

Brood-Hertager Ceremony

Eagle Point—Miss Linda Louise Hertager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hertager, Eagle Point, became the bride of Delmar Gene Brood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Brood, Dark Hollow road, Phoenix, August 19. The Rev. H. C. Covert performed the double-ring ceremony at Zion Lutheran church at eight o'clock in the evening. Approximately 200 guests attended.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church. Maynard Hadley was soloist, accompanied by Miss Ruth Covert, organist.

The bride wore a gown of white lace over satin, with a full skirt and a sweep neckline trimmed in seed pearls. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a headpiece trimmed in pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and Cymbidium orchids with sprays of ivy. Mr. Hertager escorted his daughter to the altar.

Her attendants were Miss Patricia Clave, who was maid of honor, and Mrs. David Bliss, Trail, and Miss Nadine Brood, Phoenix, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaids.

They wore gowns of pale blue nylon chiffon with white slippers. Their headpieces were decorated with seed pearls to match the bride's, and they carried bouquets of pink gladioli.

The flower girl, Shelly Cox, Eagle Point, and the candlelighters, Stephanie and Frances Wails, Klamath Falls, cousins of the bride, also wore gowns to match, in taffeta.

Wears Pink
For the event, Mrs. Hertager chose a pale pink brocade sheath dress with pink and white accessories and a rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore an off-white ensemble and a white carnation corsage.

Duane Brood, Phoenix, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Clyde Ashinhurst and Richard Hertager, brother of the bride.

A reception followed in the church. Tables were decorated with tuberous begonias and pink and white gladioli. Pink and rose tuberous begonias encircled the wedding cake, which had been made and decorated by the bride's mother and her aunt, Mrs. James Wails, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Wails and Mrs. Earl Brewold cut and served the cake and Miss Glenna Brewold was at the punch bowl. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Darrell Copeland. Miss Barbara Ashinhurst and Miss Margie Brood were at the gift table and Miss Suedene Christian took charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Earl Fichtner played the piano during the reception.
