville Plass, La Grande, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Perkins, Roseburg; Mrs. Minnie White, great-aunt of the bridegroom; Chester D. Yee, Santa Rosa, Calif.; and Milton Kutsurelis, E. Stephen Muerer and Gerald D. Lveen, all of Sacramento, Calif., fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Others from a distance were Robert Virtue, Eugene, uncle of the bride; Lt. and Mrs. Norman Winningham, Sunnyvale, Calif., cousins of the bride; Miss Nita Winningham, Yreka, Calif., cousin of the bride; Miss Lynda Garner, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Puhl, Eugene.

To Live in Idaho

The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon at Lake of the Woods before leaving for Pocatello, Ida., where the bridegroom will complete his course of study in pharmacy at Idaho State college. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue sheer sheath with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Phoenix High school and Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta sorority. She has accepted a teaching position at Almsworth Elementary school in Pocatello. The bridegroom is a graduate of Crater High

Family Attends Wedding Friday

Phoenix-The Rev. and Mrs. William Trusty and sons, Paul and Phillip, were in Klamath Falls Friday for the wedding of the Trustys' son, William, to Cherrill Louise Stafford, Klamath Falls.

Also attending the wedding were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Trusty, Elk Creek-Trail, and the Rev. and Mrs. James Gordon of Mt. Pitt Church of the Nazarene.

The newlyweds plan to make their home in Nampa, Idaho, where they will attend Northwest Nazarene college.

Prospect-Airman and Mrs. John Covey and son are visiting with Airman Covey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Covey, Prospect. The airman is on leave from Nashville, Tenn., and the travelers are en route to Fairbanks, Alaska, where he has been transferred by the Air Force.

Frustrated fraternity brothers of Bridegroom Donald Eugene Wisely, who had planned the usual hi-jinks to tease the newly-wedded young man and his bride, were left on the banks of the Rogue river while the couple started for their honeymoon by boat. True, the boat trip didn't last very long, for a short distance down stream the couple disembarked at the spot where their car was safely parked.

and continued from there to Lake of the Woods. Helping the newlyweds with their "getaway" were the bride's father, Jack James, and her cousin, Lt. (jg) Norman Winningham, Sunnyvale Calif., of the United States Navy, whose uniform made the "crew" look official. Mrs. Wisely is the former Sharon Lee James (Classic photo)

Service League To Hold Brunch And Bridge Party

Medford Junior Service League will open the fall social season with a brunch and bridge party at Mon Desir Monday, September 19. A style show featuring the latest in fall and winter fashions, will be held during the brunch and eight valley stores are loaning clothing to be modeled by league members.

The party will be in the Italian mood, with decor, music and prizes designed to give the guests the feeling that they are on a visit to Italy. Bridge prizes, other prizes, and a special prize, whose origin will be disclosed later, are products of Italy.

Two Students Given Degrees; Wedding Today

Two students from Medford, Miss Rose Marie Beltz and Mrs. Donald Webb (nee Kay Thompson), received bachelor of science degrees in nursing August 19 and 20 at Walla Walla college, Wash.

Miss Beltz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Beltz, 1119 Niantic street. She is to be married today to John Louis Hayden. Mr. Hayden, formerly of Lima, Peru, was recently discharged from the Army.

Mrs. Webb is a daughter of Mrs. Vyrbelle Thompson, Plaza apartments, and Dr. Bernard Thompson, 26 Crater Lake avenue.

Both young women are to take state board examinations in Portland Sept. 7 and 8 to qualify as registered nurses.

Parents of the two students were in College Place, Wash., for the graduation exercises.
