

INGRID KRAMER UPSETS U.S. FAVORITE

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Rome—UPI—Blonde Ingrid Kramer, 17, the apple-cheeked doll from Dresden, scored a rare diving double in the Olympics today when she nosed out Paula Jean Pope, 25, Santa Ana, Calif., to add the high diving championship to her springboard laurels.

The German girl repulsed the California beauty with a magnificent final dive which netted her 18.48 points for a victorious 91.28 total before 10,000 spectators.

Mrs. Pope, the favorite, finished second with a final dive good for 16.56 points and an 88.94 total, which left her second once again by a heartbreaking 2.34 points.

Mrs. Juno Irwin, 31, Glendale, Calif., finished fourth with a final dive good for 16.33 points and an 83.59 total while Canada's Irene Macdonald, 27, wound up ninth with a total of 80.49 points.

Mrs. Pope was a mere 1.60 points behind her blonde German rival as they went into today's two final dives at the Olympic Swimming stadium.

Russia Wins Race

The latest United States failure followed on the heels of another victory for Russia when Viktor Kapitonov won the gold medal in the 175-kilometer (about 110 miles) cycling race.

It was the fourth gold medal won by Russia so far in the Olympics, against only one for the United States.

Kapitonov managed to beat out Ljovio of Italy by inches. Kapitonov's winning time was 4:20.37, an average speed of about 26 miles per hour.

Today, the 17-year-old Miss Schuler has an excellent opportunity to win a gold medal in the women's 100-meter butterfly final, and Mulliken can make it two in the men's 200-meter breaststroke final.

Miss Schuler shattered the Olympic record for the 100-meter butterfly Monday when she churned out a 1:09.8 clocking to qualify for today's final. The old record of 1:11 flat was set in 1956 by Shelley Mann of the United States at close race with fellow American Sam Hall of Dayton, Ohio. They finished 1-2 to take home both the gold and silver medals on a day in which the Yanks won a total of three medals in all.

The U.S. basketball team routed Hungary, 107-63, for its third straight victory with All-America Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati scoring 22 points and All-America Jerry Lucas of Ohio State 21, and the U.S. water polo team defeated Belgium, 5-2, to mark other top American performances Monday.

However, the Americans were somewhat disappointed when Chris Von Saltza, a strong hope for a gold medal, bowed to Australia's Dawn Fraser in the 100-meter free style. The 21-year-old Miss Fraser, a Sydney secretary, beat 17-year-old Chris from Saratoga, Calif., by a full length, breaking loose in the last 40 meters to win in 1:01.2 to tie her own world record.

Miss Von Saltza said later she "didn't know why" her time of 1:02.8 was so much slower than her best clocking of 1:01.9 in preliminary heats, but coach George Haines attributed it to her freezing up a little because of "Australian propaganda," and said she "probably" was half beaten before the race even started.

Mulliken made it two straight U.S. Olympic record performances later in the day when he surged through a 200-meter breaststroke trial in 2:37.2, bettering the old mark of 2:38 he set in the opening round on Saturday.

the championships along with four other Oregon girls by winning the telegraphic regional match in Portland last week.

Miss Furrer's team, which is sponsored by the Oregon Journal, beat out teams from Amarillo, Tex., Phoenix, Ariz., and Milwaukee, Wis. Total team score for the winners was 2377. She also had the individual high series total in Portland when she rolled a 505.

Four other regional winners will be competing in the Los Angeles tourney, but

New Orleans Drubs Klamath Falls Nine

Hastings, Neb. — (UPI) — New Orleans scored single runs in the second and eighth innings to defeat Klamath Falls, 2-0, in the first round of the national American Legion Junior baseball tournament here Monday night.

Klamath Falls, which last week won the Western regional legion championship, collected only two hits off the Louisiana team's pitcher, Dick Roniger.

The tourney is a double-elimination affair.

Roniger had a no-hit, no-run "perfect" game going until the Oregonians managed a single in the seventh inning.

New Orleans picked up its run in the second inning when catcher Joe McMahon tripled and Henry Winters singled him home. An error, one of six committed by Klamath Falls, kept the inning going and the run was not earned.

The Louisianans scored

Florists Top Phoenix 1-0

Stratford, Conn. — (UPI) — The Erv Lind Florists of Portland, with Louise Mazuca turning in her second straight shutout pitching victory, defeated Phoenix, Ariz., 1-0, in the second round of the women's world softball championship tournament.

Mazuca struck out 12.

In other games here Monday, the defending champion Raybestos Brakettes defeated Orange, Calif., 3-1; Lynn, Mass., edged Houston, Tex., 4-2; Philadelphia, Pa., nipped Dayton, Ohio, 2-1; Toronto routed Hartford, Conn., 4-0, and Vancouver, B.C., handed Pine Bluff, Ark., its second loss of the double-elimination tournament, 2-1.

The Florists finished in second spot in last year's tourney.

Carolyn Wood And Team Are Second to GB

Rome — (UPI) — Four United States teen-agers, including Carolyn Wood of Portland, Ore., finished second to Great Britain today in the women's 400-meter Olympic medley relay.

The U.S. team was three-tenths of a second behind Great Britain. Germany was third, another yard away.

The fastest eight teams qualify for Friday night's finals.

Miss Wood, 14-year-old Multnomah Athletic club swim star, swam the third butterfly leg for the U.S. team. Joan Spillane, 17, Houston, Tex., finished with a game freestyle final leg but couldn't quite catch her British rival in the final few yards. Lynn Burke, 17, Flushing, N. Y., and Ann Warner, 15, Menlo Park, Calif., swam the backstroke and breaststroke respectively for the U.S.

Palmer Adds Winnings

Dunedin, Fla. — (UPI) — Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., leading money winner in this year's PGA tournaments, increased his earnings to $75,400 with the $1,850 he picked up for his third place tie in the Milwaukee Open golf tournament. Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif., the $4,300 first prize winner at Milwaukee, is second in earnings with $1,900.

these teams have not yet been selected.

Miss Furrer is the daughter of Ralph Furrer, route 4 box 471, Medford. The family just moved here this summer from Oswego and Marian will be attending Phoenix High school this fall.

Expenses during the Los Angeles trip are being paid jointly by the Oregon Journal and the AMF Bowling corporation.

Brown Mentor Pleased With PU Facilities

Forest Grove — (UPI) — Head Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns came as close to a note of optimism as a football coach ever allows himself Monday as he drilled his team for their clash with the San Francisco 49ers in Portland's Multnomah stadium Saturday night.

Brown said he was highly pleased with the facilities of the Pacific university campus here, and had some complimentary things to say about the food. Said Brown:

"The layout here reminds me a lot of our base at Hiram college in Ohio. It's just what we need to apply the necessary tune-up touches for our game with the 49ers." Brown said he liked the way his players rebounded from their 22-17 loss to the Los Angeles Rams last Saturday night. He said the Browns were alert and full of snap in Monday's workouts. Several observers have picked the Cleveland Browns to win the NFL title this season.

Thompson Lost To OSC Gridders

Corvallis — (UPI) — George Thompson, counted on as a regular end for Oregon State's football team this fall, notified Coach Tommy Prothro Monday he would not be able to compete this year because of a bad knee.

Thompson lettered as a sophomore and played 75½ minutes before suffering a knee injury last fall. He underwent surgery last winter and did not take part in contact work during spring practice.
