

Out-Of-Valley Golfers Qualify Wednesday in Southern Oregon

Not long after sunrise on Wednesday morning a four-some of men will start out from No. 1 tee and launch a day of golf at Rogue Valley Country club that may last into the sunset or longer.

The occasion will be the final day of qualifying for the 32nd annual Southern Oregon Championship, a Labor Day holiday traditional event at the popular Medford links. Matches in the tournament open on Thursday with finals in men's, senior men's and ladies divisions on the legal holiday, Monday, Sept. 5.

Golfers from outside the Rogue valley area to have their qualifying rounds tomorrow. Leading off the parade of divoters around the 18-hole layout will be Melvin Miller, Menlo Park, Calif.; Ray Flower, Sonoma, Calif.; Wilfred Jossy, Portland Golf club, and Dennis McManus, Eureka, Calif. Their tee off time is 6 a.m.

Players in mostly foursomes will take to the links every seven minutes after that except for an 11-minute break at the end of each hour.

Locals Qualifying

Rogue Valley Country club members and other entrants from the valley area trying for the championship flights in the three divisions were qualifying today, along with players from outside the Rogue valley who so wished. High handicappers of Jackson and Josephine counties qualified from Aug. 21 through yesterday. This advance play was aimed at making the links less congested for Wednesday heavy play.

Galleries on Wednesday will have their eyes on at least three men's foursomes in which top contenders are touring. One with a 10-42 tee off time lists Ed Kovachovich, Eureka, Calif., George Clerich, Eastmoreland, Portland, Gene Maidment, Colwood, Portland, and Sam Cavallio, Columbia-Edgewater, Portland. Kovachovich is a perennial contender. Clerich has been a medalist here and Maidment is a scratch (no-handicap) player. Atkinson at 1:21 p.m.

Two other scratch players, Phil Underwood, Waverly, and Charles Siver, Columbia-Edgewater, go out at noon with Jon Siverson, Tacoma, Wash., and Jim Snider, ex-Medford resident, another C-E man. Three-times Southern Oregon and state champ Bob Atkinson, Portland Golf club, is slated to tee off at 1:21 p.m. with Louis Stafford, Bill Wittenberg, and Dick Yost, all of C-E. Stafford is an ex-National Public Links finalist and Wittenberg golfed for Willamette university.

Whether Yost will go out with the other three is a question. He qualified for the Southern Oregon yesterday by declaring his first 18 holes (which turned out to be a 76) in National Amateur qualifying in Portland but might use his Wednesday spot here as a chance for practice play.

Bob Prall, Salem, defending men's champ has a 2:35 p.m. starting time. He has the option of taking No. 2 seeded position rather than taking part in qualifying play. Miss Betty Martin, Longview, Wash., 1959 women's winner, will take her seeded place.

Women Slated

Miss June Robinson, Albany, winner in the Oregon Coast tourney earlier this summer, has a 6:49 a.m. starting time with Mrs. Marilyn Leggett, Eastmoreland, Miss Mary Pat Moty, Bend, and Mrs. Oric Johansson, Coos Bay. Miss Shirley Siegmund, Eugene, ex-SO medalist, and runner-up to Miss Robinson in the Oregon Coast, goes out at 7:14 a.m. With her are to be Mrs. Raymond Scott, Eastmoreland, Miss Linda Anderson, Olympia, Wash., and Mrs. Glen Scharback, Oswego. Mrs. Scott has been a leading ladies' contender in numerous Southern Oregon meets. Miss Anderson was a Pacific Northwest amateur semi-finalist this year.

A 7:35 a.m. tee off is shown from Mrs. Tom Harrison, Waverly, 1960 Pacific Northwest Amateur finalist. Mrs. Ed Wheelock, perennially in the running, will start her qualifying round at 8:21 a.m. Jack Mattison, a scratch golfer from Eugene, goes out at 11:21 a.m. and John Kerr, Eugene, 1959 prep all-stater, at 2:28 p.m. Kerr, ex-St. Mary's high of Medford, did his prep golfing for St. Francis of Eugene.

Biggest Field

The Southern Oregon tournament field of 423, biggest in history, lists 272 men, 55 senior men and 96 ladies.

Sixty-four low scoring men in qualifying play will make the championship flight. In ladies' and seniors divisions, title flights will be of 16 players each.

There will be 14 other lower flights of 16 men each for men. Men's championship flight first round losers drop into a 32-man first flight and losers in the other flights go into consolation play.

Women will start with six and senior men with four flights of play with first round losers falling into odd-numbered flights for second round action.

Some of the play in men's and women's lower flights will be at Oak Knoll Golf course at Ashland because Rogue Valley, with the huge entry, cannot handle the traffic until the fields are narrowed down.

Ron Caperna, Rogue Valley pro, who with his staff is in the midst of a busy week, has expressed the opinion that participants will have to shoot 77s or 78s or better to make the men's championship flight.

The event will be at the Oregon Technical institute campus. Course will be all asphalt 1 to 1½ miles in length with first, second and possibly some third-gear straightaways.

A valid driver's license and seat belts are required. Sign-up time is 8 a.m. and starting time is 9 a.m. There are ladies classes as well as men's.

COSMETICS COST

Americans spend about $1 billion a year for cosmetics.

Yost Qualifies For SO, National Amateur Tests

Dick Yost, Columbia-Edgewater club, Portland, who is expected to be a major contender for the Southern Oregon men's golf title in play here during the next several days, qualified for the Rogue Valley County club event yesterday during National Amateur qualifying play at Portland.

Yost exercised his option of declaring his first 18-hole round at Portland for the Southern Oregon. He carded a 76. He had a one-under-par 71 on his second round for a 147 to also qualify for the National Am test to be held Sept. 12-19 at Clayton, Mo.

One of two Rogue Valley Country club players turned in a fine score in the National qualifying. Dr. Ralph Odell, the local club champion, shot 72-77-149. Dr. Dave Boals, also of Medford, had a first round 80 and withdrew.

Yost is regarded a Southern Oregon favorite and man to watch because of his background of stellar golf. He has played on the United States

Walker Cup team, has been a National Amateur semi-finalist and quarter finalist and has played in the Masters tourney. Dick's trophies include those for the Pacific Northwest and Oregon amateur and open championships.

The Portlander, playing in the Western Open, established a course record of 64 on the San Francisco Presidio layout. He is one of six handicap players entered in the Southern Oregon meet.

Portland-Oregon rifle hunters possessing controlled hunt big game tags for the Wallowa and Snake River Pack areas will get in the first licks of the big game seasons on Sept. 3, when these two areas are scheduled to open for deer hunting. The early season will run through Sept. 7 in the Snake River area and through Sept. 11 in the Wallowa area. In addition to the early controlled season, unsuccessful hunters may also use their controlled tags in the areas throughout the general deer season, Oct. 1 through 23.
