Episcopal Ceremony Weds Couple

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the scene of the wedding Saturday, August 20, of Miss Delia Norma Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Robinson, 1917 East Main street, to Kenneth Santiago, North Highlands, Calif. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Santiago, 3929 Fargo way, North Highlands.

The double-ring wedding service was performed at four o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. George V. Bolster. A small number of friends and relatives attended.

The bride's sisters, Mrs. T. G. Karrick Jr., Forest Grove, and Mrs. Dwight V. Sullivan were her attendants. John and Wilfred Santiago, brothers of the bridegroom, were groomsmen and Theron G. Karrick, Jr., Forest Grove, acted as best man.

Mr. Robinson gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a ballerina-length gown of white nylon organza over taffeta, styled with very full skirt, edged in lace, and a fitted lace bodice with short sleeves and a scalloped Sabrina neckline. She carried a bouquet of white baby roses with stephanotis.

Her finger-tip-length veil had been worn by her sisters at their weddings. It was held by a crown of seed pearls.

The bride's attendants wore sheaths of light blue-brocaded cotton with cap sleeves and Sabrina neckline. They also wore blue whimsy veils with blue daisies and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Arrangements of gladioli, white chrysanthemums and candelabra provided a background for the ceremony. Mrs. Ernest Conrad was at the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were hosts for a buffet supper and reception following the wedding. Miss Karen Paschke served the cake; Mrs. Lyman Robinson poured coffee, and ten-year-old Winona Santiago, sister of the bridegroom, took charge of the guestbook. Three other young sisters of the bridegroom assisted in the rooms.

Those traveling from out of town for the event, in addition to the bridegroom's family, included Lt. and Mrs. John Kershaw and two children, Mr. and Mrs. William Kanaskie and M. Davenport, all of North Highlands, and Miss Judy Chastain, Portland.

The bride attended Medford High school and Pacific university. The bridegroom attended Waipahu High school in Hawaii and Pacific university. They will make their home in North Highlands following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

Miss Janet Kay Barker Wed to Donald Bowling

Miss Janet Kay Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barker, 222 Ashland avenue, became the bride of Donald Wayne Bowling, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowling, 802 Grant street, in a ceremony August 20 at St. Peter's Lutheran church.

Baskets of yellow and white gladioli decorated the altar for the service, which was read by the Rev. John E. Simon at 7 o'clock in the evening. One hundred guests attended.

The bride wore a white full-length gown of net over taffeta with long sleeves and a Sabrina neckline. Appliqued flowers decorated the neckline, sleeve points and skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli. Mr. Barker gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Joyce Smith was maid of honor, Miss Patricia Richey, Talent, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Marilyn Barker, Klamath Falls, the bride's cousin, were bridesmaids. The attendants wore ballerina-length gowns of yellow chiffon over taffeta with satin bands at the waist and neckline. White satin bands held their veils.

The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of yellow gladioli and the bridesmaids carried nosegays of white carnations.

Billy Gene Bowling was best man for his brother, Jack T. Walker II, David A. Elrod, Clark L. Barker, the bride's brother, and Jerry Jordan, cousin of the bridegroom, were ushers. Mrs. Richard Smith played the organ.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece dress of wheat color, with bone-white accessories and a corsage of white gladioli. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue sheath dress with white accessories and white gladioli.

A reception followed in Girls Community club. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli decorated the hall. Mrs. Evan Petty, Grants Pass, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, which had been decorated by Mrs. Earl Smith. Mrs. Everett Barker, Klamath Falls, poured coffee and Mrs. Paul Phelps and Mrs. Oak Barker, both of Klamath Falls, poured punch. Mrs. Shirley Jones and Mrs. Lester Lingsheit, Keno, were in charge of the gift table, while Mrs. Jack T. Walker II was in charge of the guest book.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school in 1958 and the bridegroom is a 1958 graduate of the school. He attended Southern Oregon college and is now an apprentice carpenter with M. J. Jordan, contractor. The newlyweds traveled to the California coast on their honeymoon, the bride wearing for travel a turquoise sheath with white accessories. They are making their home at 525 West Tenth street, apartment 4.

A rehearsal dinner for the wedding party was given August 19 at the M. J. Jordan home. Mrs. Jordan, aunt of the bridegroom, and her daughter, Mrs. Jack T. Walker II, were hostesses.

Medford League Planning Election Year Activities

"Since this is an important election year, the program and work of the League of Women Voters will be more exciting and interesting than usual," according to Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, Medford League president.

Plans for the coming year's work will be outlined and discussed at a picnic luncheon, the year's first meeting, Wednesday, August 31.

New and prospective members and guests are especially invited to attend this event, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Danielson, 2316 Siskiyou boulevard. Programs of study and action in the areas of local, state and national government will be presented and opportunities for participation in programs throughout the year will be presented.

League officers stress that there is "something for everyone to do that will fit in with her own interests and background."

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. with an informal meeting at 1:30 o'clock, followed by bridge and swimming and a get-acquainted hour.

September Rites Planned By Pair

Talent - Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Tompkins, Foss road, Talent, have made known plans for the coming wedding of their daughter, Phyllis Marie, to Donald Ray Nelson. Mr. Nelson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nelson, 1289 Woodrow lane, Medford.

The couple plans to be married in September.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Southern Oregon

Champagne Luncheon

The annual champagne luncheon, held each year during the Southern Oregon Golf Championship tournament, has been scheduled for Friday, September 2, at 12:30 p.m. at Rogue Valley Country club. This will be the 32nd tournament.

All women contestants of the tournament and wives of out-of-town contestants will be honored guests of the Rogue Valley Women's Golf association at the event.

Those in charge report that there will be no play for women on Friday and local members will have an opportunity to become acquainted with the guests.

Local social members of the country club who wish to attend are asked to make reservations before noon Thursday, Sept. 1.

Due to the tournament, regular weekly play for local Lady Golfers will not be held September 1.
