Community Bible Church Scene of Wedding Rites

Central Point - Miss Georgene Ann Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hicks, 720 West 11th street, became the bride of Walter L. Sewell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Sewell, 5202 Table Rock Road, August 19 at Community Bible church.

The Rev. Paul O. Kroon performed the rites at eight o'clock in the evening before a setting of lavender and white flower arrangements. Jerry Holdridge, talent, sang, accompanied by Miss Elaine V. Kroon, organist.

Mrs. W. G. Preston, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Miss Sylvia Swan, Hood River, a college friend, and Miss Joanne Hill, Talent, were bridesmaids.

The bride wore a ballerina-length brocaded taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of gladiolus centered with a white orchid. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

The bride's attendants wore lavender and light blue flowered dresses and carried lavender bouquets. The candle-lighters, Barbara Willis, Cottage Grove, and Sara Richards, also wore lavender dresses.

Brian Sewell was best man for his brother. Seating guests were Paul Evers, Shady Cove, and David Burns, Medford.

A reception for the young couple followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Isabelle Champ served the cake, which had been decorated by Mrs. Walter Larson. Miss Suzanne Christian, Seattle, was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Susan Miller poured the punch.

The bride attended Seattle Pacific college and the bridegroom attended Crater High at the University of Oregon and Southern Oregon college. In Medford for the wedding were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Seth Maxwell and Mrs. John S. Dyke, both Baker, Ore. Relatives of the bridegroom here were Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson, Rogue River, his uncle and aunt, and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pauck, cousins from Lakeview.

Mrs. D. A. Hutchison, Mrs. E. L. Lenox and Mrs. Scott Davis made up a committee of women from the church to arrange the reception. For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a silk apricot print frock with bone white accessories and white rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a powder blue linen sheath with white accessories and white rose corsage.

For traveling the bride wore a Navy blue silk sheath with white accessories. The newlyweds will live in Boise, Ida. Both the bride and her husband have been students

Marriage Ceremony Held At Westminster Church

Medford's new Westminster Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Carol Jean Dyke to Robert C. Gewiss on Saturday, August 13. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Dyke, 21 South Keeneway, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Gewiss, Leaburg, Ore.

The Rev. D. Kirkland West, pastor of First Presbyterian church, and the Rev. John O. Reynolds, pastor of the new church, officiated for the wedding held at three o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Dyke gave his daughter in marriage.

White and lavender gladiolus were arranged in the entrance-way of the church, and made a floral setting for the bridal party.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta with fitted bodice, long sleeves and Sabrina neckline accented with iridescent sequins and pearls. The full skirt was fashioned with tulle panels in back and front and with wide bands of lace in scallops. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a miniature bonnet of Chantilly lace and tulle embroidered with pearls and she carried white roses.

Mrs. Floyd Norton, Ashland, was matron-of-honor and the other attendants were Miss Denise Bruning, Medford and Mrs. Lynn Reitman, Corvallis. Their frocks were of lavender organza over taffeta fashioned with tulle cummerbunds and they carried colonial bouquets of lavender and white carnations.

Robert McNutt, Eugene, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Lynn Reitman, Corvallis, and Roger Dyke, brother of the bride.

Otis Swisher sang, and Mrs. R. A. Sheldon played the traditional wedding marches.

About 100 relatives and friends attended the reception which followed at the church. Mrs. George Flanagan cut and served the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Charles Marchant. Mrs. Ross Gilkison, aunt of the bride, was at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. Paul Chinn. Miss Pamela Gilkison, the bride's cousin, took charge of the guest book.

Mrs. D. A. Hutchison, Mrs. E. L. Lenox and Mrs. Scott Davis made up a committee of women from the church to arrange the reception.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a silk apricot print frock with bone white accessories and white rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a powder blue linen sheath with white accessories and white rose corsage.
